TABLE CCCLXXII.

All the KINGS of FRANCE together.

THE Gauls, the ancient Inhabitants of this Country, and of the ſame Original with the old Germans are famous in Hiſtory for a valiant and potent People; as Julius Cæſar found when they afforded him ten Years hard Work with ten Roman Legions before he could compleat his Conqueſt; nor did he ever totally ſubdue them. After they had been near 500 Years under the Dominion of the Romans, the Franconians or Franks a German People, having expell'd the Vandals, Alans, Suevians, Goths and Burgundians out of Gaul, became Maſters of the Country, now from them call'd France. And ever ſince the Government has been in the hands of Franconian Kings of three principal Races, viz. the Merovingians from MEROVAEUS, the Carolinians from Charles Martel or from CHARLEMAIN, and the Capetingians from HUGH CAPET, whoſe Original has occaſion'd much Debate among Hiſtorians. Some deriving him from WITEKIND the Great as in Table 215, which Opinion, the modern French Hiſtorians oppoſe, believing their Kings not to be deſcended from Forreigners, and are at great Pains to prove their Deſcent either from the Merovingians or Carolinians; thoſe who deduce them from the Carolinians are much divided, and their Opinions are in Tab. 374. But thoſe who plead for HUGH CAPET's Merovingian Deſcent, ſay it was either from ALBERO or SIGIMER his Brother, the Son of CLODIO the Son of PHARAMUND as in Table 374, or according to Table 373 from Sigebert the Natural Son of THEODORIC II. King of Mentz. See the other Opinions of this Affair in Table 374. But however the Capetingians are deſcended; it is certain that from them directly ſpring the Valeſian and Bourbonian KINGS down to the preſent King LEWIS XV.

Theſe Modern Authors reckon up the immediate Predeceſſors of PHARAMUND in this Order, viz.

FRANCUS who liv'd in the third Century, in the Reign of the Emperors Valerianus and Gallienus.
GENEBAUDES reign'd cotemporary with the Emperors Maximinus and Conſtantin II.
VALLOBAUDES cotemporary with the Emperors Conſtantius Valentinian and Gratian.
PRIAM cotemporary with the Emperor Theodoſius Magnus. And MARCOMIR flouriſh'd in the ſame Emperor's Reign. He was the Father of,
PHARAMOND the firſt King, for whoſe Genealogy ſee Table 371, and 373, &c.

TABLE CCCLXXVII.

The Old Kings and Counts of Bretaigne.

Armorica, anciently ſo called, from its Situation on the Sea, came to be called Bretaigne, as ſome think, from a Colony of Britons brought or ſent hither by Maximus the Roman Governor of Britain, when he rebell'd againſt the Emperor Gratian and ſet himſelf up to be Emperor about A. D. 385. Thoſe Britons becoming Maſters of this Province, it was from them named Britannia Minor (Little Britain;) but this being only firſt mention'd by Geffrey of Monmouth, and by no Author before him, it is look'd upon as fabulous: As for the Welch, or ancient Britiſh Words, found ſtill in ſome Parts of Bretaign, they may more juſtly be counted the Remains of the ancient Gallic Language, of which the ancient Britiſh was a Dialect. Others affirm that Armorica was fill'd with a People call'd Britanni from Gallia Belgica that fled upon the Incurſions of the Northern Nations, and ſettl'd here; but That has no more certainty than the former, only 'tis generally believ'd that ſome Britons, either from Gallia Belgica, or from the Iſland of *Great-Britain, made, in proceſs of time, a conſiderable Settlement among the Armoricans, but the Time is uncertain, though it ſeems to have been begun ſome time before the Franks made any Settlement in Gaul, for the People of this Country are not Franks. They were govern'd at firſt by their own Kings, who being only mention'd in the Romantic Legends of the Monks, whoſe Writings cannot be depended upon for accurate Truths, I ſhall overlook them all, ſave King Aldroenus or Auldran the Son of King Solomon, who (according to Geffrey of Monmouth) was ſolicited by the Inſular Britons, to help them in their Diſtreſs againſt the Scots and Picts, and ſent over his Brother Constantin with a well appointed Army to their Aid, who having repuls'd the Enemy, was made King of Britain A. D. 433, for whoſe Poſterity ſee the old Britannic Tables. They that begin the Kingdom of the Britons in Armorica with the Days of Maximus A. D. 385, call their firſt King Conan, the Father of Grallon, the Father of Solomon, the Father of Aldroenus, or Auldran, and of Constantin King of the Inſular Britons. Auldran was the Father of Bodes, the Father of Hoel, the Father of Alain, the Father of Hoel, the Father of Solomon, the Grandfather of Alain II. the laſt King of Bretaign of the Race of Conan; who dying without Male Iſſue, his Kingdom was diſtracted by Competitors, and at laſt ſubdued by Charlemain. And though they recover'd their Liberty and Kingdom in the time of Lewis Pius, yet they did not long enjoy the quiet Poſſeſſion of it. And after the Murder of two or three Uſurpers of the Royal Title, the invidious Name of King was laid aſide, and the Title of Count was ſubſtituted in its Place, which Counts are as follow, viz.

When he was King he intended to unite the Dukedom of Bretaigne to the Crown of France by Force; but perceiving that Maximilian of Auſtria had concluded a Match with Ann the ſole Heireſs of Bretaigne, and fearing the growing Greatneſs of the Houſe of Auſtria, he oblig'd the Bride, what by Force, and what by Flattery to renounce Maximilian (as in Table 378.) and to be married to himſelf. He made Peace with Henry VII. King of England and with the Emperor Maximilian 1493. Then he claim'd the Kingdom of Naples and undertook an Expedition thither 1494, which occaſion'd continual Miſeries to Italy for 40 Years. Charles had good Succeſs at firſt, he march'd to Rome and was inveſted in that Kingdom by Pope Alexander VI. and was alſo there crown'd Emperor of Conſtantinople. Then 1495 he took Capua and made his ſolemn Entrance into Naples with loud Acclamations; when the whole Kingdom ſubmitted to him except the Iſle of Iſeria and the Cities Brunduſi and Gallipoli. But the French, by their ill Behaviour, ſoon loſt the Favour of the Neapolitans, who ſoon revolted; and the Emperor, the Pope and Ferdinand King of Aragon made a League to expel the French from Italy. Charles therefore, that his Retreat might not be cut off, march'd into France, but was met with on the Way by the Confederate Army near the River Taro, where CHARLES was victorious, but ſtill kept on his March till he came to France; and then Ferdinand with Eaſe retook the Kingdom of Naples to the juſt Diſhonour of the French, in not maintaining Naples one Year. He was carried into Spain and very ill us'd, ſo that he fell ſick for Grief and was releas'd at the End of 15 Months upon very hard Terms, which he did not perform, pretending that what had been done was in Priſon and contrary to his Coronation Oath, ſo that the War commenc'd anew, during which the Germans take and plunder Rome, and the French beſiege Naples and take the Imperial Generals. But by the Inſtigation of Pope PAUL IV. who had ſome Differences with PHILIP, it was ſoon broken. The Duke of Guiſe was therefore ſent with an Army into Italy, but did nothing memorable. King PHILIP in the mean time beſieg'd and took St. Quintin 1557, and the Conſtable Montmorancy coming to relieve the Place receiv'd a great Defeat. Anno 1559, a Project was ſet on Foot to unite the Kingdoms of Scotland and France by the Marriage of Queen MARY and the Dauphin FRANCIS, but that prov'd unſucceſsful, FRANCIS dying without Iſſue. HENRY II. King of France.

XI. FRANCIS II. born 20 Jan. 1543, crown'd King 21 Sept. 1559, was eſteem'd in his Wife's Right as K. of Scotland. But being a Minor, the Queen-Mother, the Duke of Guiſe and his Brother the Cardinal manag'd all Affairs at their Pleaſure, ſhe having the ſupreme Adminiſtration, Guiſe the Military and the Cardinal the Finances. The Prince of Conde under Pretence of his old Age was diſmiſs'd the Court. Thus aroſe great Animoſities between the Houſes of Guiſe and Bourbon, which occaſion'd all the enſuing Calamities to the Kingdom of France. But FRANCIS † at Orleans Dec. 1560 without Iſſue. Wife, MARY Queen of Scotland was ſent into France 1548, married 24 April 1558, beheaded in England 18 Feb. 1587. See the Tables of Scotland.

Elizabeth, Daughter of the Emperor Maximilian II. married to CHARLES 1570, † 1592. Table 226.

Mary Elizabeth de Francia born 28 Oct. 1572, † 2 April 1578.

XII. CHARLES IX. born 27 June 1550, crown'd at Rheims 15 May 1560, and being a Minor was under the Guardianſhip of his Mother, who was very careful to keep up the Differences between the Houſes of Guiſe and Bourbon. She inſtituted the Conference of Poiſſy between ſome Divines of both Perſuaſions 1561. Then the Royal Protection was by a public Edict (call'd, The Edict of Jan. 1562) promis'd to the Proteſtant Religion, which greatly exaſperated the Triumvirate, viz. the Dukes of Guiſe and Montmorancy and the Mareſhal of St. Andrew, the ſworn Enemies of the Reformation; and ſo this ſame Year the firſt Religious War commenc'd, but a Peace was made 1563. After this the French beat the Engliſh out of Havre de Grace, which the Huguenots had given them as an Acknowledgment for their Aſſiſtance. It is reported that during this firſt War 50000 Huguenots were ſlain. This Peace continued no longer than till 1566, when the 2d War began. But after a Battel a 2d Peace was made 1568, which was broken next Year by the Commencement of the 3d War, during which the Prince of Conde was kill'd in a Battel near Jarnack, and then the Huguenots declar'd HENRY King of Navarre their Head, who was beat at the Battel of Moncontour, where he loſt 9000 Foot; but he ſoon recruited, being aſſiſted from the Palatinat with Soldiers, and by Queen ELIZABETH with Money. Then he directed his March to Paris, whereupon the Huguenots obtain a very advantagious Peace (tho' the main Deſign of the Peace was their Ruin.) The Admiral was careſs'd at Court, and a Marriage concluded between HENRY King of Navarre and Margaret the Siſter of this King CHARLES, to which Wedding they invited the Chief of the Huguenots with a Deſign to cut their Throats in Paris, contrived by the Cabinet Council of the King, the Queen Mother, the Dukes of Guiſe, Anjou, Nevers, Retz and Tauannes. Then it was agreed that at the tolling of the Bell for Morning Prayers (which was the barbarous Sign) all the Huguenots ſhould be maſſacred 24 Aug. 1571 except HENRY King of Navarre and the young Prince of Conde, which was executed accordingly, beginning with the Great Admiral Coligny whom they kill'd, cut off his Head, and uſed his Body with barbarous Diſgrace, ſo that within a few Days 30000 Proteſtants were miſerably maſſacred; yet after the firſt Conſternation was over, the Huguenots recruited themſelves and began the 4th War, during which the Royaliſts beſieged Rochelle, and having loſt 12000 Men before it, they rais'd the Siege, on the News of HENRY Duke of Anjou's being elected King of Poland, and made a Peace a fourth time 1573. But 1574 the fifth War commenc'd, when the Politician Faction aroſe in France, headed by the Houſe of Montmorancy. But during theſe Troubles King CHARLES † 30 May 1574. by a great Effuſion of Blood thro' all the Paſſages of his Body. His Miſtreſs was Mary Touchet Lady of Belleville.

XIII. HENRY III. born 19 September 1551, elected King of Poland 9 May 1573, but upon his Brother's Death he privately left Poland, and was crown'd King of France 13 February 1575. He being wholly addicted to his Pleaſures was eaſily led away by Flatterers, leaving the chief Adminiſtration of the Kingdom to his Mother. The Huguenots Power encreas'd remarkably; for the King's Brother Francis of Alençon, the Prince of Conde and the Palatin John Caſimir, ſided with them; and therefore a 5th Peace enſued, whereby they obtain'd very advantagious Conditions. At which time a new Faction was ſet up, which was call'd the Holy Union or League, which was chiefly promoted by Henry Duke of Guiſe; and tho' the Deſign of it was proclaim'd to be the Defence of the Roman Catholic Religion, and the Eſtabliſhment of HENRY III. and the Liberty of the Kingdom, yet the Duke of Guiſe aſpir'd after the Crown. The King ſign'd this League and call'd himſelf its Patron 1577. Then the 6th War againſt the Huguenots began; but the King being 100000000 in Debt made Peace that ſame Year and return'd to his Pleaſures, which made him odious to the People, who began to love and reſpect the Duke of Guiſe. Anno 1579, the 7th War againſt the Huguenots commenc'd, but Peace was made 1580, which laſted five Years. After which the Leaguers began the 8th War, and oblig'd the King to forbid the Exerciſe of the Proteſtant Religion in France; during which the King of Navarre beat the Duke of Joyeuſe near Courtras 1587, but did not proſecute his Victory. And about the ſame time the Duke of Guiſe diſpers'd the German and Swiſs Forces who were marching to the Aſſiſtance of the Huguenots, for which the Duke of Guiſe was highly applauded by the People and the King's Reputation diminiſh'd, the very Prieſts in their Sermons calling him a Tyrant, and the Leaguers oblig'd him to leave Paris by Night 1588. The King therefore abhorred the Leaguers, and being unable by Force to puniſh them, he pretended to paſs over all Injuries; and under ſpecious Pretences he got the Duke of Guiſe to appear at the Aſſembly of States at Blois, where he caus'd him and his Brother the Cardinal to be murder'd; Which Action ſo enrag'd the Leaguers, that the King was publickly declar'd in Paris to have forfeited the Crown and was excommunicated by the Pope: then he made an Agreement with the King of Navarre and join'd the Huguenots. He march'd to reduce the City of Paris to their Obedience; but the Day before the deſign'd general Attack, one James Clement a Jacobin Monk brought a Letter out of the City directed to the King, which whilſt he deliver'd, pretending to whiſper the King, he thruſt a Knife into his Bowels, of which he † next Day 2 Auguſt 1589, without Iſſue. CHARLES the Cardinal of Bourbon born 22 Dec. 1523. He was the Tool of the artful and ambitious Guises; for they not finding HENRY King of Navarr inclinable to their Purposes, apply'd themselves to his Uncle; this CHARLES, whom they persuaded to aspire at the Crown, promised to give him for a Wife their Sister Catharin the Widow of Montpensier, a subtle Woman, and to get the Pope's Consent. But their Design was to get the Kingdom for themselves after Charles should die without Issue. Therefore King HENRY III. after the Slaughter of the Guises at Blois, incarcerated this Charles, who nevertheless, after HENRY III. was murder'd, was by the Faction proclaim'd King, with the Name of CHARLES X.; and in his Name Gold and Silver Money was coin'd in the chief Cities of the Kingdom: Upon which HENRY IV. sent him farther off to Fontain in Poictou, where he was kept a Prisoner and † of Grief 9 May 1590.

ANTONY Duke of Vendome born 22 April 1518. His Father-in-Law dying without Male Issue he succeeded him in Navarr and the Principality of Bearn 1555, and there reign'd in Peace till the beginning of the Reign of FRANCIS II. in whose Reign he was call'd to the Court of France by the Constable Montmorancy, who hated the too great Authority of the Guises: ANTONY being of slow Temper, and distrusting Montmorancy, made no great Haste; but at last he came to Paris where he made a very short Abode, fearing the Guises, who then sat at the Helm of all Affairs, and lest the Spaniards should deprive him of the rest of Navarr; therefore he hastened to his own Dominions: But that he might return with some Appearance of Honour, he took upon him the Charge of conducting Princess Elizabeth, the Sister of King FRANCIS II. home to King Philip of Spain, to whom she had been betroth'd. He return'd again to the Court of France along with his Brother Lewis Prince of Condé a little before the Death of King FRANCIS; but on account of the Hatred the Guises bore to them, as if they had been concern'd in the Conspiracy of Blois, they had but cold Entertainment from the King; nay, they were in Danger of their Lives. But after the King's Death, Montmorancy effected an Agreement between the King of Navarr and the Queen Mother and Regent; and he was call'd Viceroy in all Parts of the Kingdom, and soon after by the same Means he was reconcil'd with the Guises, by whose flattering Persuasions, and the Promises of the Spaniards to give him Sardinia in the Place of Navarr, he was decoy'd to abandon the Protestants and join the Roman Catholics. But when he was besieging Roüen, he was wounded in the Shoulder 15 October 1562, of which he † 17 November following.

I. HENRY IV. Magnus, born 13 December 1553. He was King of Navarr 1562, afterwards Head of the Protestants at 15 Years of Age. In his 19th Year he was married to Margaret, Daughter of HENRY II. King of France, an unhappy Marriage, because of the Massacre of Paris 24 August 1572. Table 381. After 4 Years Servitude (as he accounted it) at Court, among Numbers of wicked Men and Women, the Enemies of Mankind, he left the Court and again join'd the Protestants; and in a short time became terrible to his Enemies, whom he thrice forced to sue for Peace, which they as often violated, viz. the Peace of Poictiers, Neracen and La Fleche. By the Battel of Coutray 1587, he broke up the League made between the Pope, the King of Spain and Duke of Guise: at last he succeeded to the Crown of France upon the Death of Henry III. 2 August 1589. He was at first hard put to it by the Contumacy of the Leaguers, whom he soon overcame at the Battel of Arques 1589, and next Year 14 March 1590, in the Battel of Yory, and that same Day his Generals conquer'd the Leaguers at Issoidre. At last when Alexander Farnesius arrived at Paris to put a Stop to his Victories, the King, to put a Stop to these Combustions, solemnly renounc'd the Protestant Religion and embrac'd the Roman Catholic 25 July 1593, upon which he was acknowledg'd to be King by the Cities, Parliaments and Chiefs of the League, and last of all by the Duke of Maine, and crown'd at Charters 17 February 1594, and next Year the King was wounded in his Mouth instead of his Throat by a Ruffian John Castel at the Instigation of the Jesuits, who were therefore banish'd France, tho' in a few Years restor'd. King HENRY publish'd the Edict of Nantes 1598, whereby the Protestants receiv'd the full Exercise of their Religion. He also made the Peace of Vereines that same Year, and then went against the Duke of Savoy, from whom he took all his Possessions on this side the Alps: But at last, by ~~the~~ Mediation of the Pope, a Peace was made 27 January 1601. Then he studied how to retrieve the Splendor of France. But in the midst of this Peace he design'd to stop the Growth of the House of Austria, and to keep it within the Bounds of Spain and the hereditary Countries, and so concerted Measures with the Northern Crowns, Holland, the Protestant Princes of Germany, the Elector of Bavaria, the Duke of Savoy, the Swiss, and even with the Pope himself. And to begin his Designs he laid hold of the Occasion of the Controversy about Juliers and rais'd 120000 Men and large Sums of Money to keep that Country from falling to the House of Austria. But his Death stopt all these grand Designs; for being in the Street of Paris in his Coach (which he was oblig'd to stop for the Croud) he was stabb'd with a Knife in his Belly by one Francis Rabillack a Jesuit, that he † immediately without uttering a Word 14 May 1610. Some say this was committed at the Instigation of the Spaniards, nay of the Queen herself. His first Concubin Gabrielis of Estrees.

II. LEWIS XIII. Justus, born 17 Sept. 1601, succeeded at 9 Years of Age, under the Tuition of his Mother, as King of France and Navarr 1610, and crown'd 18 Oct. that same Year. He took upon him the Government 1616, and caus'd Concini Marshal d'Ancre for his Pride and Ambition to be slain, and the Marquis de Vitri he made Marshal of France, and sent the Queen Mother from Court to Blois, from whence she was carried away by the Duke d'Espernon 1619. About the same Time Richelieu, afterwards a Cardinal, was in great Esteem at Court, who by his reiterated Persuasions made the King endeavour the Extirpation of the Huguenots, by him falsely represented as seditious and rebellious; and therefore the King re-establish'd the Roman Catholic Religion in his patrimonial Country of Bearne, which made the Huguenots break out into Violence, to the Loss of several Places, till a Peace was made. But Anno 1624, Cardinal Richelieu, being made prime Minister of State, resolv'd the taking of Rochell, which by Reason of the Famine (the Inhabitants having liv'd 18 Weeks without Bread) was taken about the End of October 1628. A little after these civil Wars were finish'd, France applied to foreign Affairs. The King assisted the Duke of Nevers to obtain the Dukedom of Mantua. In this War the Siege of Casal was most famous. But Matters were at last compos'd by the wise Management of Mazarin, who thereby laid the Foundation of his future Greatness. Anno 1630, LEWIS made an Alliance with Sweden, allowing Gustavus Adolphus a yearly Pension to assist him in opposing the Greatness of the House of Austria; and Anno 1633, he took Lorrain from the Duke, because he had declar'd for the Emperor. And when after the Battel of Nordlingen the House of Austria began to hold up its Head, LEWIS declar'd War against Spain 1634. The French were forc'd to raise the Siege of Lovain with great Loss, and 1638, they beat up the Siege of Leucate in Roussillon, and the brave Bernard Duke of Sax-Weimar took the Fortress of Brisac. The French 1639, were beat before Thionville, but 1640 they took Arras, and Catalonia threw itself under the Protection of the French. Perpignan was taken 1642, at which Siege the King and Richelieu were present in Person. Monsieur Cinqmars then insinuated himself into the King's Favour, hoping thereby to undermine Richelieu, and therefore had some secret Intrigues with Spain, which the Cardinal discovering caus'd Cinqmars to lose his Head. But Richelieu died that same Year, and the King † 14 May 1643.

III. LEWIS xiv. Magnus born 5 Sept. 1638, after his Mother had been barren 23 Years, and he was therefore call'd The Gift of God, was King of France and Navarr at 5 Years old, when he was alſo chriſtned. During his Minority his Mother and Cardinal Mazarin govern'd the Kingdom, carrying on the Project of Richelieu, to diveſt the Princes and Parliaments of France of their ancient Power and Privileges, and to lay the Foundation of his Univerſal Monarchy. But they rebell'd and forc'd the Queen Mother to baniſh and proſcribe Mazarin, who ſtill lurk'd about the Palace and acted all unſeen, and by his Artifices in the Treaty of Weſtphalia 1648, he obtain'd Alſatia for Lewis. The Fire of Rebellion expir'd by Degrees, till the King came of Age and was adored like a God both by the Roman Catholics and the Proteſtants too, who chearfully put on his Fetters and made his ſovereign Will and Pleaſure the only Law of France; whereby he was capable to carry on his grand Deſign of the Univerſal Monarchy, and made many Conqueſts, till his Career was ſtopt by the Triple Alliance of Britain, Sweden and Holland, who by the Peace of Aix la Chapell 1668, forc'd him to ſurrender moſt of his Conqueſts. But having recruited, he again purſued his grand Deſign 1672, when he march'd into Holland, and would have deſtroy'd that Republic by the Aſſiſtance of King Charles II. of England and the Biſhop of Munſter, had it not been miraculouſly preſerv'd. But Anno 1673, when King Charles join'd the Hollanders, William Prince of Orange their Stadtholder at the Head of an Army made Lewis retire ſhamefully to France, and by the Treaty of Nimeguen 1679, his grand Deſign was again blaſted, being forced to ſurrender moſt of his Conqueſts. Then he acted the Politician with Germany, bombarded Algiers 1683, and Genoa 1684, when he took the ſtrong Fort of Luxemburg. By the Advice of his Prieſts he deſtroy'd all the Proteſtant Churches of France 1685 and 1686, while he adviſ'd his dear Confederate King James II. of Britain to overturn the Proteſtant Religion in his Dominions; but that was prevented by the Revolution of England 1688, when King James fled to France, and William Prince of Orange was made King of Great Britain. Lewis ſent King James with an Army into Ireland 12 March 168$\frac{8}{9}$, while he open'd the Theatre of War on all ſides of France; and after King William had reduc'd Ireland and forc'd King James back to France, King William join'd the Emperor and Empire, the King of Spain, Duke of Savoy, the Pope and the Hollanders in a grand Alliance againſt King Lewis on 16 January 169$\frac{0}{1}$, which occaſion'd a bloody War with various Succeſs till he made an advantageous Peace with Britain, Spain, Savoy and Holland at Ryſwick 19 September N. S. 1697, and with the Empire in October following. He next amus'd the World with the Treaty of Partition till King Charles II. of Spain † 1 November 1700, N. S. when he proclaim'd the Duke of Anjou his 2d Grandſon Philip V. King of Spain: And when King James died in France 6 September 1701, he proclaim'd the Chevalier de St. George King of Great Britain, which made King William renew the grand Alliance: But he died on the 8th of March following and Queen Ann declar'd War againſt France and Spain 4 May 1702, as Lewis alſo declar'd War againſt the Confederates on the 8th of July following. But now his good Fortune fail'd him; for tho' the Duke of Bavaria join'd him, yet both their Forces were totally routed in the Battel of Hochſtadt 13 Auguſt 1704, while the Engliſh took Gibraltar and ſo batter'd the French Fleet that they never offer'd ſince to diſpute the Dominion of the Seas. The French Army was again routed at Ramellies 12 May 1706 O. S. and the French were forc'd to raiſe the Siege of Barcelona, while the Confederates took Poſſeſſion of Madrid, and 7 September the famous Battel of Turin was fought, the French were totally routed, and the Duke of Savoy reſtor'd: And tho' the French and Spaniards under the Duke of Berwick defeated the Confederates at Almanza 25 April 1707, N. S. yet Lewis fail'd in his Deſcent upon Scotland with the Pretender in March 170$\frac{7}{8}$, and loſt the Battel of Oudenarde 11 July 1708, and the Loſs of Liſle follow'd while a Famine rag'd in France. And 11 September 1709 N. S. he loſt the famous Battel of Malplacket with the City of Mons, and France had ſoon been invaded by the Confederates and ruin'd, but for the Change of the Miniſtry in England 1710, the Death of the Emperor Joseph, the turning out of the Duke of Marlborough from being General, when Queen Ann ſeparated from the Emperor, made a Ceſſation of Arms and granted Lewis an honourable Peace at Utrecht 30 March 1713 O. S. to which moſt of the Allies acceded, and the Emperor too at laſt on the 6th of March 171$\frac{3}{4}$ at Raſtadt. But when the Earl of Marr went from the Court of England 1 Auguſt 1715 to raiſe a Rebellion in Scotland, Lewis prepar'd to aſſiſt the Chevalier, but was ſuddenly taken with great Pains in his Legs till the Gangreen appear'd which cut him off 1 September N. S. He was a magnificent Prince, and tho' no learned Man himſelf, yet he was the greateſt Encourager of Learning and Arts of any Prince upon Earth. He had four Miſtreſſes, for whom ſee Table 389.

APPENDIX concerning the Cantons of Switzerland and the Republic of GENEVA.

THE Helvetians, now call'd Switzers, deſcended from the ancient Swedes, or Juitlanders, according to ſome, becauſe famous for overthrowing L. Caſſius a Roman Conſul, whom they ſlew and ſold his Soldiers for Slaves. But CÆSAR afterwards reduc'd them to Obedience, and they continued Members of the Roman Empire till the Time of HONORIUS and VALENTINIAN III. when they were conquer'd by the Burgundians and Almans: And from them being taken by the Franks, their Country was made a Part of the Kingdom of Burgundy, only ſome Parts of it were given to the Progenitors of the Counts of Habſpurg, whoſe Offſpring in the Houſe of Auſtria came in Time to poſſeſs the greateſt Part of Switzerland. But the People being long oppreſs'd by the Tyranny of their Governors, whom the Dukes of Auſtria and their other Lords had ſent among them, they contracted an offenſive and defenſive League among themſelves for the Defence of their Liberty, begun firſt by the Canton of Switz (upon which Account the Cantons are call'd Switzers) A. D 1385. together with the Cantons of Ury and Underwalden; and after many Struggles, all the other Cantons were gradually united into one League 1513. They deſtroy'd their Nobility and Gentry for fear of being brought under Monarchy again, ſo that we have no Remains of their Genealogies but what is above related of the Counts of Habſpurg and Houſe of Auſtria.

GENEVA a very ancient City, was renown'd in the Days of JULIUS CÆSAR, who made it a Bulwark againſt the Helvetians, and eſtabliſh'd there a Colony as the Capital of the Allobrogians, and for its Fidelity the Roman Emperors conferr'd on it great Privileges. The People receiv'd Chriſtianity by the Preaching of St. Nazarus and St. Dionyſius the Areopagite, and Paracodus, who is reckon'd by ſome the firſt Biſhop of Geneva. MARCUS AURELIUS the Emperor rebuilt it, confirm'd its Privileges, permitted to the Chriſtians there the free Exerciſe of their Religion, and therefore it was call'd Aureliana. It ſuffer'd much from the Goths and Vandals when they erected their Kingdom of Burgundy. CHARLEMAIN in his March againſt the Lombards ſtay'd ſome time here, confirm'd the Privileges of its Biſhop, and united it to his Empire, as appears by the Eagle on the top of St. Peter's Church, remaining there to this Day, and in his Time it was call'd Gebenna. It was again made Part of the Kingdom of Burgundy till the Emperor CONRAD Salicus claim'd it. The firſt Counts of Geneva were TATON and BELTRAM two Heroes created by CHARLEMAIN for their valiant Atchievements againſt the Lombards, and this Dignity was continued in their Offſpring jointly till A. D. 887. when Boſo King of Burgundy made PETER the Deſcendant of Beltram the ſole Count of Geneva. Thoſe Counts were but Imperial Officers at firſt, but they gradually augmented their Authority till they became Independent Soveraigns. The Citizens that oppos'd the Power of the Counts, truſted to the Biſhop to defend their Rights as one of the free Cities of the Empire; but the Biſhops made themſelves Powerful by joining the Counts in the Oppreſſion of the Citizens, and then oppos'd the Counts ſtrenuouſly till they obtain'd from the Emperor FRIDERIC Barbaroſſa that they and their Succeſſors ſhould be ſole Princes of Geneva, free from all Taxes and not accountable to any but the Emperor. Nevertheleſs the Counts aſſerted their own Rights as well as they could, and obtain'd the aid of the Counts of Savoy, to whom they were allied by Marriage, for AMADEUS II. Count of Savoy married Joanna Daughter of GERALD Count of Geneva about 1060, and HUMBERT Count of Geneva married Agnes Daughter of AMADEUS II. Count of Savoy, and Beatrix Daughter of WILLIAM I. Count of Geneva was married to THOMAS I. Count of Savoy (Tab. 400) And his Son Amadeus IV. (tho not by Beatrix) who † A. D. 1253, got the Count of Geneva to do him Homage, whoſe Nephew Amadeus V. found means to get himſelf acknowledg'd, in ſome ſort, as Lord of Geneva that open'd its Gates to him, tho' the Dauphin of Viennois oppos'd it all he could, A. D. 1309. The Liberty of Geneva was much impair'd by a Controverſy between the Biſhop and the Magiſtrates; for the Biſhop had excommunicated the City for complaining of him to the Archbiſhop of Vienna, and the common People took the Biſhop's Part, and acknowledged him in the Church of St. Gerveis as Prince of Geneva, A. D 1365. AMADÆUS VI. Count of Savoy obtain'd of the Emperor CHARLES IV. to be his Vicar General in thoſe Countries, whereby he got a Superiority over the Biſhop; but upon due Remonſtrances the Emperor revoked that Vicariat. In the Hiſtory of this City we find that the Houſe of Villars obtain'd the County of Geneva A. D. 1310. after the Death of the laſt Count, and that UDO of Villars 1401. gave up that County to AMADÆUS VIII. Count of Savoy, but after he was made Duke of Savoy, he obtain'd from Pope MARTIN a Grant of all the Temporal Juriſdiction of Geneva; ſince which Time the Biſhops were forced to pay Homage to the Dukes of Savoy as their Sovereigns, who coin'd Money at Geneva, and made it their Reſidence, and executed the Laws there, yet declaring in his public Acts that it was with the Conſent of the Citizens, and that their voluntary Obedience ſhould not be prejudicial to their Liberty; and ſo Biſhop John yielded his Temporal Juriſdiction to CHARLES III. Duke of Savoy, who A. D. 1518, endeavour'd to make himſelf abſolute, upon which the Citizens were divided, the greateſt Number taking Part with the Duke, and were call'd the Party of the Mammelucs, and the other ſought the Protection of the Canton of Bern, with which they made an Alliance, and by their Enemies were call'd Eignots, i. e. Allies, from which came the Word Huguenot, given in France to thoſe that follow'd the Religion of Geneva. The Party of the Eignots became ſuperior, and expell'd the Mammelucs 1526. This Revolution introduced the Reformation by the preaching of Farell and Viret, Miniſters of Bern 1528. Then the Biſhop and his Clergy were expell'd the City, a new Government both in Church and State erected, diſclaiming all Allegiance both to Duke and Biſhop, declaring themſelves a free Commonwealth, and the Religion of Rome entirely aboliſh'd by their great Profeſſor of Divinity the famous JOHN CALVIN, who fled to Geneva 1535. or with others 1536, who not only confirm'd what was done before he came, but likewiſe erected a new Eccleſiaſtical Government and Diſcipline of Claſſical, Provincial and National Aſſemblies, commonly call'd Presbyterian, that was alſo receiv'd in all the Reform'd Churches (except that of England) and remains to this Day; and ever ſince the Reformation, Geneva has been an Ariſtocratical Republic, and in Confederacy with the Cantons of Bern and Zuric.

The Emperor CHARLES V. 1530, and 1540. confirm'd the Liberties of Geneva, and 1576, it came under the Protection of France. It was compriſed under the Name of Swiſs in the Peace of Weſtphalia 1648, when the Cantons were declar'd all free and independent Sovereigns. And Anno 1688, was receiv'd into the General Alliance of all Switzerland.

The Title of Geneva given by the Kings of France is, Our moſt dear and good Friends the Syndics and Counſellors of Geneva. The Kings of Sicily call them Magnificent Lords, and all others call them Noble and Good Friends. This Republic has the Rank of a Swiſs Canton, but the Title of Count of Geneva; after it had been us'd a while by the Counts of Savoy, AMADEUS the firſt Duke gave it to PHILIP his youngeſt Son, who † unmarried 1452, when LEWIS the 2d Duke conferr'd it on JAMES his 3d Son, who † without Iſſue 1492. Then PHILIP Sine Terra Duke of Savoy conferr'd it on his 3d Son PHILIP Duke of Nemours, whoſe Offſpring the Duke of Nemours enjoy'd the Title to the laſt Duke HENRY, who † without Iſſue 1659.

·TABLE CCCC.

The Old Counts of SAVOY until AMADEUS V.

THE Dukedom of Savoy is divided in two Parts, viz. the Principality of Piedmont and Savoy proper. Piedmont was anciently inhabited by the Salaſſi, Libyci and Taurini, all vanquiſhed by the Romans, and their Country made a Province of that Empire by the Name of Alpes Cottia, in the Time of the Emperor NERO, of which Genoa was the Capital. The preſent Inhabitants of Piedmont are moſtly the Poſterity of the Heruli, who under the Conduct of ODOACER conquer'd Italy, who was proclaimed King by the Romans themſelves; but Odoacer being vanquiſh'd and ſlain by THEODORIC King of the Oſtro Goths at Verona, A. D. 492. Piedmont was allotted for the Habitation of the Heruli, who poſſeſs'd it only till the Lombards ſubdued them, making this a Part of the Lombardian Kingdom until ARIPERT I. King of the Lombards gave it to the See of Rome, about A. D. 660, and by ſome ſaid to be the firſt temporal Eſtates poſſeſs'd by the Popes, who becauſe of its diſtance from Rome receiv'd but ſmall Benefit by it, ſo that after the Subverſion of the Lombards, it was at the Devotion of the Kings of Italy of the Line of CHARLEMAIN, and afterwards by his Succeſſors the Emperors, who partition'd it into ſeveral States and Principalities. THOMAS and PETER Counts of Savoy conquer'd the beſt part of it, the firſt A. D. 1210, the ſecond 1256, ſince which Time it has always been poſſeſs'd by the Houſe of Savoy, of which the eldeſt Son was call'd Prince of Piedmont. See the following Tables. Savoy proper, was anciently inhabited by the many Tribes of the Allobroges, who are not mention'd in Hiſtory, till the Atonement made by Hannibal in his Paſſage this Way between Bruncus and his Brother about the Succeſſion of the Kingdom. But they afterwards joining the Salij a Gallick Nation in a War againſt Marſailles, then in Confederacy with the Romans, they made the Romans their Enemies, by whom they were in fine ſubdued with the Loſs of no leſs than 120000 Gauls, under the ſeveral Conducts of Cn. Domitius, Aenobarbus, and Q. F. Maximus, by which laſt BITUITUS, or Bituitus, one of the Gallic Confederates was led in Triumph to Rome. Theſe Allobroges were afterwards renown'd for diſcovering Cataline's Conſpiracy, which tended to ſubvert the Roman State. After which we find Cottius, one of their Kings, a great Favourite of AUGUSTUS CÆSAR, and is ſaid to have built 12 Cities in this Country, whence it is called Alpes Cottiae, and by that Name reduc'd into the Form of a Province by the Emperor NERO. In the Decline of the Roman Empire, this Province became a Part of the Kingdom of Burgundy, and by the Gift of RUDOLPH the laſt King, Savoy with the reſt of Burgundy went to the Emperors of Germany, under whoſe Subjection it continued till A. D. 999, when BERALD or Berthold ſettled himſelf here, about whoſe Original there is much Contention, ſome deducing him from France others from Italy, others from the Imperial Saxon Family. But moſt derive him from the old Counts of Ringelheim: Tho' both theſe, as appears by this Table, are the Deſcendants of WITEKIND the Great the laſt King and firſt Duke of Saxony, who † 807. Table 215.

Wigbert Duke of the Saxons in Engern and Weſtphalia, † 825.

Bruno Duke of Saxony † 843.

Ludolph Magnus Duke of Saxony † 859.

Otto Magnus Duke of Saxony † 916.

Henry I. Auceps Duke of Saxony and Emperor † 936. Table 217, and 240.

Otto I. Magnus the Emperor † 973. Table 217.

Otto II. Rufus the Emperor † 983. Table 217.

Otto III. the Wonder of the World Emperor † 1002. Wife, Mary of Arragon burnt for Adultery. Table 217.

Hugh, or Ulric Duke or Marquis of Saxony.

DIETRIC or THEODORIC, Patriarch of the Counts of Oldenburg and Delmenhorſt, Dukes of Schleſwieg and Holſtein and Kings of Denmark. See Table 197, 198, &c.

Witekind IV.

ALRAMUS Patriarch of Markgraves and Dukes of Montferrat. See Table 405.

Walpert Count of Ringelheim † 856.

Amadeus Count of Ringelheim, by good Authors call'd the Father of Beroald, and contradicted by others. Wife, Gemma of Bavaria.

Immedus Duke of Angria Engern.

Hugh, by ſome call'd the Father of BEROALD, who ſay, that the Emperor OTTO III. his Kinſman prefer'd him to the Marquiſate of Italy. But this is founded upon mere Conjectures.

1. BEROALD, or Berthold, of an uncertain Original, as appears by the Contention of Authors about his Father; neither is it certain by what Means he came into Italy, or why he was favour'd by Rudolph King of Burgundy. Some ſay that finding Mary the Wife of the Emperor OTTO III. in Adultery, he ſlew her and fled to this Country; others that he ſettled here by means of HUGH Son of Immedus who was made Marquis of Italy. But of theſe Things there is no Certainty; yet all Hiſtorians center in BEROALD as the Patriarch of this Family and firſt Count of Maurienne in Savoy: He † 1023, or 1027. Wife, Hinna, or Catharin Lady Palatin of Scheyern.

Ancilia. Wife of 2. HUMBERT I. Albimanus or White-Hand Count of Savoy, born according to ſome 998. He aſſiſted the Emperor CONRAD Salicus to maintain the Dominions of Rudolph King of Burgundy againſt Eudo Count of Champaigne, and receiv'd for his Service the Countries of Chablais and Wallis. He † 1048. aged 50 reign'd 22. His Marriage with Adelis, Daughter of Wonfroy of the Royal Houſe of Caſtile and of Bertha his Wife of the Family of King Arduin is confuted by good Authors, particularly by Du Cheſne.

TABLE CCCCVI.

The Republic of GENUA.

THE City of GENUA, thought by ſome to have been call'd Janua from old Janus, was famous before the Chriſtian Æra, when the Romans made it a Sea Port in their War againſt the Carthaginians. It was afterwards ſubject to the Goths, and then the Greek Emperors kept it about 70 Years. ROTHARIS King of the Lombards in the 7th Century ſeiz'd it, and CHARLEMAIN took it from the Lombards: But when his Race was extinct, Genua with other Parts of Italy became independent of the German Emperors, having its own Conſuls, Anno 1099. After which GULIELMO BOCCANEGRA was choſen Preſident and Viſcount of Genua 1157, which made Way for the Nobleſſe to get into the Adminiſtration 1262, and they govern'd till 1319. After which this Republick was diſtreſs'd by the Factions of Spinola, Doria, Fliſci and Grimaldi, and having been afterwards diſtreſs'd by the contending Guelphs and Gibbelines, it was forc'd to ſhelter itſelf under foreign Powers, being ſubject firſt to the Emperor HENRY VII, then to ROBERT King of Naples, next to CHARLES VII. King of France, and then to PHILIP GALEACIUS Viſcount of Milan. But it ſhook off the Yoke of Milan 1444, under the Conduct of that brave Burgher SIMON BOCCANEGRA the firſt Doge of Genua, when they made a Law that all their great Offices ſhould be poſſeſs'd only by Burghers and not by Nobles. But the claſhing Factions of the Fulgoſi and Adorni gave Occaſion to LEWIS XII. King of France to be Maſter of the City 1499, which was again reſtor'd to its former Liberty by Octavio Fulgoſo. FRANCIS I. got it into his Hands 1514, but his Garriſon was expell'd by the valiant Proſper Colonna General under the Emperor CHARLES V Anno 1522: notwithſtanding which, FRANCIS I. again ſeiz'd it, and kept it until FRANCESCO DORIA abſolutely freed his Country, and laid the Foundation of the preſent Republick, for which noble Action his Countrymen erected a magnificent Statue in honour of his Memory, always owning him the Father of his Country. Next Year A. 1549, the Doge LEWIS Fliſci loſt his Life, for endeavouring to make himſelf Abſolute with the Aid of the French. After this A. 1574, a Contention aroſe between the Nobles and Burghers, which would have occaſion'd much Misfortunes, but for the Peace made by the Emperor Maximilian II. PHILIP II. King of Spain and Pope GREGORY XIII. TABLE CCCCVII.

A Chronological Catalogue of the DUKES or DOGES of Venice.

HISTORIANS are much divided about the Original of the Venetians : Some make them the Deſcendants of the Veneti Gauls inhabiting the Sea-Coaſts of Armorica or Bretaigne, whereof one of the principal Cities was call'd Vennes. Others (particularly Titus Livius) aſſure us that the Inhabitants of this Country came from Paphlagonia, and that Philemon their Captain being ſlain at Troy they went with Antenor into Italy. Others ſay that being Neighbours to the Cappadocians they hazarded a Battel with the Cimmerians and extended their Conqueſts on the Adriatic Sea. But the common Opinion is that the Hinitians or Henetes came into Italy with Antenor and were afterwards call'd Venitians or Venetes, Then they ſeiz'd Breſſana and Forli. In proceſs of Time the Hunns, a Scythian People, under the Conduct of Attila, among other Places of Italy, fell into this Country, and after a long Siege they took the City Aquileja which they ſpoil'd and burnt, as alſo moſt of the Venetian Territories. Upon this a great Number withdrew themſelves from the Continent to the Iſles where Venice is now built. But the better Sort of the Paduans were the firſt that remov'd; and being come to the Mouth of the River, which was then very deep, They laid the firſt Foundation of the City of Venice 25 March 421. After this the Venetians were govern'd, firſt by ſome Conſuls choſen every 2 Years, which Government laſted about 60 Years, yet we find in Hiſtory but three ſucceeding Elections. The firſt Conſuls were Albertus Phalarius, Thomas Candianus and Zeno Daulo; Theſe govern'd the City in her Infancy and are by ſome ſaid to have occaſion'd the Paduans Flight to the Lakiſh and Mariſh Iſles, and were the firſt Authors of the Building of Venice. The 2d Conſuls were Lucianus Graulus, Maximus or Marinus Lucius and Hugh Fuscus. The third Conſuls were Marcus Aurelius, Andreas Claudius and Albinus Maurus; Hiſtory is ſilent about the ſucceeding Conſuls. But after the Iſles near the Rialto were inhabited, Tribunes, inſtead of Conſuls, were annually created in every Iſle during 200 Years. But theſe Inſular Tribunes abuſing their Authority, a general Aſſembly of the Iſles was ſummon'd to meet at Heraclea, where they elected a Sovereign Duke, whoſe Authority was to be during Life. Accordingly

The Exarchs rul'd under the Emperors during		171 Years.

Others ſay that Agilulfus King of the Lombards took Ravenna 752. It is certain that Ravenna was regain'd by CHARLEMAIN, when the Lombardian Kingdom was ſubverted, and by him given to the Popes of Rome, together with Ancanitano and Spoleto, as a Requital for the Kingdom of France conferr'd upon King PIPIN his Father, by the Conſent and Authority of the Pope. This Donation changed the Name of this Country from Flaminia to Romandiola, and now to Romagna. The Emperors of Germany ſuffer'd not the Popes to have long Poſſeſſion of this Donation; for they took it into their own Hands, and conferr'd it on thoſe who would advance their Imperial Intereſt. And it continued in the Emperors Hands till the French King LEWIS XII. went into Italy 1509. at the Inſtigation of Pope JULIUS II. and extorted Ravenna and ſome other Places out of the Hands of the Venetians, ejected many petty Princes out of other Cities on a Pretence that they belong'd to St. Peter's Patrimony, and thereby got Poſſeſſion of all thoſe Territories which lie between the State of Venice and the Marches of Ancona; but the Emperor CHARLES V. expell'd the French out of Italy, when he took King FRANCIS I. Priſoner in the Battle of Pavia 1525.

TABLE CCCCIX.

The Original of the House of Milan.

With a Supplement to the Genealogy of the COUNTS of Burgundy, deſcending from DESIDERIUS the Lombard.

THIS Houſe like others in ſhewing its Original has run into Fable; for ſome who deduce it from Jove and Venus by Anchises Æneas and Ascanius, ſay that Ascanius had a Son call'd Anglus the Founder of Angleria. Indeed the vulgar Opinion is that the Vice-Conties owe their Original to the Counts of Angleria, and they give out that theſe Viſ-Conties had the Dignity and Authority of Princes among the Lords of Lombardy for ſome Time before the laſt Deſtruction of Milan by Frideric Barbaroſſa; and having always oppos'd that Emperor, when the Town was taken they were all cut off except one call'd Vivianus or Galvaneus reſerv'd for a Triumph, who breaking Priſon bravely reveng'd the Injuries done to his Houſe, cut off the Germans, reſtor'd Liberty to his Country and reviv'd his Family. But the Milan Hiſtorians have honeſtly acknowledg'd this to be all Fable.

Therefore, Biſſius from authentic Documents derives this Family from Ermenulphus the Father of Desiderius the laſt King of the Lombards. And John Palatius the Venetian ſays well, that if the Records of the Senate of Milan were deſtroy'd, many great Genealogies would be loſt: For to their Documents we owe the Progeny of both the Royal Berengarij, and from thence alſo is corroborated the ample Lineage of Otto William Patriarch of the Counts and Palatines of Burgundy, from whom the Kings of Caſtile and Leon, and at length of all Spain and Sicily are deſcended, as Andrew du Cheſne has evinc'd.

The Lombardian Kings are in Table 139. but without a Preface; therefore I thought fit to relate in this Place that the Lombards came from Scandia into Germany and from thence into Pannonia under their King Andouinus, whoſe Son Alboinus brought them into Italy, invited by Narſes the General of Justinian I. and Vindicator of Italy, when he went to revenge the Diſgrace put upon him by the Empreſs Sophia A. D. 568. The little Countries of Aquileja and Friaul were firſt conquer'd by them, which they made a Dukedom; and croſſing the River Abdua, they penetrated into Inſubria where they erected a new Kingdom by Laws and Arms, and made Ticinum (now Pavia) the Seat of their new Empire, calling the whole Country Lombardy. This Alboinus became the firſt King of the Lombards in Italy A. D. 570. But not content with Inſubria they ſeiz'd Spoleto, Beneventum, and even Rhegium the moſt Southern Town of Italy, where Antharis the 3d King rode on Horſeback to the Sea, and touch'd it with his Spear, ſaying, Even to this ſhall the Borders of the Lombards reach. He † A. D. 591. In the Reign of Aiſtulphus the Empire of the Lombards in Italy came to its Height; for after the taking of Ravenna, he deſign'd to encloſe his Kingdom between the Alpes and the Sea: Rome ſtanding out he demanded Tribute from it, which Pope STEPHEN III. refuſing to pay, invited King Pipin of France to come and protect him, who forc'd Aiſtulphus to relinquiſh Ravenna and to deliver to the Pope the Pentapolis and other Towns of the Exarchate and of Aemilia too, as a Part of St. Peter's Patrimony.

Aiſtulphus broke his Neck at hunting 756, and leaving no Iſſue, Deſiderius his Maſter of Horſe and Beneficiary Duke of Tuſcia, placed himſelf upon the Throne, whoſe Father is by ſome call'd Severus, and by Coſmus della Rena in his Dukes and Marquiſes of Tuſcia he is call'd Veriſſimus, but in the Lineage of the Viſ-Conties he is call'd Duke Ermenulphus Son of Alachiſus.

DESIDERIUS the laſt King of the Lombards began A. D. 756, not bounding his Ambition, he ruin'd himſelf and his Kingdom; for graſping at all Italy like his Predeceſſor, he diſtreſs'd the Pope and took ſome Towns from the See of Rome; therefore Pope ADRIAN I. invited Charlemain to his Aid, the rather, becauſe much Diſcord had happen'd between him and Desiderius, for that Charlemain had divorced his Wife Hermingardis the Daughter of Desiderius, who on the other Hand had protected the Sons of Carolomanus, who had fled from their Uncle Charlemain with their Mother Bertha Daughter of Desiderius; wherefore Charlemain came into Italy with an Army, forc'd Desiderius to fly before him, to reitre within the Walls of Ticinum and to ſurrender himſelf. Then Charlemain carried him and his Wife Ansa Captives into France 774. Thus the Kingdom of the Lombards in Italy was tranſlated to the Franks. There are various Opinions about the Number of the Children of Desiderius. Some Antique Hiſtorians mention only one Son Adaloisus, and four Daughters, viz. Anſilberga, Adalperga, Luitberga and Hermingardis: But others give us the following Accounts of his Children. See his Predeceſſors in the Lombardian Kingdom of Italy, Table 139.

Adaloiſus or Adalgiſus was by his Father aſſociated into the Government, and when the War began between Charlemain and Desiderius, He was ſent to defend Verona, but being unable to endure a Siege he went into Greece, where having receiv'd Men and Money from the Emperor Constantine he wag'd War in Calabria, and endeavour'd to take the Dukedom of Benevento; but being routed and taken in a pitch'd Battel, he was tortur'd to Death 788.

II. JUDICES of Genua.

THat this Family derives its Original from the City of Capua in Liguria is paſt all Doubt. And ſome ſay that COMITIA or Comitas Judge and Prince of Alborum, one of the four Parts of Sardinia, being oppreſs'd by the Piſani, fled to Genua for Protection. They ſay alſo that Bariſſo the Brother of COMITAS did alſo repair from the Piſani to be protected by the Genueſe, by whoſe Means he was at laſt declar'd and crown'd King of Sardinia, not contenting himſelf with the Title of Judge. But the Son of COMITAS having fix'd his Seat at Genua, honouring the Title us'd by his Anceſtors, gave his Son the ſame Title of Judex or Judge. But theſe being Uncertainties we muſt leave them, this being more certain that this Family was famous in Genua in the middle of the 12th Century, when Frideric Barbaroſſa was Emperor, and when he ſent an Army into Italy, particularly being advanced to the City Boſco in Ciſalpin Gaul, OTTO Judex of Genua with ſeven other chief Men of the City were ſent Embaſſadors to the Emperor, who confer'd the Conſular Dignity on this OTTO, whoſe Great Great Grandfather was

IV. The Family of FERRERIA.

THIS Family is ſaid to be deſcended from the Acciaioli famous in Etruria, from whom did ſpring ſeveral Men renown'd not in Italy only but alſo in Greece, where they rul'd at Attica ſeventy Years, which Principality RAINERIUS ACCIAIOLUS brought to his Family after his Exploits in the Eaſtern Expedition of the French; Venetians and Genueſe about the End of the 14th Century. He enter'd into an Alliance with the Ligurians who inhabited Eubœa, by marrying the Daughter of PHILIPPINUS AURIA, by whom he had two Daughters, the eldeſt was the Wife of Theodorus Palæologus Brother of the Emperor MANUEL II. Palæologus; the ſecond Daughter was the Wife of Charles Toccus a petty King of Arcanania and Ætolia. But RAINERIUS by his 2d Wife begat a Son call'd ANTONY Lord of Bœotia afterward Prince of Attica and Bœotia, and dying without Iſſue was ſucceeded by his Couſin NERIUS Acciaiolus, whoſe Son being a Child at his Death, the Widow kept it; but for her Licentiouſneſs MAHOMET II. REPUBLICKS

I. Of Lucca.

THE City of Lucca, ſo call'd from LUCUMO a King of the Tuſcans, who is ſaid to have built it (See the next Table) is ſituate between the Eſtate of the Grand Duke of Tuſcany and the Republick of Genua; and in this City was the Meeting of the three Great Roman Generals, CÆSAR, POMPEY and CRASSUS, ſo deſtructive to the Roman Republick; at which Meeting they partition'd the Roman Provinces among themſelves, which afterwards occaſion'd much War. But to return to Lucca, after the Roman Empire began to decline, the Goths took and kept Poſſeſſion of this City until the Roman General Narſes recover'd it out of their hands: then it was ſubject to the Empire until it was retaken by Count Boniface of Eſtè, the Father of the famous Mathildis, who dying without Iſſue, made the Papal Chair her Heir, againſt which the the Emperors pretended to it as an Eſcheat: but the Citizens contributed among themſelves, and bought their Liberty of the Emperor RUDOLPH for 10000 Crowns. Notwithſtanding this Purchaſe, the Emperor Lewis Bavarus ſeiz'd upon it again, on pretence of freeing it from the Faction of CASTRUCCIO, who had made himſelf abſolute Maſter of it. And having after this paſs'd thro' many Hands, the Emperor Charles IV. got it once again, and the Citizens once more purchas'd their deſir'd Liberties for 25000 Florins of Gold. And to ſecure themſelves therein, they demoliſh'd the Caſtle built by CASTRUCCIO. And for their better Safety, they have put themſelves under the Protection of their potent Neighbours, changing their Patrons as conduc'd moſt to their Preſervation. But finding no Security from Genua, and as little from Florence, they at laſt put themſelves under the Protection of Milan, and in that Right are patronis'd by the Kings of Spain. They are govern'd by a Council of 150 of the principal Citizens. The City is divided into three parts which they call Tartieri, out of which the General Council elects three Men, in all nine, call'd Senators who together with their Head the Gonfaloniero are call'd la Signoria. The Gonfaloniero is elected every two Months; and during the time of his Dignity, he may not go out of his Palace under the pain of Death.

II. San Marino.

THIS is the ſmalleſt Republick in the World, and therefore in Deriſion call'd by the Italians Republichetta, or, the diminutive Republic. Notwithſtanding which ſhe values herſelf ſo much on her Sovereignty, that ſhe calls the Republick of Venice, her Clariſſima Sorella, or moſt renown'd Siſter. The Original of this Republick is aſcrib'd to a Hermit call'd St. Marino, after whoſe Death, a Cloyſter and Chapel were built in the place of his Hermitage; and the Munificence and Liberality of ſeveral Noblemen, encouraging ſeveral People to meet there, they firſt built a City, which afterwards, with ſome others, when the Empire was tranſlated from Italy to Germany, made herſelf a Republic. The City Marino lyes between Romaniola and Urbino, its chief Magiſtracy is lodg'd in two Captains, which alternately change every March and September. It was protected by the Dukes of Urbino until it fell to the Church, and now it is under the Protection of the Popes, ſome of whom, eſpecially Alexander VII. have endeavour'd to make their Nephews Princes of it, but ſhe would not part with her Liberty, and the Pope would not force them, being aſſur'd to meet with Oppoſition from the Venetians and the Grand Duke of Tuſcany.

III. Ragusa.

THIS Republick is in Dalmatia on the Eaſt Side the Adriatic, and is preſerved only by its Commerce, and is alſo independent, but under the Protection of the Grand Seignior. Its Chief is called RECTOR and rules for a Month as Preſident of ten Lords, call'd their Signioria; their Grand Council is of 60 Nobles, that conſider of War and Peace; their Little Council is of 30 that take care of Commerce.

TUSCANY being thus brought under the Command of Rome, was made the ſecond of thoſe eleven Regions into which Italy was patition'd by AUGUSTUS CÆSAR. In the after Partitions of Italy by the Emperors ANTONINUS and CONSTANTINE, Tuſcany and Umbria was one of the ten Provinces that was immediately ſubject to the Præfect of the City of Rome. Afterwards in the Declenſion of the Roman Empire, it became a Part of the Kingdom of Lombardy, then of the French Empire, and finally of the German Empire; during which time it was govern'd by an Officer of Truſt and Power, who was call'd ſometimes the Marquis, ſometimes the Duke of Tuſcany. DESIDERIUS the laſt King of the Lombards was Duke of Tuſcany, as was alſo ALBERIC in the times of the Berengarij, and Guido was alſo call'd Marquis of Tuſcany in the Reign of the Emperor Henry Auceps. But when the Popes grew powerful, they preſum'd to intermeddle in the Affairs of this Country, giving it ſometimes to the Kings of Naples, at other times to the Dukes of Anjou. During which Diſtractions the Florentines bought their Liberty of the Emperor RUDOLPH of Habspurg, then they husbanded their Affairs ſo well that they became one of the moſt conſiderable States in Italy; and at laſt, by taking in Piſa and Sienna, they became Sovereigns of the largeſt Part of Tuſcany, now under the Government of the Grand Duke.

The Florentines ſuffer'd the fate of all Italy in being divided by the Factions of the Guelphs and Gibellines, therefore Anno 1250 the City of Florence was partition'd into 6 Claſſes, and 12 Citizens were annually elected to govern each Claſs by Pairs; and they were call'd Antiani. Beſides, there were extraneous Judges, whereof one was call'd the Captain of the People and the other the Podeſta. A few Years after, the City was diſtinguiſh'd into Colleges of Artiſts, each having a Magiſtrate over them. Of theſe Colleges the Notaries were placed in the firſt Rank, the Merchants in the ſecond, the Menſarij in the third, &c. After this Anno 1292, the Signiferi Juſtitiæ were inſtituted, call'd in their Language Gonfaloniero di Giuſtizia. In this Office the Family of Medices had a great Share, whoſe Genealogy can be deduc'd from MEDICUS Lord of Petrona in the Caſtle of Magello, who liv'd Anno 1100, as in the following Table.

But the Learned John Baptiſta Cinius in his Hiſtory of the Life of Coſmus I. the firſt Grand Duke of Tuſcany carries their Original higher up to A. D. 1027, for that in a Grant of the Vale of Tyber by the Emperor Conrad to TANCREDUS MONALDESCIUS dated 1027, JULIUS de Medicis the Florentine is named a Witneſs.

LAURENTIUS il Magnifico born 1 Jan. 1448, Prince of the Florentine Republic, was the Mecænas of his Day and an excellent Poet too. He greatly enriched his Grandfather's Library with many choice Books brought from all Parts of Greece to Florence at a vaſt Expence, many of which he got tranſlated into Latin. He bravely finiſhed the Ligurian or Genueſe War, and reduc'd the rebellious Volaterrani; and in the Convention of the Italian Princes at Cremona, he laid down the beſt Method of managing the War againſt the Venetians. But he brought himſelf into Danger by provoking Pope SIXTUS IV. for becauſe the Pope would not make his Brother JULIAN a Cardinal, he aſſiſted the Vitellians, the Pope's Enemies with Men and Money. The Pope therefore excited his Siſter's Son Ricarius and the Chief of the Florentines to conſpire his Death. Accordingly Pactius and Bandinus two of the Conſpirators quickly ſlew JULIAN when on his Knees at the Elevation of the Hoſt in High Maſs 1478: but LAURENCE was only wounded in the Neck, and by the Interpoſition of his Friends eſcap'd to the next Sanctuary. But the People at the Sight of poor Julian forthwith declar'd for the Medici, ſeiz'd all the Murderers and hang'd them out at the Court Windows. Among the reſt Francis Salviati Archbiſhop of Piſa was hang'd in his Surplice; and tho' Bernard Bandin the Murderer of Julian eſcap'd to Conſtantinople, yet LAURENCE found Means to bring him from thence and hang him out at the ſame Windows, and by his prudent Speeches and Carriage regain'd the Favour of all the People. But Pope SIXTUS interdicted him and the Florentines from all Sacred Offices for hanging the Archbiſhop; nay, he leagu'd with their known Enemy FERDINAND King of Naples and war'd againſt them, but gave out that they war'd only againſt LAURENCE and not againſt them. Laurence therefore now fearing as well his own People, as the Pope and Ferdinand, he fled privately to Piſa, and from thence ſent to the Magiſtrates of Florence to aſſure them that their Safety was dearer to him than his own, and was therefore going to the Enemy either to bring home Peace or to finiſh the War at the Price of his own Life. Then he ſail'd to Naples and unexpectedly came to King Ferdinand, who treated him as an Enemy, till LAURENCE harangued the King with much gravity and fine Eloquence concerning the State of Italy, the Politicks of the Free Cities and Princes, and the King's own Intereſt in cultivating Friendſhip with the Florentines: Upon which the King greatly admiring LAURENCE'S Wiſdom and Virtue, not only ceas'd from his Wrath but even made a League with him and the Florentines, and recall'd his Son Alphonſus with the Army from Tuſcany. LAURENCE return'd with univerſal Acclamations of Joy and † with the Eſteem of all the Powers of Europe 9 Ap. 1492, aged 43.

TABLE CCCCXXXIV.

The Houſe of COLONNA.

THE Families of the Eccleſiaſtical State are very numerous, but the firſt Place is due to the four Roman Families, viz. COLONNA, ORSINI, SAVELLI and CONTI: but Conti is in the foregoing Table. The Family of COLONNA is by ſome deriv'd from Hercules, and was call'd Colonna from the Columns or Pillars which he built in the Promontories of Mauritania and Spain, but this ſeems to be all Fable. Others again who reckon it a Roman Family, derive it from Marius who was ſeven times Roman Conſul. Others again call it a German Family, both becauſe it adher'd to the Imperial Intereſt during the Contentions of the Guelphs and Gibelines, and alſo becauſe many German Families love to derive themſelves from this of Colonna. But there is too much conjecture about the Genealogy of this Houſe till we come to

TABLE CCCCXXXVII.

The Old KINGS or TYRANTS of Syracuſe in SICILY before CHRIST.

THE Ancient Inhabitants of Sicily were the huge Giants (ſo often mention'd in Homer's Odyſſea) call'd the Laeſtrigones and Cyclopes, of which laſt was the famous POLYPHEMUS, who ſo courteouſly entertained ULYSSES and his Companions. Theſe Giants were afterwards rooted out by the Sicani a People of Spain, who call'd the Country Sicania. The Name Sicilia is by ſome deduc'd from SICILEUS a ſuppoſed King of Spain. But Others more truly derive it from the Siculi, who being expell'd Latium by EVANDER and his Arcadians, came to this Iſland, ſubdued the Sicani, and expell'd them to the Eaſt and South Parts of the Iſland. After the Siculi, came another Italian People, nam'd the Morgetes, driven hither by the Oenotrians. But, waving the fabulous Story of Minos coming hither after Daedalus, the firſt Greeks that ſet footing here were the Chalcidans, a People of Eubœa (now Negropont) and after them ARCHITAS of Corinth with his Adventurers, by whom Syracuſe was either firſt built or then much beautified and repair'd. The Rhodians and Cretans were the next who ſent Colonies hither about A. M. 3424, Before Chriſt 580, and by them Gela and Agrigentum were founded. After them the Spartans came and built Heraclea, and then a Colony from Megarus came and built Selinus. The Meſſenians alſo took the Town Zancle from the Siculi; they either rebuilt or beautified it and call'd it Meſſana. Nor were the Tyrians and Phœnicians defective in planting Colonies on this Iſle. But all theſe Adventures having different Ends, they made themſelves a Prey to many Tyrants, PHALARIS lording it at Agrigentum, PANAETIUS at Leontium, GELON at Syracuſe and CLEANDER at Gela; and when one Faction grew too weak to reſiſt the other, they call'd in ſeveral Foreign Nations to decide their Controverſies. Thus the Carthaginians were call'd into Sicily by the Meſſanians againſt the Agrigentines. And on the ſame Account a great part of the Peloponneſian War was manag'd here, the Athenians joining the Leontines, and the Spartans joining the Syracuſans. But becauſe Syracuſe was a City of greateſt Authority and Influence over the reſt of Sicily, I ſhall more particularly inſiſt on its State. The Government of it was, like other Greek Colonies here, at firſt popular, and was newly alter'd to the Ariſtocratical, when GELON made himſelf King of it, and of him and his Succeſſors in Syracuſe I ſhall ſpeak, after I have mention'd the Son of Leodamas a Cretian.

PHALARIS being expell'd his own Country went to Agrigentum A. M. 3434, Before Chriſt 570. and in a ſhort time he became Lord of all Sicily. There are ſome Letters of Abaris to this Tyrant and his Anſwers: Of which Letters ſee Dr. Bentley and Mr. Boyle. PHALARIS invented a brazen Bull, in which People being put, and a gentle Fire under them, they bellow'd like Oxen; and in this Bull he caus'd Perillus the Artiſt firſt to be put. He was at laſt for his Tyranny ſton'd to death by the Agrigentins.

Diomenes.

I. GELON Prince or Lord of Gela, taking Advantage of the Quarrels in Syracuſe between the Magiſtrates and People, made himſelf Maſter of the City, and was elected King A. M. 3513. Before Chriſt 491, ſome place this Election 6 Years later. In his Time the Carthaginians, commanded by the famous Amilcar, invaded Sicily, and beſieg'd Himera which made Theron Prince of the Agrigentines ſend to GELON for aid, who immediately came with 50000 Foot and 5000 Horſe; and at laſt routed the Carthaginians, of whom he ſlew no leſs than 150000, and GELON was renown'd by All. But the Carthaginians, that he might not carry his victorious Arms to Carthage, ſubmitted themſelves, paid to GELON 2000 Talents of Silver for his Expence of War, and gave a Crown of Gold to Damareta, GELON's Wife, to the value of 100 Talents of Gold which GELON coin'd into Money, and call'd it after his Wife Damaretium, every Piece being worth 10 Attick Drachmas, or 3 l. 15 s. Sterling. At laſt He † with the Love and Eſteem of All A. M. 3528, Before Chriſt 476. Others place his Death 2 Years later.

II. HIERO ſucceeded his Brother, and was a valiant but covetous Prince. He expell'd the Catancans, and planted Colonies from Peloponneſus and Syracuſe in their Room. He broke the Power of the Hetruſcans A. M. 3531. He † at Catina, a City repeopl'd by him, after he had reigned 10 Years A. M. 3538, Before Chriſt 466.

III. THRASIBULUS ſucceeded his Brother and ſlaughter'd the Citizens againſt all Law and Juſtice; but at laſt being univerſally hated he was forc'd to abdicate the Government and repair to Locros a City of Magna Græcia in Italy, after he had reign'd no more than 10 Months A. M. 3538, Before Chriſt — 466.

Polyzelus was envied by his Brother Hiero for his Popularity, and was obliged to fly to THERO K. of Agrigentum, who reſtored him to his Brother's Affection.

THRASIBULUS being thus depos'd, a General Aſſembly was call'd to ſettle the Government, and accordingly it was determin'd that all the Magiſtrates, as formerly, ſhould be elected out of the principal Citizens, and that none of GELON's Mercenaries ſhould be advanc'd; who therefore began to plot againſt the State, but were ſubdued by the Syracuſans. And TYNDARIDES endeavouring to make himſelf a Sovereign, was apprehended and put to Death A. M. 3550, when the Law of Petaliſm was made, whereby the Syracuſans wrote the Names of their Nobles upon Olive-Leaves, and when the Leaves were number'd, he whoſe Name was found upon moſt of the Leaves was baniſh'd for five Years: But this Law was ſoon after repealed. When their Wars with the Athenians ended, then A. M. 3592, the Government was Oligarchical, being put in the Hands of 400 choice Perſons A. M. 3592, which was abrogated next Year. Two Years after this the Carthaginians invaded Sicily, and committed great Barbarities. The Syracuſans ſlew Hermocrates, who intended to ſurprize the City A. M. 3597, and next Year they routed the Carthaginians, who took Agrigentum, and ſent the Phalarian Bull to Carthage. But the Son of this ſame

Hermocrates, viz.

IV. DIONYSIUS I. Major got himſelf made General of the Army A. M. 3598, and that ſame Year declar'd himſelf King. He was a Man both of great Vices and great Virtues. He brought almoſt All Sicily under his Subjection, and the Town of Rhegium in Italy. He at laſt † of a Surfeit A. M. 3636, Before Chriſt 368. Wives, 1. N. N. Daughter of another Hermocrates who routed the Athenians in Sicily. She was abus'd by her Husband's Horſemen. 2. Doris.

V. DIONYSIUS II. Junior ſucceeded his Father A. M. 3636, in his Kingdom and Vices, but not in Valour and Wiſdom. He was conquer'd and dethron'd by his Brother-in-Law DION A. M. 3647, and was defeated alſo by Hicetas A. M. 3660, and next Year there were great Confuſions in Sicily, DIONYSIUS having retaken Syracuſe. But TIMOLEON next Year oblig'd him to abdicate the Government A. M. 3662, Before Chriſt 342. when he was baniſh'd to Corinth and liv'd in the Quality of a Schoolmaſter.

TIMOLEON having thus freed Syracuſe and all Sicily from Tyranny, He defeated Hicetas the Chief of the Leontines, and Mago General of the Carthaginians, and vanquiſh'd the Tyrants Mammercus and Hippo, and at laſt after having loſt his Sight, He † A. M. 3671, having been a King in fact without the Name.

After this there was an Interregnum, until the tyrannical Uſurpation of the Son of HIERONYMUS was ſlain by the Romans A. M. 3793, Before Chriſt 211, who at that time conquer'd the whole Iſland under the Command of MARCELLUS, who took in Syracuſe, when Archimedes was by Accident ſlain, page 253, after which Sicily always follow'd the Fortune of the Roman Empire, till in the Partition of the Empire, it together with Apulia and Calabria fell into the Power of the Greeks, whoſe Power declining, this Iſland being miſerably pillag'd and ſpoil'd by the Emperor CONSTANS it became a Prey to the Saracens, from whom it was recover'd by the Help of the Normans, who held this and the Realm of Naples in Fee of the Church, under the Title of both Sicilys. From that time forward it was ſubject to the Kingdom of Naples, during the Princes of the Norman and German Lines, as in the following Table.

There are few Nations on the Globe that have had more Revolutions than that of Naples; at firſt the Inhabitants were a Mixture of ſeveral Nations, the one preying upon the other, till the Romans conquer'd them all. When Italy was overrun by the Goths, Naples became ſubject to that People, and then was ſubject to the Lombards. In the Partition of the Empire between CHARLEMAIN and IRENE Empreſs of the Eaſt, Apulia and Calabria were aſſign'd to the Conſtantinopolitans, and the reſt of Naples to CHARLEMAIN and his Succeſſors, who were depriv'd of it by the conquering Saracens, until the Emperor OTTO I. Magnus diſpoſſeſſed them by his German Forces, and challeng'd a Right to it as King of Italy; which Right was confirm'd by the Marriage of OTTO II. with Theophania Daughter of ROMANUS Emp. of the Eaſt. Table 217, who brought Apulia and Calabria for her Dowry. But the Greeks and Saracens joining againſt the Germans as a common Enemy, expell'd them from Naples, and ever after had great Wars for the Sovereignty. In the mean time one Drangot, a Norman Gentleman, having (in the preſence of Robert Duke of Normandy, Father of WILLIAM the Conqueror) ſlain another Gentleman call'd Repoſtel, fled with ſome Attendants to this Country of Naples, and enter'd into the Pay of Duke Benebent Vicegerent of Conſtantinople there. The Report of their good Entertainment being ſpread over Normandy, many private Gentlemen follow'd the ſame Courſe, among others TANCRED Lord of Hauteville, with his twelve Sons, arriv'd in *Apulia A. King of France and FERDINAND Catholicus King of Spain made an Agreement to conquer Naples and partition the Kingdom between them, so that the French should have Naples, Terec de Labour and Abruzzo; and the Spaniards Puglia and both Calabria's. They conquer'd Naples 1501, and each got his Share with small Trouble, King FRIDERIC surrendering himself to King Lewis, who allowed him a yearly Pension of 30000 Crowns. But soon after, new Differences arose between France and Spain; the French pretended that the Country of Capatenate did belong to Abruzzo, whereas the Spaniards would have it belong to Puglia. These Differences issued in an open Rupture. The French at first had somewhat the better, but when Gonsalvus de Cordova, that cunning Spaniard, had broke their first Fury, and Lewis did not send sufficient Succours, the French were as shamefully beat out of Naples as they had been before, and the Spaniards kept Possession of it, till of late Years.

Mean while King GEORGE I. of Great Britain sent Admiral Byng to destroy the Spanish Fleet near Syracuse, and the Confederates distress'd Spain on all Sides, till King PHILIP V, was forc'd to except the Conditions of Peace propos'd by Great Britain and France, 26 January 17$\frac{19}{20}$, upon which the Duke of Savoy was actually King of Sardinia and the Emperor CHARLES VI, came to be King of Naples and Sicily.

TABLE CCCCXLV.

The KINGS of Cyprus of the Houſe of LUSIGNAN.

THE firſt Inhabitants of this Iſland were the Offspring of KITTIM the Son of Javan and Grandſon of JAPHETH, from whom the City Cetium or Citium is call'd. It was made tributary at firſt to Amaſis King of Egypt, then to the Phœnicians, who made themſelves Maſters of the Sea Coaſts, of which CINYRAS the Father of Myrrba is ſaid to have been King. One of his Succeſſors BELUS built or rebuilt Citium, ſo call'd in Memory to CITTIM or Kittim the Progenitor of the Country, and BELUS alſo gave Teucer the Son of Telamon the Eaſt-parts of the Iſle, who being baniſh'd his Country fled hither with many from Salamis, Athens and Arcadia. ELULÆUS one of the Succeſſors of BELUS (but a King of Tyre) was cotemporary with Salmanaſſar King of Aſſyria, upon the Rebellion of the Citiæans he march'd into Cyprus with a mighty Army to reduce the Rebels. CYRUS the Great Perſian Monarch found 9 Kings on this Iſland, whom he made his Tributaries. After this we find, in the Time of ARTAXERXES Mnemon, that EVAGORAS and NICOCLES were Kings here. To them Iſocrates inſcrib'd two of his Orations, and in the Time of ALEXANDER the Great, Citium had a King of its own. After ALEXANDER's Death, when his Commanders partition'd his Conqueſts, Cyprus was in great Diſtractions, not knowing to whom to ſubmit. But PTOLOMY having ſeiz'd on Egypt, took Poſſeſſion of Cyprus alſo; to him and his Poſterity it continued ſubject till PTOLOMY Auletes, gave it for a Portion to one of his Brothers, in whoſe Time the Romans ſent Portius Cato to annex it to their other Conqueſts, who conquer'd it accordingly. It continued a Roman Province until the Partition of that Empire, when it was aſſign'd to the Conſtantinopolitan Emperors, under whom it ſuffer'd by the violent Invaſion of the Saracens, who ſpoil'd and ranſack'd it in the Time of the Emperor CONSTANS II. But that Tempeſt being overblown they return'd again into that Empire and were govern'd by a Succeſſion of Dukes till A. D. 1184, when ANDRONICUS COMNENUS uſurping the Greek Empire compell'd ISAACIUS COMNENUS, one of the Blood Royal to ſhift for himſelf, who ſeizing on this Iſland made himſelf King thereof, and reign'd till A. D. 1191, when RICHARD I. King of England being denied the common Courteſy of taking in freſh Water, and ſeeing his Soldiers abus'd by the Cyprians, he took the King Priſoner and ſubdued the whole Iſland; he bound his Priſoner with Chains of Silver, and being thus poſſeſs'd of this Kingdom, he ſold it for ready Money to the Templars, but being diſcontented with them he took it from them and beſtow'd it on GUIDO of Luſignan, whoſe Genealogy is as follows.

After the Confuſion 27 Years, before the Death of Noah 169 Years. VII. GERION or Deabus a Lybian ſurnamed Chryſee (or of Gold) for knowing that Spain was full of Mines, he forc'd the People to work ſo hard in digging for them that many ſuccumb'd and loſt their Lives by their hard Labour, ſo that his Cruelty was abhorr'd by all Nations Wherefore Osyris Denis then King of Egypt the Brother of Typhon to quell this Tyrant came with an Army, vanquiſh'd and ſlew him, and ſettled the Kingdom in Gerion's three Sons, one of whom married Erythree the Siſter of Oſyris. X. Hispanus, from whom the whole Country was call'd Hiſpania, tho' others derive it another way (as in the Preface.) He was the firſt that wore a Royal Diadem, and built Towers in the Iſland Tarleſſe and in Gallicia; but others with more Reaſon ſay, that the Towers in Gallicia were built by Augustus Caeſar. Granata the Siſter (by ſome call'd the Daughter of Hiſpanus) built a City and call'd it after her own Name.

XIII. Atlas Maurus having diſpoſſeſs'd his Brother Heſperus of the Kingdom, forc'd him to fly into Italy, where he reign'd. But Atlas purſued him thither and alſo expell'd him thence, and made Italy his chief Reſidence; but from Spain he drew Gold and Silver into Italy. Of him it is feign'd that being foretold by the Oracle that one of Jupiter's Sons ſhould expel him, he denied Hoſpitality to Perſeus who therefore ſhewed him the Gorgon's Head, which transform'd him into Mount Atlas. He was for his Skill in Aſtronomy ſaid to bear up the Heavens with his Shoulders There were 3 of this Name, viz. 1. But at laſt the Carthaginians joining HIERO King of Syracuſe againſt the Mamertines, the Mamertines ſent to Rome for ſuccour: But the Romans choſe rather to declare War againſt the Carthaginians on pretence that they aſſiſted their Enemies the Tarentines and thus the firſt Punic War commenc'd	—	3740	264
See the Hiſtory of this War in Tab. 49. During which the Spaniards join'd ſometimes one ſide, ſometimes another. Their Governor was
AMILCAR who was ſlain and ſucceeded by his Son ASDRUBAL under whom HANNIBAL the Great learn'd his firſt Rudiments of War, and the brave HANNIBAL was alſo made Governor of Spain, when aged 22 Years: but extending his Conqueſts over Spain, at laſt the ſecond Punic War began, when HANNIBAL march'd thro' Gaul, and over the Alps into Italy. See Table 51.	—	3786	218
The Carthaginians had at firſt the ſuperior hand in this War, but at laſt, by not improving their Advantages, were worſted and ſubdued. Mean while	—	3789	215
Cn. Scipio was ſent thither, and defeated Hanno the Carthaginian Governor of Spain. After this Pub. Scipio was made Proconſul of Spain, and the Scipio's gain'd great Ground there, defeating Mago and Aſdrubal the Brothers of HANNIBAL the Great.
But tho' both theſe brave Scipio's were ſlain in Spain, they ſold their Lives dear; and Martius their Lieutenant ſlew 37000 of the Enemy. Table 51.	—	3792	212
Claudius Nero the Governor of Spain being impos'd upon by the cunning of Aſdrubal, the Comitia met to chooſe a Proconſul for the Spaniſh War; but none appearing, Pub. SCIPIO the Younger, then aged 24 Years, offer'd himſelf, and being accepted, he departed thither	—	3794	210
Tilanus was ſent by SCIPIO with 10000 Men againſt Mago and Hanno the Carthaginians. They ſlew Mago and captivated Hanno	—	3797	207
And next Year Scipio reduc'd All Spain and return'd to Rome	—	3798	206

Thus Spain at laſt became ſubject to the Romans, after the Carthaginians had rul'd in it the ſpace of 350 Years from their firſt Invaſion. But, upon Scipio's Return to Rome, Mandonius and Indibilis rebell'd againſt the Roman Proconſuls, but were defeated and puniſh'd. Spain being thus ſubjected to the Romans, was partition'd into Ulterior and Citerior. But here the Romans met with great Oppoſition; for after the Rebellion of Mandonius, Viriathus held War for 20 Years; Numantia held out almoſt 15 Years, and the Aſturies remain'd unconquer'd until the Time of Auguſtus Cæſar, and even then ſo reſolutely maintain'd their particular Liberties, that it was hard to diſcern whether the Romans or Spaniards ſhould come off victorious. But Spain being at laſt reduc'd into the Form of a Province by AUGUSTUS Cæſar, it was govern'd by the Roman Proconſuls, Pretors and other Magiſtrates. But when the Emperor CONSTANTINE the Great new modell'd the Roman Empire, He join'd ſome part of Africa to Spain, and made it a Dioceſs of the Empire, and ſubject to the Præfectus Pretorij for Gaul, by whoſe Vicar it was govern'd, the whole being partition'd into theſe ſeven Provinces, viz. 1 Bœtica. 2 Luſitania. 3 Gallicia containing the modern Gallicia, Leon and Oviedo and what of Portugal lies between the Rivers Minio and Duero. 4 Carthaginenſis. 5 Tarraconnenſis. 6 Tingitana and 7 the Inſular Province. Of theſe Provinces the firſt 3 were Conſulares govern'd by Proconſuls; the other four were call'd Præſidiaria from their being under Preſidents. Spain continued a Roman Dioceſs till An. D. 410, when GUNDERIC King of the Vandals was forc'd to fly into Spain, and was afterwards followed by the Alani and Sueves. HERMERIC commanded the Sueves, and RESPLANDIAN or Atace rul'd over the Alanes. Theſe three Nations partition'd Spain among them thus, 1. The Alanes were to conquer Carthagene and part of Luſitania or Portugal. 2. The Vandals called Silinges ſhould conquer Bœtica, ſince called Andaluſia. 3. The other Vandals and Suevia ſhould ſettle in Gallicia. But ALARIC King of the Viſi-Goths had by the Advice of Stilico the Imperial General, got the Grant of Gaul and Spain from the Emperor Honorius A. D. 409. See the following Table.

TABLE CCCCXLVII.

The Viso-Goths or Weſt Gothick KINGS of Spain. See Table 137.

THE Goths, the ſame ſort of People with the Getes and Gepides, finding a Paſſage, march'd from Northern Aſia into Europe very early, firſt ſeiz'd upon ancient Dacia, now call'd Vallachia and Moldavia, and then upon Thrace and Myſia, call'd afterwards Bulgaria and the neighbouring Countries, till they poſſeſs'd both the Banks of the Danube and extended their Settlements from thence to the Baltick. In the Days of Alexander the Great SYRMIUS reign'd over the Goths, and Lyſimachus King of Thrace was vanquiſh'd and taken in Battel by a King of the Goths, who generouſly ſet him at Liberty and married his Daughter. Afterwards they mixed with the Northern Nations, ſo that all the old Scandinavians were call'd Goths and ſpoke the Gothick Language, which, with ſome, was like that of the Celtes, with others, it was the old Teutonic.

From Scandinavia a great Army of the Northern Goths return'd to the German Coaſt of the Baltick; and in proceſs of Time, advancing into the main Land, they repoſſeſs'd Dacia and Myſia, and over-run the higher Thrace under PHILYMER Son of Gandaric the 5th King after this Return. Now they became famous by ſubduing many Nations, whom they forc'd to be call'd by the Name of Goths. Their King

GIVA defeated the Romans in a great Battel, wherein the Emperor Decius and his Son were ſlain A. D. 252, ſo that becoming formidable, the Emperors uſed them as neceſſary Confederates. In the Time of Valentinian and Valens, the Gothick King HERMANARIC, after he had vanquiſh'd many Nations was forc'd to yield many large Countries to the conquering Hunns, who ſlew in Battel VITHIMIR his Succeſſor, and quite overturn'd the Gothick Empire. Upon which the Royal ATHANARIC, not truſting to the Emperor Valens (becauſe he had aided his Rebel Proclus) marched Northward, and inhabited the Foreſts of Sarmatia: But FRIGTIGERNE and ALAVIN two Gothic Chiefs, with a great Number of other Goths, fix'd at the Danube on the Confines of the Roman Empire, where Valens conſented they ſhould dwell as a Rampire againſt the Invaſions of other Foreigners. They were ſoon join'd by VITHERIC Son of Vithimir with his Tutors Alathee and Saphrar, and alſo Pharnabe the Conductors of great Troops, till again they became a potent People, call'd by the Romans Viſi-Goths as thoſe that remain'd under the Domination of the Huns were call'd Oſtro-Goths.

There were many Chriſtians among them very early; for Theophilus a Biſhop of the Goths came to the Council of Nice; but Eudoxus the Arian perſuaded the Emperor Valens his Diſciple to draw the Goths into Arianiſm; for that a Conformity in Religion would make a more laſting Peace; and Eudoxus prevail'd with their great Biſhop Uulphilas to perſuade his Countrymen to receive the Emperor's Arian Confeſſion of Faith. But Valens oppreſs'd the Viſi-Goths at the Roman Frontiers (more than the Hunns oppreſs'd the Oſtro-Goths under their Domination) by his Lieutenants who ſtimulated Uritigerne and Alavin by baſe Treatment to declare open War againſt the Romans, in which at laſt the Emperor was defeated, loſt the beſt of his Men and his own Life, being burn'd by the Goths in a Caſtle whither he had retir'd wounded after the Loſs of the Battel; nay, the Goths had exterminated the Romans in thoſe Parts but that Theodosius ſucceeded Valens, defeated the Goths and then made Peace with them; ſo that ATHARIC the Succeſſor of Uritigerne died magnificently in the Court of Theodosius: After which the Goths were 14 Years at Peace, until ALARIC, one of their Captains, rouzed up the Goths to Arms in the Time of Arcadius and Honorius. But the Goths were divided about a King, ſome being for Radagisus, but ALARIC prevail'd; wherefore while Alaric oppreſs'd Hungary, Radagisus with 200000 Goths march'd into Italy: but Stilico General of the Romans wiſely oppos'd him, ſhutting up the Goths in the Apennine Hills till they were ſtarv'd, when Radagisus was taken and ſtrangled.

After this Defeat of Radagisus

I. ALARIC King of the Viſi-Goths march'd from Hungary into Italy with a great Army demanding to partition the Empire with Honorius A. D. 409, to whom, by the Advice of Stilico, Honorius granted Gaul and Spain, then a Prey to the Franks and other Nations. But Stilico ſecretly ſent an Army to deſtroy Alaric in the Straits of the Alpes under Saul the Jew, whom Alaric defeated, and in revenge return'd to Italy, putting all to Fire and Sword, even to the Gates of Rome, which he took and ſack'd, except the Holy Places; and having over-run all Italy, on his return to Rome he † ſuddenly near *Conſence A. Athaulph or Adolph march'd into Spain to diſpoſſeſs them: But at Barcelona he was ſlain with ſix Children which he had by another Wife than Placidia, being thruſt into the Flank by one Wernulphe whom he was uſed to laugh at for his Folly A. D. 416.

He defeated the Vandals and Alanes, in Bœtica and Luſitania, and ſlew their King Attace A. D. 420, and reduc'd them to that Extremity, that the few remaining join'd Gunderic King of the Vandals in Andaluzia; but they were totally routed in the Battel of Merida in Portugal: Then he went into Gaul and conquer'd all the Country from Tholouſe to the Pyrenean Hills and the River Garonne. Vallia return'd, forc'd all the Vandals to fly into Africa, whither he intended to purſue them A. D. 426, and † 427; ſome ſay 419; others ſay 440.

V. THEODORIC i. or Roderic ſucceeded Vallia. The Goths broke Peace with the Romans A. D. 436, and beſieg'd Narbon which Lictorius Governor under Ætius relieved; yet Littorius truſting to Witches, beſieged Tholouſe and was taken by Theodoric 439, which occaſion'd the Peace to be renew'd between the Romans and Goths. And Theodoric aſſiſting the Romans againſt the Hunns, he was ſlain in the memorable Battel of Chalons in France, wherein Attila King of the Hunns was defeated, when on both Sides were ſlain 180000 Men, among whom 90000 Gepides or Goths and *Franks A. V. Abderrahamen ſucceeded Adam as Viceroy. He defeated Eudo Duke of Aquitain both at Arles and Bourdeaux, ſpoiling and burning all between the Pyrenees and the River Loyer, but at laſt a Peace was concluded. Eudo being threatned by the French and fearing their Power, he call'd in againſt them a great Army of Saracens, who were defeated in Tourain by Charles Martel *A. I. PHILIP I. Austriacus surnamed also the Netherlander born 23 June 1478. He was made Knt of the Golden-Fleece 1481, made Governor of the Netherlands and Burgundy 1495. In right of his Wife He became King of Castile upon the Death of her Mother ISABEL 1504. He † 25 Sept. 1506.

II. CHARLES I. of Spain and V. of the Emperors, born at Ghent 24 Feb. 1500, was Governor of the Netherlands 1514, crown'd K. of Spain 1516, when, by the Aid of Cardinal Ximenes, he took upon himself the Administration, his Mother being incapable, and made a League with K. Francis I. whose Da. was promis'd to be his Wife, but no Ties could bridle the ambitious Animosity of these two Princes, each contending for the Universal Monarchy: And upon CHARLES's mounting the Imperial Throne, A War broke out between them, which was carried on with Vigour on both Sides. See Tab. 381. After the Peace of Crespy 1544, He enter'd into a League with Pope PAUL III. and wag'd War against the Protestants, whom he overthrew, and captivated their Chief Leaders the Elector of Saxony, and Landgrave of Hesse 1545; but using his Prisoners too harsh, He disoblig'd Maurice Elector of Saxony, who fell upon the Emperor in the Night Time, and forc'd him to retire from Inspruck. After this followed the Treaty at Passaw and Establishment of the Protestant Religion A. D. 1552. At last being wearied with the Toils of the Empire, He resign'd the Imperial Crown 7 Septemb. 1556, to his Brother FERDINAND, and to PHILIP his Son he gave all his Kingdoms and Territories, except those of Germany, reserving to himself an Annual Allowance of 100000 Ducats. The Emperor † in the Convent of St. Justus in Spain 21 Sept. 1558. But his last Will (tho' ever so rational) so displeased the Inquisition that it was with difficulty kept from the Flames; nay his Father Confessor, and the rest of the Monks of that Convent, who had been present, were forc'd to undergo the severe Judgment of that Court.

Isabel or Elizabeth his third Wife, Da. of Henry II. K. of France (Tab. 381.) mrd 20 June 1559, † not without Suspicion of Poyson 3 Octob. 1568; for many think her Death, and the Death of her Step-Son Charles were both occasion'd by some Love Intrigue, because this Isabel (though the intended Bride of Charles) was mrd to PHILIP.

III. PHILIP II. born 21 May 1527, succeeded on his Father's Abdication 1556. In his Time the greatness of the Spanish Monarchy began to be at a Stand, nay to decline; for the separation of the Imperial Crown from that of Spain much disabled it, and the Belgic War also lessen'd its Authority; for PHILIP choosing rather to reside in Spain, than personally to stop these Wars, in the beginning made the Wound incurable, and his sending Ferdinand Alvarez the cruel Duke of Alva into the Netherlands, exasperated that People to contend to the Death for their Liberty; in these Troubles Queen ELIZABETH assisted the Netherlanders, while the English Privateers much annoy'd the Spanish West-India Ships; nay the famous Francis Drake plunder'd the very Southern Coast of America. At last PHILIP resolved at once to ruin England by that which he call'd the Invincible Armado, which got such an Overthrow, partly by the English and Dutch, and partly by Tempests, that the few that return'd home were in a most miserable Condition, and there was scarce a Noble Family in Spain but what lost some Friend or Relation A. D. 1588. After this 1596, Admiral Howard and the Earl of Essex took and plunder'd the City of Cadix. Neither did PHILIP receive much advantage by joining in the Holy-League against the House of Bourbon; for Henry IV. declaring himself a Roman Catholick broke all his Measures. Then a Peace was made at Vervin between France and Spain 1597, K. PHILIP had also War with the Turks; for the Pyrat Dragutes had taken Tripoli, and therefore to retake it PHILIP sent a mighty Army which took the Isle Gerbis, but the Turks beat the Spaniards and retook that Island 1551. At last PHILIP, upon the Death of Henry King of Portugal, in right of his Mother, claim'd that Kingdom, which he conquer'd by his General the Duke of Alva 1579, and forc'd ANTONY the Bastard, who had caus'd himself to be proclaim'd King, to fly into England and from thence to France where he died. The Island Tercera held out till 1597, when the French intending to relieve it were totally routed. He † 13 September 1598. Don JOHN of Austria a Natural Son born 1545. He was one of the most renown'd Heroes of his Time. He was Admiral of the Confederate Fleet of Spain, Venice and other Italian States 1571, and gave the Turkish Fleet such an Overthrow near Lepanto that they were never afterwards so formidable in those Seas. He march'd with an Army into Africa 1573, recover'd Tunis, to which he added a new Fortification, but the Turks retook it next Year. He was made Governor of the Netherlands in Nov. 1576. ^{1}CHARLES Infant of Spain, call'd Don Carlos, born 8 July 1545, He was contracted to Isabel Daughter of Henry II. King of France, but his Father marrying his Bride, he was much displeas'd. Being of a Jealous Humour, Charles always slept with fire Arms about him; and his Father suspecting his Ambition, seiz'd him by Night, discharg'd his Guards, cloathed him in Black, and made him lye on a Rowling Bed. This put the Prince on several Attempts on his own Life. At last his Father poison'd him for his suspected Love to the Queen and hers to him, so that he † 24 July 1568.

IV. PHILIP III. born 14 April 1578, King of Spain 1598, when there was a Peace with France: but the Dutch War grew heavier every Day upon the Spaniards, who therefore eagerly desir'd a Peace, and the Hollanders would not bate an Ace of their Proposals. At last a Truce for 12 Years was concluded 1608, and next Year K. PHILIP expell'd 900000 Marans the Offspring of the ancient Maurs, who intended to make a Rebellion, and had privately crav'd the Aid of Henry IV. K. of France. There arose two Factions near the Alps, viz. the Valtelines and Grisons. The Spaniards join'd the Valtelines hoping to annex them to Milan, and the French the Grisons. These Differences rous'd all Italy, nay the Pope himself took part with the Grisons, tho' Protestants, and assisted them in the Recovery of the Valteline. The K. † 30 Mar. 1621.

V. PHILIP IV. born 8 April 1605, King of Spain 1621, renew'd the War against the Hollanders, who were assisted by Christian Duke of Braunschweig and General Mansfeld 1622. The Hollanders took the Spanish Silver-Fleet and settled in Brasile 1628: when Vincent II. Duke of Mantua dying without Issue, Philip and the Emperor oppos'd the Succession of Charles Duke of Nevers, and renewed his Pretensions on Montferrat; but the French beat the Spaniards and put Charles in possession of Mantua and declar'd War against Spain 1635, with a principal View to curb the Power of the House of Austria; but the French were not successful in the Netherlands, the Dutch not liking such Neighbours, and this War between France and Spain was carried on with various Success the 3 following Years. The Dutch Admiral Van Trump destroy'd a great Spanish Fleet in the English Downs 1639 aboard which were 20000 Men design'd to join the Danes against the Swedes, and that same Year the Catalans revolted and were not reduc'd till after 11 Years. The Portuguese having been much oppressed since the Death of King PHILIP II. unanimously join'd to cast off the Castilian Yoke, and revolted in one Day, proclaiming John Duke of Braganza their King. See Portugal Tab. 470. In the Year 1647. Massanello, a Poor Fisherman at Naples, headed the Mob in a dangerous Rebellion, which would have overturn'd that Kingdom if the French had timely assisted them; but by the Prudence of the Governor of Naples that Tumult was appeas'd. By the Treaty of Munster or Westphalia 1648, K. PHILIP made Peace with the Hollanders, being forc'd to declare them a free People. Table 362. And by the Pyrenean Treaty 1659, he made Peace with France, giving Lewis XIV. the Infanta Mary Theresia to Wife, the Grandmother of the present King of Spain. Then he turn'd his Arms against Portugal in good Earnest, his Generals entring that Country with great Force, but were soundly beat, especially in the Battel of Entremas 1662, and of Villa Viciosa 1665. PHILIP † 17 Sep. that same Year.

VI. CHARLES II. born ^{2}6 Nov. 1661, King of Spain under the Tuition of his Mother; but negligently prosecuting the War against Portugal, was by the Mediation of England, forc'd to make Peace with that Crown, and renounce all Right to the same; because the French at that time made a grievous Havock in the Netherlands, taking with little Resistance, a great many Cities and Forts, viz. Charleroy, Tournay, Lisle, Doway, &c. together with the whole French County, which hast'ned the Peace between England and Holland, and occasion'd the Triple-Alliance between England, Holland and Sweden for preserving the Spanish Netherlands 1667, and the Treaty of Aix la Chapelle 1668, whereby France was oblig'd to restore French County to Spain. But when the French attackt Holland 1672, Spain sided with the Dutch and came again to an open War, and at first lost Burgundy: France took also Limburg, Conde, Valencienne, Cambray, Ypres, St. Omers, Aeth and Ghent. But by the Peace of Nimeguen, France kept the French-Compté and most places in the Netherlands, restoring only to Spain Limburg, Ghent, Cortryck, Oudenarde, Aeth and Charleroy. After this K. CHARLES was ever steddy in the Emperor's Interest against Lewis XIV. and his Ally King James II. of England, and readily came into the Measures of the Prince of Orange, the Emperor and Pope in the Revolution of England 1688, and join'd in the Grand Alliance with King WILLIAM III. who after the Peace of Ryswick, contriv'd a Partition of the Spanish Monarchy, whereby Charles Archduke of Austria was to have Spain and most of the Spanish Dominions except Naples and Sicily, which were assign'd to the Dauphin 15 March 1699. But LEWIS XIV. tho' at first he came into this Treaty, yet by his Policy obtain'd that Charles on his Death Bed bequeath'd by his last Will and Testament the whole Spanish Monarchy to his Grandson PHILIP Duke of Anjou. See the next Table. CHARLES † without Issue 1 Nov. 1700. Wives, 1. Mary Louisa Daughter of Philip Duke of Orleans, married 19 November 1679, † 12 Feb. 1689. Tab. 387. 2. Mary Ann Daughter of Philip William Palatin of Newburg born 1667, mrd 4 May 1690. See Tab. 272. It is commonly reported that this CHARLES once commanding all Jews to wear colour'd Hats as a Badge of Infamy, the Duke of Medina Celi withdrew from the Council Chamber, and the King asking the Reason, the Duke answer'd, To fetch a Couple of these Hats. Then the King ask'd for whom, to which the Duke boldly reply'd, One for your Majesty and another for my self; the King then cry'd out, O curse on the Pigeon that soar'd so High. N. B. Pigeon or Paloma alludes to a certain Jewess from whom it is thought several of the Kings of Spain are descended.

TABLE CCCCLXIV.

The LORDS of Biſcay.

THE old Inhabitants before the coming in of the Vaſcones were the Cantabri, the Progenitors of the modern Biſcaians, as appears by their Language different from that of the reſt of Spain, and was thought to have continued the ſame ever ſince the Confuſion at Babel; nay, it ſeems to be the Language of the ancient Spaniards before they were blended with Foreigners: Nor were the Biſcaians ever thoroughly ſubdued either by the Carthaginians, Romans, Goths, or Maurs, whereby their Language was preſerved. 'Tis true AUGUSTUS CÆSAR reſtrain'd their Diſorders by the Roman Towers, but they never intermix'd with the Romans, and were only Subjects of that Empire until it fell, when the Romans reſign'd Biſcay to the Goths with the reſt of the Province of Tarraconenſis; nay, they were alſo the laſt that ſubmitted to the Fury of the Maurs, and the firſt that ſhook off that Yoke, not having time to be blended with them. They ſpeak their own ancient pure Language, as the People in the Mountains of Granada ſtill ſpeak pure Arabick, or in Wales the old Britiſh, or in Scotland the ancient Gaulick or Celtick.

They differ from the other Spaniards in Cuſtoms as well as Language, for they account themſelves free from Taxes and admit no Prelates among them; for when Ferdinand the Catholick came in Progreſs hither, the People aroſe and drove back his Companion the Biſhop of Pampelona from the King's Preſence, and gathering all the Duſt, on which they thought the Biſhop had trod, they threw it into the Sea: Nor do they allow any Prieſt to live among them without a Concubine, believing their Wives could not be ſafe, if the Curate had not a Woman of his own. And the Women always drink firſt before the Men, ever ſince Ogno Count of Caſtile attempted to poiſon his Son Sancho in a Cup of Wine. They had many Highland Kings, or Heads of Clans, or Captains of Bands before and after the Invaſion of the Maurs, the laſt of whom was ZENO made Governor or Count of Biſcay in the beginning of the Reign of Alphonſo III. King of Leon. But by his Rebellion he forc'd that King to ſend an Army, which conquer'd and carried him Priſoner to Oviedo, where he died in Captivity A. D. 856. The Biſcaians ſeeing themſelves without a Head fell to Mutinies and Seditions, and therefore ORDOGNO Count of Aſturias the Son of King ALPHONSO was ſent againſt them, but the Biſcaians under the Conduct of their Captain SORIA or SURIA the Grandſon of ALPINUS King of Scotland routed Ordogno Anno 870, and choſe this SORIA for their Lord, whoſe Genealogy is as follows, viz.

TABLE CCCCLXV.

The COUNTS of Barcelona in Catalonia.

THE ancient Inhabitants of this Country were the Caſtellani, Auxitani, Indigites, Coſitani, with part of the Ilecones and Jacetani; all of them a part of the ancient Province Tarraconenſis: They forgot much their ancient Language, being long train'd up in Roman Cuſtoms and Speech, till in the Declenſion of that Empire they were firſt invaded by the Alani A. D. 410, who were ſoon expell'd by the Goths, and theſe diſpoſſeſſed by the Maurs 714 But the Chriſtians here hating the Mauriſh Yoke, ſollicited CHARLES MARTEL to aid them in ſhaking it off. He ſent a German Knt. call'd Orter or Oger Cathorlot to be their Governor, with ſome Bands of German and French, who with the Natives, fit to bear Arms, recover'd ſome Frontiers from the Maurs. Charles Martel † 741, and during the Reign of his Son King PIPIN, the Catalans, aided by the French, war'd againſt the Maurs, but CHARLEMAIN marched in Perſon to Catalonia, and recover'd Barcelona from the Maurs 797, and ZATO the Mauriſh Governor yielded himſelf to CHARLES, who made BERNARD, a Frenchman, Count of Barcelona, who ſtil'd himſelf Count, Duke and alſo Marquis of Spain, as appears by ſome of his Letters preſerv'd at Ripagorſa, and at St. Peter's of Taverna.

The Name Catalonia is by ſome deriv'd from the old Caſtellani; others ſay it was call'd Gotholania from the mixture of the Goths and Alani, ſucceſſively Maſters of it; others from the Catti and Alani, and others from the Catalonicians. But others ſay it has its Name from the ſaid Governor CATHERLOT or CATHELON; but whatever its Etymology may be, Cuſtom has prevail'd many hundred Years to call it Catalognia or Catalonia.

1. BERNARD Governor of Provence and Languedoc under Charlemain is accounted the firſt Count of Barcelona and govern'd Catalonia 797, as above mention'd, he had ſharp Wars with the Maurs, from whom with the help of GEOFFREY the Hairy Lord of Arria, he took all the Country between the Rivers Noguera and Lobregat, but after the Death of CHARLEMAIN, Aymon Governor of Guienne having rebell'd againſt the Emperor Lewis, enter'd Catalonia, and with the Aid of the Maurs, beſieg'd Barcelona A. D. 820, which they both took and loſt that Year. But the Maurs ſo grievouſly oppreſſing the Chriſtians, the Emperor ſent Elizachar an Abbot to comfort them; and he ſo much animated them, that when Abderrahamen and Aymon went again to beſiege Barcelona, they found ſuch Reſiſtance as they were forc'd to abandon it Anno 830, when BERNARD was recalled by the Emperor Lewis Pius who made him his Chamberlain, but being accus'd of Adultery with the Empreſs Judith, he was depriv'd of all and ſucceeded by

2. GEOFFREY of Arria ſucceeded him as Count of Barcelona A. D. 839, Catalonia was then ſubject to the French and obtain'd great Privileges from K. Charles Craſſus An. 844. This GEOFFREY exerted himſelf againſt the Maurs, and though in vain he attempted to take the Town of Tortoſa, yet he deprived them of what the Rebel Aymon had uſurp'd in that Country ſome Years before. But one SOLOMON C. of Cerdagne envying him, accus'd him to the K. his Sovereign, and being ſummon'd to appear at his Inſtance, He was ſlain at Auvergne on the Way thither Anno 858.

Wife, Almira a French Lady.

3. SOLOMON Count of Cerdagne ſucceeded his Rival 858, by means of CHARLES King of Burgundy. But CHARLES dying 864, Catalonia came to the Emp. Lewis II. who dying 876, it then went to the King of France, and 877 SOLOMON was ſlain by a Conſpiracy of his Succeſſor.

I. GEOFFREY 1. ſurnamed the Hairy, was educated in the Houſe of a Flemiſh Knt. whoſe Da. he ſecretly married. He ſucceeded SOLOMON 877, in his Father's Dignities and was pardon'd for the Murder of SOLOMON. He ſerved well the Emperor Lewis II. and K. Charles Craſſus againſt the Normans: But the Maurs in his Abſence entring Barcelona, GEOFFREY then demanded Men and Money of the King to repulſe the Infidels; but K. Charles not being able to aſſiſt him that Way, gave the County of Barcelona to him and to his Heirs for ever A. D. 884, reſerving only the Sovereignty to the Kings of France, and therefore this GEOFFREY is accounted the firſt proprietary Count of Barcelona, to which when he return'd, he recover'd all that the Maurs had uſurp'd upon the Territories of Catalonia and Barcelona. BORELLO who was forc'd to fly to the Mountains, where he recruited himſelf as well as he could, and then returning he retook Barcelona and recover'd all the places which the Maurs had taken; But theſe Infidels reinvaded Catalonia, and once more defeated Count Borello, who thinking to ſave himſelf with 60 Horſe in the Caſtle of Gautha near Caldes, was there taken and ſlain with all his Company Anno 993. TABLE CCCCLXXIII.

The Grand-Masters of St. John of Jeruſalem, now call'd the Grand-Masters of Malta.

THE Orders of Knighthood, owing their Original for the moſt part to Sovereigns, cannot well be omitted in this Work, their Inſtitution being for the Defence of Crowns and States, to which the Knights are devoted by a particular Engagement, and their Oath of Fidelity attaches them more to the Perſons of their Sovereigns than other Subjects, and the Sovereigns are moſtly the Heads of theſe illuſtrious Societies, and have thought it their Honour to bear the Arms and Badges of theſe Orders. Their Honour of Knighthood is not hereditary, but is granted to Merit, to Knowledge, to Valour, and to Services done the State, whether in Negotiations with neighbouring Princes, or in military Expeditions. Thus Godfrey of Bouillon created twelve Knights from among his Nobles at Antwerp, a few Days before his Departure to the Holy-Land A. D. 1097, and John Duke of Brabant A. D. 1288, created 31 Knights at the Head of his Army from among his principal Officers before the Battel of Waring; and the Emperor Maximilian I. A. D. 1479, created 20 Knights at the Head of his Army before the Battel of Blanges from among his principal Officers, to oblige them to ſhew their Valour, and to animate the reſt of the Army.

Theſe Orders are different and divided in 2 Claſſes: The firſt contains the Religious Orders of Chevalry, whoſe Duties are not extended to the Defence of Princes and States, and of all Chriſtendom, for they are ſubject to certain particular Vows and Regulations, whereby they are entirely under the Power of their Heads. The other Claſs comprehends the Military Orders that Sovereigns have inſtituted to animate their Nobility and Subjects with an Emulation in War. Of theſe I ſhall ſpeak, after I have given a Catalogue of the Grand-Maſters of

The famous Order of Malta.

Before the taking Jeruſalem from the Saracens, certain Chriſtian Merchants of Naples got leave from the Caliph of Egypt to build a ſmall and convenient Houſe and Oratory for the Entertainment of themſelves and Countrymen 1012, which they built before the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. To them repair'd certain Canons of the Order of St. Auguſtin who built another Oratory; but the Number of the Pilgrims increaſing they erected a large Hoſpital where our Saviour celebrated his laſt Supper for their better Accommodation, and taking St. John Baptiſt for their Patron they obtain'd the Title Hoſpitallers of St. John of Jeruſalem, and by charitable Aſſiſtance from Europe they oppos'd the Attacks of the Infidels many Years, till Godfrey of Bouillon came to their Relief, beat off the Turks in Syria, and took in Jeruſalem from the Caliph of Egypt, Anno 1099, and after he had reign'd about 11 Months, his Brother Baldwin I. protected them, whoſe Nephew Baldwin II. ſucceeded, and under him this Order was confirm'd in its Eſtabliſhment by Pope Honorius II. and the Patriarch of Jeruſalem Anno 1124, with the Regulations of St. Augustin: for Gerhard the Holy dying 1118, tho' he was really the Head of the Order, yet he had not the Quality of Grand-Maſter, but his Succeſſor Raymond Podius a Florentine obtain'd firſt the Title.

Gerhard a Frenchman born in Martigues in Provence, was Adminiſtrator of the Hoſpital of St. John of Jeruſalem, and after the taking of Jeruſalem by Godfrey of Bouillon 15 July 1099, He prevail'd on the Brothers and Siſters of the Hoſpital to take a regular Habit, which was a plain black Robe with a white Linen Croſs of eight Points affix'd to it. He built a magnificent Temple in honour of St. John Baptist. Pope Paschal II. confirm'd this Order, and all Endowments made, or to be made, in favour of the Hoſpital; and granted by a ſpecial Order, that the Hoſpitallers ſhould have the ſole Right of electing a Superior after the Death of Gerhard, who dying 1118, the Hoſpitallers, purſuant to this Bull, aſſembled and unanimouſly elected	19	1099	1118
I. Raimond Dupuy who drew up a Body of Statutes for the Order. He engag'd the Fraterntiy to reaſſume their Arms only againſt the Infidels, who much oppreſs'd the Chriſtians. Alphonso I. King of Aragon and Navarre, having no Hopes of Iſſue, declar'd the Hoſpitallers Heirs of Navarre and Aragon by his Will 1131, which he confirm'd a little before his Death. But both theſe Kingdoms electing Sovereigns of their own, Raimond was ſent into Spain to demand the Execution of the ſaid Will, but to no Purpoſe, ſave that ſome Lands and Caſtles were yielded to the Fraternity, with a Tenth of the Taxes of the Kingdom. This was ratified in Sept. 1141, when Raimond return'd to Paleſtine and obtain'd the Title of Grand-Maſter. After his Death	42	1118	1160

IV. Gilbert d'Asalit or Sailli being elected, approv'd of K. Amalric's Deſign of invading Egypt; and therefore by his Money levied Troops to aid the King. Their joint Forces inveſted Belbeis A. D. 1168, which Amalric by Agreement deliver'd up to the Grand-Maſter; and then as King Amalric was marching his Forces to Grand Cairo, the Sultan not being in a Poſture of War at that Time, got him diverted by the Offer of 200000 Ducats of Gold for the Ranſom of his Son and Nephew 1169: but the Egyptians in the Time they requir'd to pay the Money, rais'd an Army of Confederate Troops that oblig'd Amalric to remove his Garriſon from Belbeis and march back to Paleſtine. The Grand-Maſter having by this Expedition run the Society 200000 Ducats in Debt, and being unable to bear the Reproaches of the Fraternity he reſign'd in a full Chapter 1169. Then he embark'd at Jaffa and landed in Provence, whence he went to Normandy to Henry II. King of England, from whence ſhipping for England, his native Country, in an old Ship, he was founder'd at Sea, and all the Paſſengers loſt, except 8 Perſons who eſcap'd in the Boat	2	1167	1169

VII. Roger Desmoulins upon his Election and Inſtallment exhorted the Regent and principal Nobility of the Kingdom vigorouſly to oppoſe Saladin; but the Diviſions of the Grandees and the Contentions between the two Military Orders of the Hoſpitallers and Templars contributed much to the Enlargement of Saladin's Conqueſts; but by the Mediation of the Pope the two Grand-Maſters ſign'd a Peace. Roger was ſlain in Battel againſt Saladin to the univerſal Lamentation of the Hoſpitallers, who knowing the Neceſſity they had of an able General elected	8	1179	1187

Upon his Abdication the Chapter elected	1	1194	1195

TABLE CCCCLXXIV.

The Religious Orders of KNIGHTHOOD.

The Knights of,

I. ST. SEPULCHRE in Jeruſalem is by ſome ſaid to be inſtituted when Philip King of France regain'd the Temple of Jeruſalem from the Saracens A. D. 1099; but others ſay it was Inſtituted by BALDWIN I. King of Jeruſalem, who conſtituted the Regular Canons of St. Auguſtin Knights of the Holy Sepulchre: Their Grand-Maſter was the Patriarch of Jeruſalem. They were to Guard the Sepulchre, oppoſe the Saracens and Infidels, protect Pilgrims, &c. Pope INNOCENT III. confirm'd their Order. Upon the Loſs of the Holy Land they retir'd to Perugia in Italy. They were incorporated with the Hoſpitallers of Jeruſalem then at Rhodes 1484, but tho' ſeveral Attempts have been made to reſtore this Order by the Pope, the King of Spain and Duke of Nevers; yet all prov'd in vain. Inſtituted A. D. 1092 or 1099

II. HOSPITALLERS of St. JOHN BAPTIST in Jeruſalem now Knights of Malta. See the laſt Table.

III. TEMPLARS. This Order began in the Reign of Baldwin II. K. of Jeruſalem between A 1117, and 1120, when 9 Gentlemen came in Devotion to the Holy Land. Then they were call'd Brothers of the Militia of the Temple, or Knights Templars, from their dwelling near Solomon's Temple. Their firſt Undertaking was to guard the moſt dangerous Ways about Jeruſalem from the Robberies of the Saracens, for which they had the Remiſſion of their Sins; but tho' at firſt they were exceeding poor, yet in Time they grew ſo potent, that they with the HOSPITALLERS and Teutonicks long ſupported the Kingdom of Jeruſalem. But at laſt, growing proud, they fell from the Patriarch and join'd the Pope, and at laſt 1307, all the Knights of this Order in France were in one Hour captivated by King Philip Pulcher, with the Conſent of Pope CLEMENT V. being charg'd with moſt infamous Crimes, and that ſame Year they were convicted in England and all their Poſſeſſions forfeited; only the Biſhop of York commiſerated thoſe in his Dioceſs, putting them in Monaſtries under his Juriſdiction. After this A. D. 1309, the moſt of 'em were burn'd in France and Jaques de la Maule their laſt Grand-Maſter ſaw his Order diſſolv'd by the Papal Authority 1312, and their Lands annex'd to the Hoſpitallers for their Service againſt the Turks. 1117

IV. ST. LAZARUS. Theſe were firſt a Fraternity of Religious Monks, afterwards Eccleſiaſtical Knights in imitation of the Knts of St. Sepulchre. It is ſaid that this Order was founded A. D. 366, by St. Baſile to take care of Leprous Perſons. This Order, thro' the Incurſions of the Barbarians, lay long extinguiſh'd, till it was reviv'd, when the Latin Princes aſſociated to recover the Holy Land, and a famous Hoſpital was erected at Jeruſalem under the Title of St. Lazarus for the reception of Lepers. The Monks of this Order being good Soldiers as well as good Phyſicians were mightily eſteemed by Baldwin II. King of Jeruſalem and ſome of his Succeſſors for their Services againſt the Infidels. In proceſs of Time this Order was ſuppreſs'd by Pope INNOCENT VIII. who united it to the Hoſpitallers at Rhodes 1490, but Pope PIUS IV. reſtor'd it 1565, and Pope GREGORY XIII. 1572, beſtow'd the Grand-Maſterſhip on Emanuel Philibert Duke of Savoy, and his Succeſſors the Dukes of Savoy. 366

V. TEUTONIC or PRUSSIAN Order. During the Holy War a rich German at Jeruſalem pitying the Caſe of his Countrymen there, made his Houſe their Receptacle, and, with the Conſent of the Patriarch, erected a Chapel to the Bleſſed VIRGIN, whence they were called MARIAN Knights: They elected HENRY WALPOTT their firſt Grand-Maſter, And A. D. 1192, Pope CELESTINE III. confirm'd their Order under the Title of TEUTONICK or DUTCH Knights of the Hoſpital of St. MARY the Virgin. Their Statutes were compos'd from the Hoſpitallers and Templars, and one Article was, That none but Germans ſhould be of this Order. They erected another Hoſpital at Acon, which being afterwards taken by Saladin, they remov'd with HERMANNUS their Grand-Maſter into Germany, and obtain'd Pruſſia 1229, from the Emperor Frideric II. and Pope HONORIUS III. And having by force conquer'd and converted that Nation to Chriſtianity, they built Marienburg the Reſidence of their Grand-Maſter 1340. But Albert Markgrave of Brandenburg, the laſt Grand-Maſter, ſolemnly renounc'd this Order to Sigiſmund I. King of Poland, who created him the firſt Duke of Pruſſia. Some of the Knights hating this Action, elected another Grand-Maſter, viz. Walter de Cronberg, who was ſucceeded by Wolfgang de Schutzbar 1543, and he by George de Wenckenheim 1566, and he by Henry de Bobenhauſen 1572, and he by MAXIMILIAN Archduke of Auſtria 1595, and he by CHARLES Archduke of Auſtria 1620, and he by JOHN de Werſternach 1626, and he by JOHN Gaſpard de Stadion, and he by LEOPOLD WILLIAM Archduke of Auſtria, and he by JOHN GASPARD de Ambringen 1664, and he by LEWIS ANTONY Count Palatin of the Rhine 1685, and he by FRANCIS LEWIS Count Palatin of the Rhine 1694. 1191

VI. MONTJOY ſo call'd from a Caſtle where this Order was inſtituted, built on a Mountain near Jeruſalem. They follow'd the Rule of St. Baſil, which Pope ALEXANDER III. chang'd to that of St. Auguſtine A. D. 1180. Upon the Loſs of the Holy Land they retir'd to Spain and fought againſt the Maurs. Their Order fail'd 1221, being then incorporated with the Order of Calatrava.

VII. St. JOHN of ACON or Acre. When this Order was inſtituted is uncertain. When Acon was taken they remov'd to Spain; but in time they dwindled away to the Hoſpitallers.

VIII. St. THOMAS. Some ſay this Order was in nothing diſtinct from the former, only that their Badge was a Saltire Gules: but others ſay this Order was inſtituted by RICHARD I. King of England after the taking of Acon, and that St. THOMAS BECKET was their Patron: However that may be, theſe Knights, after the Chriſtians were expell'd the Holy Land, were join'd to the HOSPITALLERS.

IX. St. BLAZE, call'd alſo Knights de Sancta MARIA, were Officers and Servants to the Kings of Armenia, being at their Height when theſe Kings kept their Court at Acon.

X. The MARTYRS in Paleſtine, ſo call'd from an Hoſpital there dedicated to St. COSMUS and St. DAMIANUS, 2 Martyrs. They were confirm'd by Pope JOHN XXII. When they retir'd to Europe they followed St. Auguſtine's Rule.

XI. St. CATHARIN at Mount Sinai was inſtituted under the Patronage of St. CATHARIN to guard her Sepulchre, ſecure Travellers, defend the Grecian Pilgrims, &c. When the Turks conquer'd theſe Countries, theſe Knights were expell'd, and their Order almoſt aboliſh'd, yet ſome ſhadow of them ſtill remains. 1063

XII. St. ANTHONY in Æthiopia. This Saint † 357, and many of his Diſciples near Æthiopia follow'd his Example and manner of Life, and their Succeſſors liv'd in great Auſterity in the Deſart, call'd therefore Anchorites till Anno 370, when 'tis ſaid John Emperor of Æthiopia erected them into a religious Order of Knt.hood under the Title and Protection of St. ANTHONY. They receiv'd St. BASIL's Rule, and cohabited in Monaſtries. Their chief Seat is in the Iſle of Meroe, but in other parts of Æthiopia they have a great Number of Convents and no leſs than 2000000 of annual Revenue. Their Vow is to obſerve conjugal Chaſtity, to die in the defence of Chriſtianity, &c. They are of 2 Sorts, the one employ'd in the Wars; the other, being old, retire to the Abbey, where they firſt took the Habit. In Italy, France and Spain there are a ſort of Monks that have the Title of Knights of St. ANTHONY, and their chief Seat is at Vienne in Dauphin, the Monaſtry of which was erected into an Abbey in honour of St. ANTHONY 1297, whoſe Body was tranſlated thither from Conſtantinople, and all other Places built in honour of his Name were made ſubject to him 1523, Moræus ſays this Order began in France 1121, from GASTON a Nobleman of Vienne: But others ſay that Gaſton and Gerin inſtituted it earlier.

XIII. St. GEORGE in Venice, by ſome ſaid to be founded by CONSTANTIN the Great and therefore call'd Conſtantinian Angelic Knights: But it is more probable that they were founded by one of the Royal COMNENI in the 12th Century, and are call'd Conſtantinian Angelic from the Croſs that appear'd to CONSTANTIN the Great in time of the Battel againſt Maxentius. They follow the Rule of St. BASILE, and are oblig'd to Matrimonial Chaſtity. There are three Claſſes of them, the firſt are thoſe who wear a Collar form'd of Labarums, whereat hangs the Croſs and St. George; the ſecond wear the Croſs and Labarum; the third are Servants who bear the Croſs only, without the Labarum. 1200

XIV. St. JAMES in Gallicia or SANCTIAGO. This is the principal Order in Spain, and had its Name from Don RAMIRO King of Leon about A. D. 826, by the Aſſiſtance of St. JAMES (ſaid to appear on a White Horſe bearing a Banner with a Red Croſs) gain'd a great Victory over the Maurs. Some place this Inſtitution 1160, others 1175, whereas it was only then confirm'd by Pope ALEXANDER III. for there was a Fraternity of Knights in Spain under a Grand-Maſter A. D. 1030. And though at firſt this was a virtuous Order and fought valiantly againſt the Maurs; yet they became ſcandalouſly perverted till the ſaid Pope ALEXANDER received them into the Protection of the Papal See, and gave them the Rule of St. AUGUSTIN and very large Privileges. When the Maurs were expell'd Spain, and the principal Branch of this Order expir'd by Contentions for the Grand-Maſterſhip, the Crown of Caſtile obtain'd it under the Title of Adminiſtrator which was granted to King FERDINAND Catholicus, and his Grandſon CHARLES V. annex'd it, with all its Privileges, to the Crowns of Caſtile and Leon; ſince which the Kings of Spain have enjoy'd the Adminiſtration of this Order.

XV. St. SAVIOUR in Aragon inſtituted by Don Alphonſo Emperor of Spain, King of Navarre, Aragon, &c. who pitch'd upon choice Men of the Spaniſh and French Nobility that had aſſiſted in his Wars, and form'd them into a Society, the better to enable them to expel the Maurs from Aragon. When the Maurs were expell'd Spain, their rich Commendaries were united to that Crown 1118

XVI. AVIS in Portugal. When ALPHONSO I. K. of Portugal took the City Lisbon and Evora from the Maurs 1147, he ſent thither ſeveral Heroes for its Defence, they aſſum'd the Title of St. MARY d'Evora, putting themſelves under the Protection of the Bleſſed VIRGIN. Soon after they were call'd d'Avis from a Caſtle on the Frontiers of Portugal, conquer'd from the Maurs, whither they tranſplanted themſelves. They were confirm'd by the Pope 1204, under the Rule of St. BENEDICT. They ſubmitted to the Order of Calatrava 1213, But in the Time of JOHN the 7th Grand-Maſter of Avis and King of Portugal, they revolted from Calatrava and never again ſubmitted to that Order, and when Portugal fell into the Hands of Philip II. King of Spain, the Order of AVIS was ſtill govern'd by the Statutes of Portugal. 1147

XVII. St. MICHAEL's WING in Portugal founded by the ſaid King Alphonſo 1165, or 1171, after his obtaining a notable Victory over the Maurs and Albara King of Seville; in which Battel, MICHAEL the Arch-Angel is ſaid to appear on the right Side of Alphonſo and fight againſt them. This Order is now out of uſe. 1165

XVIII. St. GEREON was inſtituted by the Emperor Frideric Barbaroſſa, others ſay by the Emperor Frideric II. and conſiſted only of the German Nation.

XIX. St. JULIAN de Pereyro or Alcantara. They were call'd de Pereyro from St. Julian de Pereyro a Town in Leon, where they had a Monaſtry built for them by Ferdinand II. King of Leon, who in his Diploma of their Privileges, dated 1176, call'd himſelf Protector of their Society. In the Approbation Bull of Pope ALEXANDER III. their chief is call'd Prior, but in that of Pope LUCIUS III. he is call'd Maſter. When they chang'd their Habitation they alter'd their Appellation. Pope ADRIAN VI. annex'd the Maſterſhip to the Crown of Caſtile for ever. 1176

THE

OF THE

BRITANNICK Iſles.

THE Names of Albion, Britannia and Jerne, aſcribed to theſe Iſlands of Britain and Ireland, are found in Greek Authors about the Time of Alexander the Great, and particularly in Polybius who flouriſhed before Chriſt about 220 Years, which Names were afterwards borrowed by the Romans. The firſt Inhabitants muſt needs come from the adjacent Continent, (as Iſlands were generally peopled) and the Poſterity of Japhet, who ſoon after the Diſperſion of the Nations from Shinar, which began A. M. 1810, before the Chriſtian Era 2194, travell'd Northward into Scythia and North-Weſt into Europe, ſoon reached even the Weſt Sea-Coaſts of Germany, France and Spain, from whence, at various Times, theſe Iſlands were peopled; and we find that alſo the Phœnicians, Carthaginians and Grecians, by their Navigation, helped to repleniſh the Sea-Coaſts of Britain, as of other Parts. So that theſe Iſlands were peopled not only by theſe Navigators, but eſpecially by the many diverſe Nations that had ſettled on the Weſtern Coaſt of Europe from the Straits of Denmark to the Straits of Gibraltar: But having no Writings, no Inſcriptions, no Hiſtory of the firſt Inhabitants, we are left to gather up ſome Hints of Knowledge from the Remains of the old Cimbri or Coimbri, and of the Celts or Gauls in the antique Languages of theſe Iſlands, and from Scrapes of the Exotic Poets and Hiſtorians; for to be ſure Julius Cæsar could give us no better Accounts than he had in his Commentaries; nay Tacitus that wrote about 140 Years after Cæsar, knew no more than he; for in his Life of Agricola, he ſays, " Moreover what Mortals firſt inhabited Britain, Natives, or Foreigners, is little " known, as uſual among barbarous Nations; their Complexions and Conſtitutions of Body are divers, and thence may ſome Conjectures be taken: " for the Golden Locks of the Inhabitants of Caledonia and their large Limbs and Joints declare their German Original; the colour'd Countenances of the Silures, with their Hair generally curled, beſides their Situation over againſt Spain, make us believe that the old Iberi or " Spaniards croſſed the Sea and poſſeſſed thoſe Parts. Thoſe neareſt to the Gauls are alſo like them, either by the Continuance of their Strength, " or Influence of their Origin; or that in Countries butting together, the ſame Poſition of Heaven affords the ſame Complexion of Body: And it is " generally believed that the Gauls poſſeſſed the Country of Britain next to them. For here you'll find the ſacred Rituals of the Gauls preſerved " by the Power of Superſtition, and the Gaulick Language not much different, the ſame Boldneſs in ruſhing upon or meeting Dangers, and when " Dangers come, the ſame Fear in declining them, ſave that the Britains are more fierce, being leſs mollify'd by long Peace. " So that before Cæsar's firſt Deſcent from Gaul upon Britain at Dover Cliff the Year before the Chriſtian Era 54, we know nothing of their Kings and Genealogies, the Story of Brutus and his Succeſſors being a ridiculous Fable, made by Jeoffrey of Monmouth, and juſtly renounced by all the wiſe Hiſtorians of England: Of thoſe fabulous Kings Lud is the laſt, who repaired London and is ſaid to have died before the ſaid Era 58 Years, whoſe Brother Caſſibelan, or Caſſivellaunus when Cæſar firſt came into Britain, was choſen by the Britons to be their Head or General againſt the Romans, as Cæſar teſtifies in his Commentaries; for we find from the Roman Hiſtories that contain the earlieſt Accounts of Britain, particularly from Cæſar's Commentaries and Cornelius Tacitus that the Iſland was under many petty Kings over their ſeveral Tribes or Clans, ſuch as this Caſſibelan over the People by the Romans call'd Trinobantes; ſo Cingetorix and Carvilia, Taximagulus and Segonax, four Rulers in Kent; Comius alſo a famous Ruler of the Atrebatij, whom Cæſar employed to teaſe and perſuade the Britons into a Subjection to Rome; likewiſe Caractacus the warlike King of the Silures, and Galgacus the brave and eloquent King of the Caledonians: Nay Women alſo, as Cartiſmandua Queen of the Brigantes and Boadicea the famous Queen of the Icenians; and the ancient Britons being partition'd into many Clanſhips, it is generally thought that each Clan had its proper Prince; nay 'tis juſtly ſaid that their Diſunion or Partition was the chief Means of their being conquer'd by the Romans, who could never have matched them united under the Command of one Prince. I think fit to place here John Speed's Table of the ancient Britons and the Places of their Abode according to Ptolemy, who are often mentioned in the Roman Writers.

TABLE CCCCLXXVII.

The Chronology of the Roman Lieutenants in Britain.

CAIUS JULIUS CÆSAR being deſirous to inlarge his Conqueſts and obſerving that the Gauls had been much ſupply'd againſt him by the Britons, intended to invade that Iſland. But the Summer being at an end, and deeming the Voyage dangerous, he ſent Caius Voluſenus as a Spy into Britain, and march'd himſelf to thoſe Parts in Gaul that lay oppoſite to the Iſland. The Britons being certified of Cæsar's Deſign ſent Embaſſadors to offer their Submiſſion, which he accepted of, and having ſettled his Affairs in Gaul, made his firſt Expedition into Britain with 25000 Foot and 4500 Horſe — Ante Chr. 54

The Place of his landing was at Deal in Kent, where he felt the Valour of theſe Britons. However he got the upper Hand, which made the Britons ſend a ſecond Embaſſy for Peace, promiſing Subjection: And obſerving the Loſs of 18 of Cæsar's Ships, they immediately revolted, but were again reduc'd and forc'd a third Time to ſue for Peace, which Cæsar granted and order'd the Hoſtages to follow him into Gaul. But perceiving that Hoſtages were ſent only from two of their Cities, He made his ſecond Invaſion in the ſame Place — 53

The Britons therefore committed the whole Management of their Affairs to Caſſibellane the Brother of King Lud, and he ſo bravely manag'd his Charge, that in the firſt Encounter, Q. Laberius a Military Tribune was ſlain; but the Britons being worſted in the next Engagement, each departed to their Provinces, and Cæsar made Caſſibellane and the other Kings in Kent to ſue for Peace, impos'd a Tribute of 3000 l. per Annum upon the Britons and order'd Hoſtages to be forthwith deliver'd, and then ſet ſail for Gaul in September that ſame Year, having made no Settlement on the Iſland. He was ſlain in the Senate Houſe — 44

Octavian AUGUSTUS ſucceeding Julius, Britain enjoy'd a long Peace, Kimbelin one of their Kings being the Emperor's Favourite; but tho' Octavian thrice intended an Expedition hither, yet by the Promiſes and Preſents of the Britons and the Revolt of the Biſcaians, he was diverted. He † — A.D. 14

TIBERIUS Nero ſucceeded Augustus, but kept not ſo much as a Garriſon in Britain. He † — 37

Caius CALIGULA ſucceeded Tiberius, and intended to invade Britain, but came no farther than Holland, where he ſuddenly pitch'd his Tents and ſtaid. He † — 41

CLAUDIUS Drusus ſucceeded, and perceiving that the Tribute of the Britains had been long neglected, ſent his Lieutenant Aulus Plautius with an Army to Britain — 42

Where landing he captivated Catacratus their Captain, the Son of Cunobelin; which made the Boduni, the Inhabitants of Oxford and Glouceſterſhire to ſubmit to Plautius, who by the Aid of Veſpaſian, afterwards Emperor, purſued his Victory until Togodumnus Brother of Catacratus was ſlain. The Britons then growing deſperate oblig'd Plautius to ſend to the Emperor for more Aid. — 43

CLAUDIUS then invaded Britain in Perſon, diſarm'd the Britons without confiſcating the Eſtates of the Nobility, which ſo gain'd the Love of the People that they honour'd him like a God. Then he return'd in Triumph to Rome leaving

I. Aulus Plautius his firſt Lieutenant, who was recall'd and ſucceeded by

II. P. Ostorius Scapula who conquer'd the Britons, captivated Caractacus King of the Silures or South Wales, who was betray'd by Cratiſmandua Queen of the Brigantes — 48

But Ostorius's Fortune began to decline, and the Silures taking Heart gave the Romans a great Rout, which ſo griev'd Ostorius that he † — 55

III. Aulus Didius was then ſent Lieutenant to Britain on the Death of Ostorius and kept the Silures a little in Awe.

IV. Verannius his Succeſſor † the firſt Year of his Government, and was ſucceeded by

V. Paulus Suetonius who firſt conquer'd the Iſle of Angleſey, and during his Abode there, Praſutagus King of the Iceni at his Death made Nero his Heir, thinking thereby to ſtrengthen his Kingdom; but the Roman Centurions ſcourg'd his Wife Queen Boadicea, deflower'd his Daughters and ruin'd his Subjects, which Barbarity caus'd a general Revolt of the Britons, who under the Conduct of this Queen, in a few Days ſlew 70000 Romans in ſeveral Places — 61

Suetonius being inform'd of this Diſaſter haſted from Angleſea, and chooſing an advantagious Poſt diſcomfited and ſlew 80000 Britons, at which Boadicea poiſon'd herſelf — 62

Suetonius after this growing ſo great was oblig'd to give up the Government to

VI. Petronius Turpilianus who had lately reſign'd the Conſulſhip. He alſo gave up this Charge to

VII. Trebellius Maximus, who, when the Civil Wars broke out between the Emperors OTTO and VITELLIUS, join'd VITELLIUS, who coming to the Empire — 70

VIII. Vectius Bolanus was ſent to Britain. He was a Man of no great Parts in War, but more temperate than his Predeceſſor. But when VESPASIAN was made Emperor — 70

IX. Petilius Cerealis was ſent into Britain and there he worſted the Brigantes and reduc'd their Country to the Subjection of the Roman Yoke. He was ſucceeded by — 77

X. Julius Agricola who had been Quæſtor, Tribune, Prætor and Lieutenant in Aquitain, and his Lieutenantſhip in Britain was render'd the more illuſtrious by Julius Frontinus conquering the Silures. The firſt Action of Agricola was his ſubduing the Ordovices, who had cut off ſome of the Roman Garriſons that were adjacent to them. Next he ſubdued the Iſland Mona or Man, and mightily ingratiated himſelf with the People by his Hoſpitality, and made the Britons imitate the Romans in Eloquence and Buildings and greatly civiliz'd them. In the 3d Year of his Government he enlarg'd his Dominions as far as the Frith of Taus or Tweed, — 81

He defeated Galgacus a Caledonian Prince, at the Mount Grampius in Perthſhire, under whom the Britons made the laſt Effort to recover their Liberty, and fortify'd the Barriers between the Clyde and Forth to keep out the Caledonians or Picts. From that Time Britain was generally known to be an Iſland, and was eſteem'd a Roman Province — 84

XI. Salustius Lucullus, who was ſoon put to Death by DOMITIAN for making Spears and calling them Lucullians — 92

After the Death of the Emperor DOMITIAN ſeveral Records were loſt, and therefore during the Reigns of Nero and Trajan we cannot tell what Roman Governors were in this Iſle, only the Engliſh Hiſtorians from Geoffrey of Monmouth bring a Succeſſion of Britiſh Kings, of whom in the next Table.

XII. Cneius Trebellius the laſt Lieutenant on Record, flouriſh'd in the time of the Emperor ADRIAN; but being unable to govern his Soldiers, who became divided among themſelves, the more Northern Britons began to raiſe ſome Commotions. To ſuppreſs which

XIII. Julius Severus was ſent; but he was recall'd into Syria before he could ſettle the Affairs of Britain. Theſe Stirs ſtill continuing the Emperor

ADRIAN therefore came in Perſon to Britain, and having recover'd ſuch Holds as had been taken from the Romans, he built a Wall 80 Miles in length between Newcaſtle on the Tyne and Carlile on the E[illegible], and ſo thought fit to abandon all the inland Countries from Northumberland to Caledonia, and fix'd the Bounds of his Province 80 Miles farther South than Agricola had plac'd them. After this the Southern Britons patiently ſubmitted, and Adrian went triumphantly to Rome, commit the Britannick Affairs to his Lieutenant — 121

XIV. Licinius Priscus, Pro-Prætor in Britain in the Reign of ANTONINUS PIUS, in the beginning of whoſe Reign the Northern Britons began to rebel, againſt whom

XV. Lollius Urbicus Lieutenant under the ſaid ANTONINUS bended his Force, and having after ſome Skirmiſhes reduc'd them, he built a Wall in the ſame Place where Agricola had firſt plac'd his Barrier, fortified, doubtleſs, with Caſtles or Stone Work — 158

He next quell'd the Inſurrections of the Brigantes, and for his Services in Britain he obtain'd the Surname of Britannicus. After Lollius the Emperor MARCUS AURELIUS ſent

XVI. Calphurnius Agricola into Britain, whoſe very Surname ſtopt the Britons from making any Alterations, they remembring the Conqueſts of Julius Agricola.

Continuation.

Continuation of TABLE CCCCLXXVII.

In the Time of the Emperor Commodus the Mæats and Caledonians brake through the Wall, kill'd the Roman General, ſlew many of the Soldiers and ravag'd the Country wherever they went, which the Emperor perceiving ſent

A. D.

XVII. Ulpius Marcellus, who with great Difficulty forc'd them back beyond the Wall 183

He reviv'd the ancient Diſcipline of the Army; but his Juſtice and Virtue procur'd him the Envy of the Emperor, who fearing he ſhould grow too high ſent him his Diſcharge, whereupon the Army fell into a Mutiny, refuſing to acknowledge Commodus for their Sovereign. Then 188

XVIII. Helvius Pertinax was ſent, and at firſt us'd the Soldiers ſo roughly that they again mutiny'd, and he venturing his Perſon too far was knock'd down and left for dead; but afterwards proceeding with more Prudence, he compos'd theſe Commotions, and ſeverely puniſh'd the principal Offenders; but knowing he was hated by all, and fearing his own Life, he therefore ſued the Emperor for his Diſcharge, and was ſucceeded by

XIX. Clodius Albinus, who for his high Birth and other Qualifications was honour'd with the Title of Cæsar by the Emperor COMMODUS, who underſtanding that Clodius affected the Senators more than the Emperor, he in all Haſte ſent

XX. Julius Severus to take the Charge of the Army, and Albinus retir'd from all publick Affairs until the Death of Commodus, when 192
Albinus was reſtor'd, and after the Murder of the Emperor Pertinax, cauſ'd to be ſtamp'd his own Statue and Image on the Coin, and endeavour'd to make himſelf Emperor, but was with the Flower of Britain ſlain in the Battel of Lions againſt the Emperor Sep. Severus 198

XXI. Heraclianus was after this ſent to keep the South Britons in quiet. Of him little is on Record.

XXII. Virius Lupus was ſent to the North Parts, where he had two ſorts of Perſons to deal with, viz. the Mæats and Caledonians, a fierce and valiant People, and finding himſelf unable to ſuppreſs them, nay being forc'd to buy his Peace with Money, he was oblig'd to entreat the Emperor SEVERUS to come in Perſon, which accordingly he did 208

And having ſubdued the Mæats and over-run the Caledonians, he forc'd them to a Peace. Then he built a Wall in Northumberland from Sea to Sea, in order to ſettle the Barriers of the Roman Province; which was only the old Wall that Adrian rebuilt and fortified 210

See Innes's Antiquities of Scotland from Page 13 to 21. But SEVERUS had ſcarce return'd to York, when firſt the Caledonians, and then the Mæats, ſhook off the Yoke, and the Emperor † ſoon after there. Ziphilin from Dio gives ground to think that in the Time of Severus there were two Provinces in Britain, the Superior and the Inferior 211

The Emperor CARACALLA left the Mæats as well as the Caledonians at Liberty and return'd to Rome, and from that Time the Caledonians poſſeſs'd a part of the Mæats Lands, or rather being united to the Mæats, ſhar'd in their Poſſeſſions to the South of the Frith till THEODOSIUS reduc'd that Country, as below; during which Time we cannot enumerate the Roman Governors in Britain, but muſt therefore be content with ſome Scrapes of Hiſtory relative to the Romans there. In the Reign of the Emperor ANTONY GORDIANUS who began A. D. 238. 238

Nonnius Philippus was Lieutenant General of Britain, as appears from an Altar Stone found in Cumberland at a Place call'd then Caſtra Exploratorum [ſince old Carliſle] with an Inſcription for the Health of the Emperor, the Empreſs and all his Family, ſet up by Aemilius Criſpinus who was Captain of Horſe under this Nonnius 243

The Birth of CONSTANTIN the Great, Son of Constantius and Helena Daughter of Coilus a Britannic Prince was the next remarkable Thing on Record in the Affairs of Britain. After which we are in the Dark till the Time of the Emperor 270

PROBUS, when the Britannick Governor (thought to be Corn. Lælianus) rais'd ſome Diſturbances. But Victorinus the Favourite of PROBUS being allow'd by the Emperor to go into Britain, was courteouſly receiv'd by Laelianus, whom he ungratefully ſlew in the Night Time: yet thereby he appeas'd the Troubles in the Britiſh Province, and was more the Favourite of the Emp. who is ſaid to have ſent certain Vandals and Burgundians to inhabit Britain about this Time 277

And the Britons themſelves were allow'd to plant Vines and make Wine at Pleaſure. 278

In the Reign of DIOCLESIAN

Carausius a Menapian of low Parentage being appointed Admiral by the Romans to guard the Britiſh Seas from the Saxon Pyrates, greatly enrich'd himſelf by compounding with them. Upon this MAXIMIANUS the Collegue of DOMITIAN fearing his Greatneſs ſent ſecretly to ſlay him. Carausius then ſeeing his Life at Stake, was perſuaded that Death was but Death, as well to Prince as Subject, and therefore by the Aid of the Picts, the conſtant Enemies of the Romans, he aſſum'd the Purple and proclaim'd himſelf Emperor 287

Maximian then march'd to the Britannic Ocean with a great Army, but underſtanding the Power of his Enemy, and being unprovided for the Sea-Service, ſent Carausius Offers of Peace, and return'd againſt the Batavians.

Carausius then rul'd the Province with unſtain'd Reputation, repair'd the Wall between the Clyde and Forth near the River Caron, 289 and fortified the ſame with 7 Caſtles. But his noble Government was brought to a Period, for he was murder'd by the Treaſon of his familiar Friend, viz. 294

Alectus, who put upon himſelf the Royal Purple and aſſum'd the Title of Emperor. Upon this Constantius Chlorus determin'd the Recovery of Britain, where he landed his Army and fir'd his Ships that there might be no Way of Eſcape. Alectus, who had waited to intercept his landing alſo forſook the Sea, and meeting unawares with Aſclepiodotus Duke of Cornwall and Great Seneſchal of the Prætorium, he fought at Random, and was among others ſlain, ſome ſay 295, but others 297

Thus Britain was again reduc'd to its Obedience to the Romans, and the Emperor

CONSTANTINE the Great, who was the firſt Chriſtian Emp. as Lucius was the firſt Chriſtian King, partition'd Britain into 3 Provinces, viz. 1. The Inland Parts of Britain rul'd by the Earl-Lieutenant of Britain, who had with him 7 Companies of Foot Men, and 9 Coronets and Troops of Horſe. 2. The Maritime Parts defended by Amianus the Earl-Lieutenant of the Saxon Coaſts, who had with him 7 Companies of Foot-Men, two Guidons of Horſemen, the 2d Legion, and one Cohort. 3. The 38 Garriſon Forts defended by the Duke or General of Britain, having with him 14000 Foot and 900 Horſe. This Partition was made 312

From Rufus Feſtus who wrote under the Emp. Valentinian I. we find that Constantin the Great partition'd Britain into four Provinces, 1. Britannia prima. 2. Britennia ſecunda. 3. Flavia Cæſarienſis. 4. Maxima Cæſarienſis.

After which 3 Britiſh Biſhops were deputed to go to the Council of Arles in France 314

Upon the Death of CONSTANTIN the Great the Empire devolv'd on his 3 Sons Constantin, Constantius and Constans 337

Constantin was ſlain at Aquileja Anno 340, and then Constans join'd his Provinces to his own, and with his Brother Constantius came into Britain in the Winter Time, as appears by the Words of Julius Firmius 340

And was ſoon after ſlain by Magnentius, one of his Captains, as he was hunting 350

This Magnentius then inveſted himſelf with the Imperial Dignity over the revolted Provinces of France, Spain and Britain, and named his Brother Decentius Caeſar; but finding himſelf unable to ſupport his own Grandeur, murder'd himſelf at Lyons, as his Brother did with a Halter at the ſame Place upon the News 353

Gracianus an Hungarian at this Time was General of the Romans in Britain, but giving Entertainment to Magnentius was confiſcated of all his Goods by the Emperor Constantius, to whom the Britons ſubmitted themſelves. Tho'

Martin was made Deputy, yet the Emp. CONSTANTIUS ſent Paulus a Spaniard into Britain to apprehend them that had aided Magnentius, who exerciſing ſuch Cruelty, Martin reprov'd him. Upon this Paulus endeavour'd to bring Martin before the Council, who was thereby ſo incens'd, that he attempting to ſtab Paulus he was wounded himſelf with his Dagger, but the Wound not being mortal he ſtabb'd the Dagger into his own Side and preſently died. After this the Scots and Picts invaded the Marches of the Britons, and much diſturb'd their Peace; whereupon

Lupicinus Colonel of the Infantry and Maſter of the Armory was ſent as Deputy to Britain, but what was his Succeſs is not recorded. However theſe Nations ſo much harraſs'd the Roman Province in the Days of VALENTINIAN the Emperor that he ſent 367

Theodosius againſt them. He coming upon them ſuddenly put them to flight, and having recover'd the debateable Lands between the two Walls, erected them into a new Roman Province, which he call'd Valentia. Theodosius to ſecure this new Province for ever to the Empire again fortified the Frontiers and plac'd Garriſons to defend them againſt the northern Nations and then return'd to the Imperial Court. After this 378

Maximus, a Spaniard by Birth, deſcended lineally from CONSTANTIN the Great, was made General of the Romans in Britain and gain'd the Affections of the Britons to join him, and acquitted himſelf ſo well that the Soldiers forc'd him to aſſume the Purple, 382

Maximus went into Gaul with all the Strength of the Britiſh Forces, was join'd by the German Army, and then accounting himſelf abſolute Monarch, named his Son Victor Caeſar, and eſtabliſh'd his Throne at Triers. GRATIAN went againſt him with a great Power, but after 5 Days Skirmiſhings was forſaken by his own Men and forc'd to ſue to Maximus for Peace, which he granted in Appearance, but got Andragathius treacherouſly to ſlay him 833

VALENTINIAN II. who had been the Aſſociate of Gratian, fearing the like Fate, march'd his Forces as far as Aquileja, where Maximus was defeated and taken, and then beheaded by the Common Executioner, and Andragathius drown'd himſelf 388

Stilico after this ſignaliz'd himſelf in Britain againſt the Invaſions of the Scots and Picts, who had got looſe again and were deſtroying the Britiſh Provinces. He therefore fortified the Marches againſt them 398

And after his Departure he ſent over Forces to guard theſe Frontiers, and they continued till he recall'd them before the Battel of Polentium, and ſo left the Provinces a Prey to their Enemies 402

The Britons therefore invited the Romans to come to their Aid, who having beat the Scots and Picts out of the Roman Provinces, order'd the Britons to repair their Walls between the Friths of Clyde and Forth 421

But they being unſkilful in that kind of Structure, built it more of Turf than of Stone and ſo prov'd of little Uſe to defend them from being haraſs'd by the ſaid Scots and Picts, which therefore oblig'd them again to ſolicite the Aid of the Roman Forces 426

Who coming under the Command of Gallio, ſlew great Numbers of the Scots and Picts and put the reſt to flight; and having thus reſcued the Britons, they told them that they could aid them with no more Forces, having Uſe for them all againſt the Incurſions of the Northern Nations, and therefore deſir'd them to take Arms themſelves, and train up their People to military Diſcipline; and to encourage them, the Romans cauſ'd a ſtately Wall to be built, not of Turf, as the former, but of Stone 8 Foot broad and 12 Foot high, commonly call'd the Picts Wall. It was built in the ſame Place where Severus formerly built his Wall. And the Romans then wholly left this Iſland after their firſt Invaſion 480 Years.

11. LLEWELLIN III. the laſt Sovereign Prince of Wales of the [illegible]. He was ſlain in the Battel of Bueth 1282, and his Head was put on a Pole, crown'd with an Ivy Crown [illegible] in Triumph thro' London. Thus ended the Line of the Princes of North-Wales, by the Arms of King EDWARD I. who, to keep that Country under Subjection, rewarded many Engliſh Barons and Gentlemen with ſeveral Welch Eſtates. Then he partition'd Wales into 7 Shires, and over each he plac'd an Engliſh Lieutenant; but finding the Welch quite averſe from Engliſh Government, He ſent for his Wife to Caernarvon in Wales, where ſhe was deliver'd of a Son. upon the News whereof the King aſſembled the Welch Lords and offer'd to name them a Governor born in Wales which could not ſpeak one Word of Engliſh, and whoſe Life none could find Fault with. When they had ſworn to obey ſuch an one, he nam'd his young Son Edward, ſince which Time the eldeſt Sons of the Kings of England have been call'd Princes of Wales. But notwithſtanding this pretty Stratagem, the Welch ſoon began to repent of their Conceſſion, and tho' in the Reign of King Edward II. their Native Prince, they made no publick Stir, nor in the Reign of his warlike Son Edward III. yet in the Reign of Richard II. they were ready for a Revolt and diſcover'd it in the following Reign of Henry IV. for under Pretence of reſtoring King Richard II. they took up Arms with Owen Glendour at their Head, who by the Aid of the Scots under Earl Douglaſs and of the Malecontent Engliſh under Henry Hotſpur, Glendour doubted not of obtaining the Sovereignty of Wales, for which he pleaded hereditary Right. But King Henry IV. bravely defeated them in the Battel of Shrewſbury A. D. 1403, and afterwards forced Glendour to the Deſerts, where he was ſtarved to Death.

David, after his Brother was taken, again began the Wars and took the Caſtle de Cliſſa on Palm-Sunday 1282, but he was at laſt captivated, and was hang'd, headed and quarter'd in Cheapſide 1284 by order of K. Edward I.

This Defeat was followed with a bloody Execution of the principal Perſons concern'd in the Confederacy; and we read not of any particular Welch Nobleman that ſtood up to avenge his Country's Wrong, or to aſſert his own Right to that ancient Sovereignty: Nay in a little Time it was almoſt forgot; for Owen Theodore or Tudor, a mighty handſom and gallant young Gentleman, deſcended from the ancient Kings and Princes of Wales, came to the Court of King Henry V. and upon that King's Death Anno 1422, his Widow Queen Catharin (Daughter of Charles VI. King of France) fell in Love with Mr. Tudor, married him, and bore to him Edward Tudor Earl of Richmond, the Father of Henry VII. King of England, which made all the People of Wales very eaſy as to Sovereignty, for they looking on the King of England as their Countryman, affectionately ſubmitted to his Adminiſtration, whoſe Son Henry VIII. added five Shires to the former Number and united Wales to England.

He first remitted the Tribute of Danes-Gilt, which mightily endear'd him to his People; He next collected the most wholesome Laws of his Predecessors into one Body, which is the Origin of the English Common Law. He was the first who undertook to cure the Evil by a Touch, He rebuilt St. Peter's in Westminster. He left the Kingdom by Will to William Duke of Normandy, and † 4 Jan. 1066, and was buried the 7th at Westminster, leaving no Issue behind him.

He discomfited the Norwegians who had landed at Richill commanded by Harfagar and his Brother Tosta whom he slew: but he had quite different Success at the Invasion of WILLIAM Duke of Normandy in Sept. 1066, for 14 Oct. WILLIAM and HARALD came to an Engagement at Hastings, wherein HARALD was slain, and his Army entirely defeated, and thus the Norman Kings began.

TABLE CCCCXC.

The Genealogy of the Norman KINGS of ENGLAND.

THE NORMANS call'd from their first Situation in the Northern Parts of Europe, Nordmans or Men of the North, and Nordleudi the Northern People, a mixt Nation of the bravest Norwegians, Swedes and Danes, who turn'd Pirates and Sea Rovers about Anno 800; for in the publick Litanies of the Church this was added, From the Rage of the Normans, Good LORD deliver us. Some of these settled in Neustria in France, from them called Normandy, and came to be distinguish'd from the Danes and the other Northern Rovers. They seem to have come most from Norway and Denmark, probably of a Gothick Original, because we find those planted in France had the same Form of Government as the Goths in all other Nations: So that in reality the Normans were but a 2d Edition of the other Gothick Nations, the Saxons and Danes, who had invaded Britain before.

GODFREY the Norman D. of Frisia quarrelling with France Anno 885 was invited by the Emperor Charles the Gross to a Conference at an Island on the Rhine, where he was massacred with all his Normans; which so enrag'd their Fellows, that under SIGEFROY they enter'd the Seine with 700 Barks and an incredible Number of other Vessels, and the City of Paris standing in their Way endur'd a 3 Years Siege, till the Emperor was forc'd to come in Person to its Relief; which he effected rather by Gold than Steel. Afterwards they receiv'd a great Overthrow 889, by the Emperor Arnold who killed such Numbers of them that a Bridge was made over the Meuse with the Bodies of the slain. After this Historians give us an Account of ROLLO the first Duke of Normandy, whose Genealogy is here exhibited thus.

Mean while Audley's Rebellion was suppress'd. At last by a Treaty with Scotland PERKIN was oblig'd to leave that Kingdom, and was at last taken and hang'd at Tyburn 23 Nov. 1499. The King extorted much Money from his Subjects 1504, at last † at Richmond 21 April 1509, and left in his Treasury 1800000 l. He was buried at Westminster.

The Reformation going on, HENRY obtain'd from the Pope the Title of Defender of the Faith, for writing a Book against Luther 1521, who answer'd the said Book. The Affair of Catharin's Divorce began in Dec. 1527, when HENRY sent for it to the Pope, who, notwithstanding his Promises, trifled and delay'd it; but HENRY laying it before his Parliament 1531, they condemn'd all the Clergy by the Statute of Præmunire, and enacted the King to be Supreme Head of the Church, who burnt 3 Men for Religion, and 23 May Cranmer and his Clergy pronounc'd HENRY's first Marriage with Catharin altogether unlawful, and 7 Sept. 3 Months and a half after this, Princess ELIZABETH was born. But HENRY assenting to the Accommodation of K. Francis I. the Bp of Paris was sent with the Articles to Rome, to which the Pope promis'd his Compliance, if K. James the Great Marquis of Montrose was first interr'd at the Place of Execution, but upon the Restoration he was by Royal Authority solemnly buried in the Abbey of the Palace of Holy-Rood-House among the Kings, and by the printed Account of it, the Arms of Athol were on the Escutcheons of his Maternal Line, from Jannet of Athol, the said Lady Methven; instead of which the Arms of King HENRY VII. of England had been there, if his Grand-Mother Dorothy had been the Daughter of Queen MARGARET Tudor by Lord Methven, as Dr. Burnet late Bishop of Sarum in his posthumous History affirms, without Ground; saying further, That John Earl of Gowrie and his Brother Alexander were cut off for being too nearly related to the Crown of England but that their younger Brother escap'd beyond Sea and left two Sons and a Daughter; that the Sons died without Issue, but that the Daughter was the Wife of Sir Antony Van Dyke the famous Painter, which is all a mere Fable; for that Dorothy the Mother of the said Earl of Gowrie was truly the Daughter of Lord Methven by Jannet of Athol and not by Queen MARGARET Tudor. See Crawford's Peerage of Scotland, Title Methven.

The Protector won the Battel of Musselbrough against the Scots 10 Sept. After which follow'd a general Visitation of Churches, and upon the meeting of the Parliament many Acts were made for carrying on the Reformation, and Dr. Cranmer &c. compos'd a new Liturgy 1548. The Protector built Somerset House 1549, and this Year the Anabaptists came out of Germany into England. Next Year the Reformation was still carried on, the Coin was reformed and Trade encourag'd. And next Year a Body of Articles containing the Doctrine of the Church of England, were compos'd in 42 Articles, afterwards reduc'd to 39. At last the young K. upon his Death Bed was prevail'd upon for the securing the Protestant Religion to declare the Lady JANE Grey his Successor; and † 6 July 1553, a Prince of a Pregnancy of Judgment far above his Years, and of wonderful Improvement in Learning for his Age. He was buried at Westminster.

XLIII. MARY Tudor bn 8 Feb. 1515. She defeated the Party of Lady JANE Grey, whom she beheaded, and succ. her Br. EDWARD 1553, and abolish'd all the Acts made in his Reign about Religion. She defeated Wyat's Rebellion 1554, when she imprison'd her Sister the Princess ELIZABETH and depos'd the reformed Bishops. Cardinal Pool arriv'd in England and reconcil'd the Nation to the Roman See in November. And the most remarkable Things of this Reign afterwards were the Barbarities us'd to the Protestants of all Denominations and Sexes, too tedious here to insert. The English enter'd into an Alliance with Spain against France, and the Queen sent over 8000 Men to aid the Spaniards in the Netherlands 1557. HENRY II. King of France therefore besieg'd Calais under the Command of the Duke of Guise, which not being well garison'd he took in a few Days, after it had been in the Hands of the English 210 Years. Upon her Sister's Accession to the Throne she was falsely accus'd of Confederacy in Wyat's Rebellion, and by the Malice of Stephen Gardiner Lord Chancellor was committed to the Tower in March, and continued there till May 1554, when she was remov'd to Woodstock, and from thence to Hampton Court, Queen MARY's Residence, who dying 17 November 1558, Princess ELIZABETH was with universal Acclamations proclaim'd Queen, and King Philip proposed to marry her, but was rejected. She was crown'd 13 January 1558. The Parliament met 25 January, recogniz'd her Title to the Crown, re-enacted her Supremacy, and abolish'd all the Acts made in the Reign of Queen MARY for establishing the Popish Religion Anno 1560. A Peace was concluded between England, France and Scotland, and several Matches were propos'd to the Queen, but in vain. She aided the French Protestants 1562, and receiv'd Havre de Grace as a Cautionary Town. The 39 Articles of Religion were establish'd by Convocation 1563, and Havre de Grace was surrender'd to the French. The Queen was again in vain address'd to marry 1566. The Duke of Norfolk was committed to the Tower for attempting to marry the Queen of Scotland 1569, and next Year Queen ELIZABETH was excommunicated by the Pope, and the Duke of Norfolk was releas'd Anno 1571. A Match was propos'd to Queen ELIZABETH by the Duke of Alençon, afterwards Duke of Anjou, and next Year the Duke of Norfolk was executed. The French Court propos'd Alençon's Marriage with the Queen 1573. She aided the Dutch against the King of Spain 1577. The Queen sent 6000 Men to aid the Dutch 1585, and receiv'd the Brill and Flushing as Cautionary Towns. She sign'd a Warrant for executing MARY Queen of Scotland 1587, and next Year she totally routed the Spanish Armada. The Earl of Essex the Queen's Favourite turning insolent, the Queen stroke him 1598, and being suspected of Designs against the Government was beheaded 1601. HENRY VI. of Windſor King of England 1422, was crown'd at Paris by his Uncle John Duke of Bedford 7 December 1431. He was depos'd by EDWARD Duke of York 1461, murder'd in the Tower by the bloody Richard Duke of Gloceſter 1472.

EDMUND TUDOR Earl of Richmond married Margaret Somerſet the Great Grand-Daughter of John of Gaunt. See Table 492.

CHARLES VIII. King of France 1483, † without ſurviving Iſſue 1498, and was ſucceeded by his Siſter's Husband LEWIS XII. King of France the Great Grandſon and Male Heir of King CHARLES V. Table 381, who was ſucc. by his Couſin FRANCIS I. whoſe Son was HENRY II. the Father of 3 Kings viz. FRANCIS II, CHARLES IX. and HENRY III. But they leaving no Male Iſſue, and their Siſter being married to HENRY of Bourbon King of Navarre, He ſucceeded to the Crown of France and was call'd HENRY IV. and was the firſt King of the Houſe of Bourbon. He was the Father of LEWIS XIII. the Father of LEWIS XIV. the Great Grandfather of LEWIS XV. the preſent King.

HENRY VII. King of England. See the laſt Table. After his Family became extinct in England, the Great Grand-Son of his eldeſt Daughter MARGARET Queen of Scotland, viz. K. JAMES VI. of Scotland ſucceeded as King JAMES I. of Great Britain, whoſe only Da. ELIZABETH Queen of Bohemia was the Mother of the Princeſs SOPHIA the Mother of King GEORGE I. the Father of his preſent Majeſty GEORGE II. King of Great Britain, France and Ireland.

N. B. The French ſay that the Engliſh Claim to the Crown of France is very fooliſh, eſpecially where the Salique Law prevails. 1. Becauſe Charles Count of Valois Brother of King PHILIP IV. had a Son who legally came to be King of France, call'd PHILIP VI. the firſt of the Valeſian Race. 2. Allowing the Crown of France to be entail'd upon Heirs in general, Male or Female, even in that Caſe EDWARD III. Son of ISABEL Queen of England had not ſo good a Claim as the numerous Offspring of her two Brothers King LEWIS X. and King PHILIP V. So that King EDWARD III. being a very ambitious and heroic Prince, only made uſe of that Pretenſion and ſham Claim (of his Mother's being alive after her three Brothers were dead) to raiſe War and conquer France, the true Cauſe of that War.

TABLE CCCCXCVI.

The Original of the Maeats, and of the Caledonians or Picts.

THE moſt antient Inhabitants of the Britannic Iſles ſeem to be Colonies of the Celtick Gauls, who at various Times ſail'd over and ſettled here, as appears by the Accounts of them preſerv'd by the Roman Hiſtorians, particularly Julius Caeſar and Tacitus; and theſe Gauls, or ancient Britons, did in Time gradually fill the Country; ſo that long before the Roman Invaſions, the Northern Parts of the Iſland were inhabited by them under as various Names and Subdiviſions in Proportion as the Southern Parts. But their more general Denominations were the Mæats, and Caledonians or Picts, as diſcover'd by the Romans in their Northern Wars. As for the Scots, the Time of their firſt coming into Britain is much diſputed among learned Antiquaries, and therefore before I ſpeak of them I ſhall firſt diſcuſs the Mæats, and Caledonians or Picts, becauſe they ſeem to be the moſt ancient Inhabitants or the Aborigines.

The MÆATS or Midland Britons inhabited the debateable Lands between the two Roman Walls, viz. that in Northumberland and that between the Friths of Clyde and Forth, and according to antique Teſtimonies it appears that they had a Kingdom of their own call'd Regnum Cambrenſe, or Cumbrenſe, extending on the Weſtern Coaſts from the Northern to the Southern Walls; and that the Capital of the Kingdom was that impregnable Caſtle call'd Alcluyd, or Areclud, or Petra Cloythe, now Dunbritton or Dumbarton. (See Joceline's Life of St. Mungo or Kentegern and the Chartulary of Glaſgow) and that They had their own Kings and Princes till the Norman Invaſion, is evident from theſe and other Teſtimonies; for Mabillon in his Life of St. Gildas, from a MS. of the Library of Fleury, records, that in the fifth Age

> Gyldas was born at Arclyd or Dunbritton, and was the Son of CAUNUS or NAVUS King of that Country, which CAUNUS was ſucceeded by his Son Hoel.

In the 6th Age Joceline ſays that St. Mungo, being ill us'd by MARKEN or MARCUS, K. of the Maeats, retir'd to Wales, where he remain'd until he return'd to Glaſgo at the Invitation of the pious REDERIC or RODERIC, one of the Succeſſors of MARKEN. This REDERIC was the Son of Tothail and the particular Friend of St. Columba and reign'd at Dunbritton. Langhorn gives us a Series of ſeven or eight of the Succeſſors of REDERIC down to DUMMAEL who reign'd about the middle of the tenth Century; but tho' that Succeſſion may be debated, yet better Authority aſſures us that the Britons poſſeſs'd Alcluyd or Dunbritton till A. D. 756, when Edbert King of Bernicia or Northumberland and Oengus King of the Picts took it from them on Conditions. Afterwards this Country of Clydeſdale and Galloway became a Prey to the Picts, Danes, Scots and Saxons; and tho' the Mixture of ſo many Nations, with their daily inteſtine Wars, oblig'd many of the Inhabitants to retire elſewhere, yet many of thoſe Mæats or Midland Britons, then called Welch or Walenſes, continued in or near Clydeſdale, Galloway and other Weſtern Countries of the Dioceſs of Glaſgo, and were known there by that Name in the 12th Century, tho' ſubject to the Kings of Scotland, as is evident from ſome authentick Charters of K. MALCOLM IV. and King WILLIAM the Lion. But ſince that Time there is no mention of the Walenſes as a diſtinct People, They being ſo incorporated with the reſt of the Inhabitants of the Country, that in proceſs of Time They were call'd by the common Name of Scots. But that hinders not great Numbers of them being originally Britons, and perhaps more of them of a Britiſh than of a Scotiſh Extraction; for the firſt Inhabitants were not extirpated.

The CALEDONIANS who preſerv'd their Liberty againſt all the Power of the Roman Empire at the height of its Grandeur were not a foreign People come in upon more ancient Inhabitants, but were the firſt known People of North Britain, and were the ſame with the Picts; for in Tacitus's Time they were able to diſpute their Right with the Romans; and tho' ſometimes they were worſted, yet they were neither deſtroy'd, nor their Country reduc'd into Provinces; nay, 20 Years after the Death of Severus, they were look'd upon as the moſt formidable Enemies of the Roman Empire in Britain; conſequently there was no Place for new Inhabitants to come in and people their deſert Country; and the Roman Hiſtorians of thoſe Times call the Caledonians and Picts the ſame People. 'Tis true they were not call'd by the Name of Picti or Picts, before the third Century by the Orator Eumenius; which induces the modern Hiſtorians to reckon them a new Colony; but the Reaſon of that Name was becauſe they continued the Cuſtom of Painting, even after the Southern Britons (under the Roman Juriſdiction and civiliz'd by the Roman Polity,) had left it off; and all the unconquer'd Britons receiv'd this Name of Picts from the Romans, to diſtinguiſh them from the provincial Britons; and it was given them about the 3d Century, becauſe then Severus enter'd Caledonia, and march'd his Army, tho' with incredible Loſs, to the utmoſt Bounds of Caledonia, and there obſerv'd that the Caledonians were all painted, a Cuſtom long exploded among the Provincial Britons. Some ſay, with Bede, that it was reported that they came from Scythia, or the Northern Parts of the Continent of Europe: but ſeeing Tacitus, in his Deſcription of Great Germany, comprehends under it all the Northern Nations in the European Continent, he differs from Bede in this Matter only in Name, both agreeing that the Caledonians came from the oppoſite Coaſts of the Northern Part of the European Continent. But theſe Authors founding this Opinion upon a Conjecture only (ut perhibent) I judge it more probable to think, that as the Southern Britons came gradually from the neareſt Coaſts of Gaul, ſo after they had peopled the Southerly Parts, they advanced to the more Northern, carrying along with them the ſame Cuſtoms and Language, deriv'd originally from the Celtes or Gauls. This Origin is confirm'd by Herodian, Dio and other Roman Writers. However, it is no wonder that the long habitation of the Romans among the Britons ſo alter'd their Cuſtoms and Language, that, after ſome Ages, the Caledonians and Picts were thought a People of a different Origin and Language, tho' originally the ſame. The Kingdom of the Picts extended Northward to the Extremities of the North of Scotland, eſpecially towards the Eaſt Coaſt, even to the Orcades and Dun Caledonian Ocean, or Pictland Frith, as it is called to this Day; but the Scots upon their firſt landing got Poſſeſſion the Weſtern Parts on the North Side of the Frith of Clyde, and the weſtern Iſlands. The South Territories of the Pictiſh Kingdom were anciently limited by the Friths of Clyde aud Forth, yet the Caledonians miſs'd no Opportunities of extending their DDominions over the Midland Britons in the debateable Lands, and took Poſſeſſion of the Eaſt-Coaſt about Anno 426, even to the Northumbrian Wall, (while the Maeats reign'd at Dunbritton and over all old Galloway towards the weſtern Coaſt) which remain'd tthe Bounds of this Kingdom till the coming in of the Saxons about Anno 449, who in Time ſubdued the Picts between the Walls until Anno 685, when Egfrid King of Northumberland invaded the Pictiſh Territories, but was ſlain, and totally routed by the Picts under the Conduct of their King BRUDE, Son of Bili. After this, They recover'd their Dominions South of the Friths: for we find that A. D. 710, they were advanc'd as far as Hefeld or Carehouſe near the Northumbrian Wall, and they became ſo powerful, that Alcred King of Northumberland ſhelter'd himſelf with NINIOD King of the Picts A.D. 774, Table 465; and when they were united to the Scots we find they poſſeſs'd all the Midland Territories from the Tweed to the Friths, and deſtroy'd the Kingdom of the Maeats.

The PICTS were anciently govern'd by Kings, but when that Form of Government commenc'd on their firſt Settlement in Caledonia, can no otherwiſe now be determin'd but by probable Conjecture; and altho' there be no Monuments to ſhew whether Caledonia was at firſt govern'd by one Monarch, or whether it was partition'd into little States, of which every one had its King, yet there ſeems to be no Ground to doubt that the initial Government of the Picts was Monarchical.

Thomas Innes A. M. of the Scots College at Paris, in his Critical Eſſay on the ancient Inhabitants of Scotland, has with great Judgment proved from the beſt Antiquaries of England, Scotland and Ireland, that the Caledonian or Pictiſh Kingdom was erected many Ages before the Romans invaded this Iſland, as will appear from the Catalogue of the Kings themſelves. Mr. Innes found a Manuſcript call'd Chronica de Origine Antiquorum Pictorum, written above 400 Years ago, which belong'd to Secretary Cecil Lord Burleigh, (whoſe Name is upon it written with his own Hand) which Camden peruſ'd: and when Cecil's Library was put to ſale, this Manuſcript, with ſeveral others, was bought by Order of the famous Monſieur Colbert Miniſter of State to LEWIS XIV, King of France, who employ'd Mr. Baluze to make his rich Collection of Manuſcripts, by whoſe Means Mr. Innes came to the Knowledge of it, and according to it has given us the Names of the Pictiſh Kings, both before and after they were converted to Chriſtianity, the beſt now extant, as follows.

Both the Abſtract and Copy of St. Andrew's have Drust Fil. Erp. or Urb. regn. or rexit C annis & C bella peregit, where there is a palpable Error in both theſe Copies in the Word regn. or rexit written for vixit. And Fordun adds, that he reign'd only 45 Years, to which if you add the Sum of his Succeſſors Reigns till the 9th Year of the Reign of Brude or Bride Son of Meilochon or Mailcon A. D 565 (which is the regulating Æra of the Reigns of theſe Kings) then we ſhall ſee that Drust began Anno 406, and ended 451, during which Time the Goſpel was firſt preach'd to the Picts by St. Ninian, and afterwards by St. Paladius to the Scots, and St. Patrick to the Iriſh between *A. 76. BRED or BRUDE the laſt in this Catalogue. But the Scots give a different Account of the Kings of the Picts, as in Tab. 501.	841	1

KENETH MAC ALPIN King of Scots became King of Picts by Succeſſion and Conqueſt, or the firſt King of All Scotland, ſee Table 501, for he and his Succeſſors are often call'd Kings of the Picts, which ſhews that the Picts were not all extirpated, as ſome Scotiſh Hiſtorians aſſert, but long after this are mention'd in the Wars as a People exiſting, particularly in old Galloway and the North, the Extremes of their ancient Kingdom. But in Time their Language was quite wore out (as That of the Old Scots is much wore out by the Language of the Saxons) and all the Inhabitants of Scotland being ſubject to the Scotiſh Kings, the Name of Picts was at laſt forgot; and many Families in Scotland cannot well prove whether they are of a Pictiſh or a Scotiſh Original.

Thus by ſumming up the Years of thoſe Pictiſh and Caledonian Kings, and allowing only 70 Years for the ſeven Sons of King Cruidne, becauſe they were Cotemporary, or the Years of his Son Forteim, we find CRUIDNE commenced his Reign before the Christian Era——962 } Before Fergus I.
Viz. In the 13th Year of Rehoboam King of Judah, or A. M.——3042 } 632 Years.
And this Kingdom ending A. D. 842, it appears to have laſted 1804 Years, till Kenneth Mac Alpin.
But ſee the Scotiſh Catalogue of the Pictiſh Kings in Table 501.

TABLE CCCCXCVIII.

The Origin of the SCOTS.

THIS is accounted for in three different Ways, viz.

I. According to ſome learned Highland Gentlemen of my Acquaintance, the SCOTS are deriv'd from the Phœnicians, who, under the Name of Celtes left Aſia very early aboard a great Navy, and landed in that part of Greece call'd Albania. Afterwards a Colony of them ſail'd up the Adriatick and peopled old Lombardy, where they got the Name of Gauls. From thence in time one Colony of 'em went and poſſeſs'd the Country on the Upper Banks of the Rhine, who afterwards got the Name of Franks or Freemen, for not having been conquer'd by the Romans: Another Colony of them ſettled among the Swiſs, and in the South Parts of preſent France, and ſtretch'd over the Pyrenean into Spain, and made a principal Settlement near the River Iber in preſent Aragon, who came therefore to be call'd Celtiberi: From whence they mov'd Weſtward towards the Coaſt of preſent Biſcaia, Gallicia and Portugal, under the Command of one GATHELUS. Nor was it long before a Colony of 'em from GATHELUS, (that took the Name of Clan o Gael, or the Progeny of GATHELUS) found means to ſail over to Ireland, call'd Hibernia and Erin properly, from the Iberi that firſt landed there; and from Ireland a Colony of the Celtiberi or Clan o Gael ſail'd over to the Weſtern Iſles of preſent Scotland, the Country of Ardgael or Argyle and Galloway, and the moſt part of the Weſt Coaſt, and call'd their Settlement Albin from old Albania, and themſelves Gael Albinich, as they in Ireland are call'd Gael Erinich. Their Language at this Day is much the ſame with that of the Province of Connaught, if not a purer Dialect of the old Celtick. Their Manuſcript Characters are like thoſe of the old Grecians; their Clothes and Armour are much the ſame as were uſed by the old Grecians and the Galli Braccati, afterwards imitated by the Romans. Their Bonnets and ſhort Jackets are ſtill us'd in Lombardy, and alſo in Calabria, where the Peaſants wear their Courans or rough Shoes without Heels and uſe their Pipes, Tunes and way of Dancing to this Day. Their Bonnets, and Skiens or Durks are ſtill us'd by the Languedocians, Petty Britonners, Biſcainers, the Spaniſh Miquelets and the Native Iriſh. The ancient Language of the Iſle of Man, of Wales, of Cornwall and Baſs Bretaign, are Dialects of the ſame Celtick Language and much akin to the old Albinich or Scots Language, which the Highlanders call Gaulick to this Day.

The Gael Albinich diſpers'd themſelves at firſt into Tribes, Clans, or Kindreds, without a King ſet over all the Country after the Patriarchal Manner, and their Offspring the Highlanders much retain the Cuſtom to this Day.

II. A ſhort Scots Chronicle in Latin Verſe ſubjoin'd to moſt of the Copies of the Scoti-Chronicon (written in the Reign of King Alexander II. who died A. D. 1249,) gives an Account of Queen SCOTA (from whom Scotia) the Wife of GATHELUS a noble Scythian, who came from Egypt to Spain with the Marble Chair, or JACOB's Stone on which he ſlept in the Field of Luz, and that in 1002 Years, after his Race had been much propagated in Spain, MILO King of the Spaniards, who had many great Sons, gave to his Son SIMON BREAC the ſaid Stone of GATHELUS or Gaizilglas as a ſpecial Preſent, foretelling to him that his Offspring ſhould reign wherever that Stone was plac'd, and Simon ſail'd with the Scots to Ireland, where, having ſtaid many Years, until the valiant Lorus brought a Colony of 'em over to Ergadia or Argyle A. M. 3561, or Before Chriſt 443, where this Nation flouriſh'd for many Years under the Law of Nature, and without a King, till a bold Man call'd FERGUS brought the foreſaid Stone to Argyle and became the firſt King of the Scots. But this was not FERGUS I. the Son of Ferquhard, but FERGUS II. the Son of Erch (becauſe of the Catalogue of the Kings that follows in this Chronicle) and from Erch their firſt Settlement was call'd Ergadia now Argyle.

But according to the modern Scots Hiſtorians and the vulgar Opinion of that Nation, the ſaid Simon Breac brought a large Colony by Sea into Ireland after the Exodus of MOSES 1002 Years or A. M. 3515. bef. Ch. 489, who brought with him the ſaid Marble Chair or JACOB's Stone, and was the firſt Founder of the Milesian Race in Ireland; whereas the modern Iriſh Antiquaries make one HERIMON the firſt King of that Race 700 Years ſooner and make 40 Kings in Ireland prior to SIMON BREAC. But the Scotiſh Tradition is confirm'd by the ſaid Latin Chronicle Ch. IV. and by Nennius a Britannic Author who wrote in the 9th Century of Chriſtianity, and ſays, he had it from the moſt learn'd among the Scots (whether the Scots in Ireland or the Scots in Britain is uncertain) and this is older than Pſalter Caſhel that was writ only in the 10th Century: But the Scots in their Letter to the Pope in the Days of King ROBERT BRUCE don't ſay that the Scots came from Spain firſt to Ireland and next to Britain, but that they came ſtrait from Spain to Britain.

The common Tradition of Scotland adds, that the Scots liv'd long in Peace intermix'd with the Picts in the South-Weſt Parts or the Country of Argyle (while the great Bulk of North Britain was poſſeſs'd by the ancient Picts or Caledonians, as in the laſt Table) until great Family Quarrels and National Jealouſies and Fears made them ſeparate from the Picts, who aided by the ancient Britons reſolv'd at once to extirpate the Scots; therefore the ſeveral Tribes of the Gael Albinich or Scots coaleſced under a King in their own Defence; but their Chieftains or Patriarchs being of equal Authority, would not ſtoop to one of themſelves, and therefore join'd to invite over Prince FERGUS (the Son of Ferquhard a King of the Gaul Erinich or Scots in Ireland, a People near of Kin to them and of the ſame Language) who by the public Conſent of the People was elected King of the Gael Albinich or Scots in Albin, who is call'd FERGUS I. and commenc'd his Reign in the Year before the Chriſtian Era 330, or A. M. 3674. The Tradition further adds, that the Picts an illuſtrious People cut down the Woods, cultivated the Ground, encourag'd Arts and Sciences, built fine Cities and ſtrong Caſtles, and became at laſt a trading Kingdom, but that the Scots being more addicted to Hunting and Paſturage became a Military Kingdom, ever uncapable to be govern'd by Women or Children, but only by an Imperator or General of an Army, or a principal Patriarch.

This firſt Race of Kings, according to the traditional Hiſtory, laſted till A. D. 376 when by a Confederacy of the Romans, Britons and Picts, EUGENIUS I. the 39th King from FERGUS I. was ſlain in Battel, his Br. ETHODIUS and his Royal Family fled to Denmark, moſt of the Scots Nobles were kill'd or baniſh'd, or ſubmitted to the Picts, and the Scots Kingdom of the Gael Albinich was diſſolv'd until A. D. 403, when FERGUS II. the Son of Erch made the glorious Reſtoration of the Scotiſh Kingdom.

III. Thoſe Hiſtorians that inſiſt upon proper Vouchers for any conſiderable Fact aſſerted, finding no Certainty in the Iriſh Accounts of the Mileſian Race, or of the Scots in Ireland, neither of the Time they came firſt into Ireland, nor when they firſt made their Deſcent upon Scotland, have, according to foreign Hiſtories and the beſt Chronological Conjectures they could make, prov'd it rational to believe (according to Mr. Thomas Innes) firſt, That the firſt Inhabitants of Ireland came from the neareſt adjacent Coaſts of Britain that was originally peopled with the Celts, and ſo the firſt Inhabitants of the Britannick Iſles were Celtick Gauls, and their different Nations or Tribes ſpoke only the different Dialects of the Gallic, many uncertain Ages before the Incarnation of CHRIST. 2. That the firſt Scots were Scandinavian Scythi or elſe Cantabrian Scyti or both, who came into Ireland much about the Time that CHRIST dwelt upon Earth, becauſe about that Time the Roman Empire had hemm'd in the Northern Nations by Land, and their teeming Tribes had no way to penetrate into other Parts as formerly, but by Sea. 3. That as ſoon as they had been well ſettled and multiplied in Ireland, they made at various Times little Deſcents upon Britain, viz. on Galloway and Argyle, eſpecially the laſt, where by Degrees they became a conſiderable Body in ſeveral Tribes or Clanſhips, without being diſturbed by the powerful Kingdom of the Picts, who needed their Aſſiſtance againſt the Romans and the Provincial Britons. 4. That accordingly they aſſiſted the Picts againſt the Romans and Provincial Britons, till the Romans were quite evacuated out of Britain, and then againſt the Saxons who came to aſſiſt the Britons; but that in no exotic Authors are the Scots mention'd once, till about A. D. 360, for they are not once nam'd by Cæſar, Diodorus Siculus, Strabo, Mela, Ptolemy, Tacitus, Pliny, Solinus, &c. who ſpeak of Ireland but never mention the Scots; and the firſt Account that Ammian Marcelin gives of the Scots in Britain is as of a People unſettled, or SCOTI per diverſa vagantes. 5. That the Clans or Tribes of the Scots in Britain did not unite under one Chief or Monarch till FERGUS II. call'd the Son of Erch, which ERCH ſeems to have been a K. of the Scots in Ireland, and ſent over his Son FERGUS with a conſiderable Force to be K. of the Scots in Britain, for that all the Scotiſh Monuments of ancient Hiſtory now extant before A. 1291, (when K. EDWARD I. of England began to get Poſſeſſion of the Records, Archives and Chronicles of Scotland) begin with FERGUS the Son of Erch as the firſt K. of the Scots, and reckon his Succeſſors regularly down to KENETH MAC ALPIN the firſt K. of All Scotland. But ſeeing we have good Vouchers for a Genealogical Catalogue of the Princely Anceſtors of FERGUS the Son of Erch, that were publickly recited by a principal Scotiſh Bard at the Coronation of K. Alexander III. A. D. 1249, (which is not deny'd by thoſe that plead for this third Scheme) and ſeeing thoſe that are for the 2d Scheme make between 30 and 40 of thoſe Anceſtors to be Ks of the Scots, I ſhall leave the Controverſy to Critical Hiſtorians, (whoſe Buſineſs it is to decide it) and extend the Tables of thoſe firſt Kings according to John Fordun, until we come to the more certain Catalogue that begins with FERGUS the Son of Erch.

TABLE D.

The Kings of the SCOTS after the Reſtoration by FERGUS II. the Son of Erch to the Deſtruction of the PICTISH Monarchy.

ACCORDING to the Scots Hiſtorians after the Death of Eugenius I. and during the Baniſhment of his Family, or the Interregnum of 27 Years, ETHODIUS or Echadius his Brother ſail'd into Scandia or Denmark with his Son ERTH or ERCH, and his Grandſon FERGUS, where they were well us'd by SIVALDUS III the King of that Country, and where Ethodius and Erch died. But Fergus growing up a Military Man, began his Fortune among the Franks againſt the Gauls, till his Name became famous among the neighbouring Nations; and the Picts found ſoon their Miſtake in confederating with the Romans, by being enſlav'd under the Roman Laws and Tyranny as if they had been a conquer'd Province, and began to repent of overthrowing the Scotiſh Kingdom: Nay, tho' the Roman Garriſons in Britain were much weaken'd by conſtant Draughts to defend Rome itſelf againſt the Barbarians that threaten'd them on all Sides, the Picts had not Courage to retrieve their Liberty alone; and therefore ſent to the Æbudæ Iſlands and adjacent Continent (which the Scots were ſtill poſſeſſed of and were never under the Roman Yoke) to deſire their Aſſiſtance againſt the Romans. But the Scots declining to aſſiſt the Picts, without a Reſtoration of their Kingdom, the Picts agreed to reſtore their Kingdom of Soldiers that had been the Defenders of Liberty heretofore; and accordingly join'd the Scots in ſending Envoys to Denmark to recal the brave FERGUS the Son of Erch, who being ambitious of Glory accepted of their Conditions, and ſailing with a Body of Danes of his Acquaintance, he landed in Argyle among his own Subjects, whither the exil'd Scots flock'd to him apace from South Britain, Ireland and the Iſlands, reſolving to extirpate the Romans: and ſo, with the Conſent of the Picts, FERGUS mounted the Throne of his Forefathers A. D. 403, or with ſome 404, being reckon'd the 40th King of the Scots, though by others call'd only the firſt King, think either the foregoing Kings fabulous, or elſe only Chiefs or Generals of their Armies without Royal Authority; which Controverſy I leave to be decided by the Antiquaries, and muſt (as in other Tables) follow the received Hiſtories of Scotland.

GREME (whether a Scotſman or Briton is uncertain) moſt reckon him a Briton of the Family of Fulgentius. He govern'd Scotland during the Minority of his Grandſon EUGENIUS II. defeated the Britons, raz'd the Wall between the Friths of Clyde and Forth, and ſo immortaliz'd his Name, that to this Day that Trench is call'd Graham's Dyke. He † A. D. 437.

Rocha Daughter of Roricus firſt Prince of the Blood Royal of Denmark.

Ethodius Son of King FINCORMACHUS, Table 499.

ERTH, or Erc, or Erch, or Erec died in Exile in Sweden or Denmark. And mean while an Interregnum obtain'd in Scotland for 27 Years, viz. from the Death of the ſaid EUGENIUS I. till the Reſtoration of the Kingdom in the Son of this ERCH, viz.

N. N. Greme, from whom they ſay the GRAHAMS are deſcended; but ſhould they be of a more modern Date it is certain that William de Greme is one of the Witneſſes to the Foundation of Holy-Rood-Houſe Abbey by K. DAVID I, A. D. 1125, and from him deſcended Sir David Greme Pater (the direct Anceſtor of the preſent Duke of Montroſe) who obtain'd Lands from King WILLIAM the Lion, and was the Great Grandfather of Sir Patrick Greme, one of the Magnates Scotiæ 1284, ſlain in the Battel of Dunbar 1296.

N. N. his Wiſe.

40. FERGUS II. or Feargus K. as in the Preface 403 or 404. By an Agreement the Scots and Picts went againſt the Romans and Britons, but were defeated at the River Carron near SEVERUS's Wall; but upon the Departure of the Romans into Gaul, the Scots and Picts under the Command of Greme the King's Father-in-Law, raz'd the ſaid Wall and exercis'd great Barbarities upon the Britons, without Regard to Sex, Age, or Condition. The Britons therefore ſent to the Romans for Aid, who ſent them a Legion. Then the Scots and Picts contracting Friendſhip with Dionethus a Royal Briton renewed the War; but the Romans under Aetius defeated them; for FERGUS King of the Scots and DRUST King of the Picts were both ſlain A. D. 419, and Dionethus was wounded. FERGUS reign'd 16 Years. He was buried at Icolmkill in the Iſland of Iona with his two Brothers Loarn and Enegus.

N. B. The Kings in direct Succeſſion from FERGUS II. are DONGARD, GORAN and AIDAN; but FERGUS dying A. 419, and AIDAN dying 604, there muſt be between their Deaths no leſs than 185 Years, which makes ſome accurate Enquirers think, that either the beginning of FERGUS can be no higher than about An. 500, or elſe that AIDAN cannot be the 3d in Deſcent from FERGUS, but rather the 10th, which is moſt likely: And ſeeing all the Scotiſh Hiſtorians own him to be the 3d in Deſcent, thoſe Criticks are for commencing this Reſtoration rather A. 503 than 403: but from the death of AIDAN to the end of the Pictiſh Kingdom there is no ſuch Chronological Doubt.

Sir David Graham receiv'd the Lands of old Montroſe from King ROBERT I. and was the Grandfather of Sir Patrick Graham who married 1. Mathilda. 2. Euphame Da. of Sir John Stuart Br. of K. Robert II. See his Table.

Sir Nichol Graham Patriarch of the Grahams of Abercorn.

Sir John Graham the moſt famous Hero of his Age, (next to Sir William Wallace) ſlain in the Battel of Falkirk 1298.

41. EUGENIUS II. or EVENUS ſucceeded 419, under the Guardianſhip of his Grandfather Greme, who, upon the Romans leaving the Iſland, having the whole Management of Affairs, again went againſt the Britons, beat down the Wall and conquer'd all to Adrian's Wall: but a Peace was made, whereby the Britons agreed to be ſatisfy'd with their ancient Bounds, leaving all North of Adrian's Wall to be poſſeſs'd by the Scots and Picts. Then Greme partition'd the Country, and recall'd the Monks and Clergy; but upon his Death EUGENIUS broke the Peace, went againſt the Britons and ſlew 15000, and forc'd the Britons to come to any, even the moſt hard and unreaſonable Terms. Therefore the Britons invited over the Saxons to their Aid, who landed in Kent under HENGIST and HORSA Anno 447. Theſe joining Vortigern King of the Britons, expell'd the Scots and Picts beyond Adrian's Wall. Some ſay EUGENIUS † in Battel beyond the Humber, and others that he † a natural Death Anno 452, rul'd 33. He was an excellent Prince and was buried at Icolmkill.

42. DONGARDUS, or DOMANGARD, or DOMHANGARD, or DOVENGHART, or DONEGART ſucc. his Br. 452. In his Time Palladius came into Scotland, and made the firſt Biſhops, the Church before being rul'd by Preaching Miniſters, without Biſhops, with leſs Pomp, but with far greater Sanctity, as the Hiſtorians ſay. The King † 457, reign'd 5 Years. Some ſay he was ſlain fighting at the Humber againſt Conſtantin K. of the Britons, buried at Icolmkill.

43 CONSTANTIN, while a private Man, liv'd moderately; but upon his mounting the Throne 457, he fell into all manner of Vices and would receive no Advice. He made Peace with the Britons againſt the Saxons and Picts. Some ſay he was ſlain by Dugall a Nobleman of the Æbudæ, (whoſe Da. he had raviſh'd) after he had reign'd 15 Years, but others ſay he † a natural Death Anno 479, and buried at Dun Staffage.

Sir Wm Graham L. of Kinkardin mrd, 1. Mariotta. 2. Lady Mary Stuart Da. of K. Robert III See the Iſſue of his Marriage in the Royal Houſe of Stuart.

44. CONGALLUS I. or COMGALL, or CONGAL, or CONGEL, ſucceeded his Uncle 479, reform'd his Kingdom, diſplac'd unfit Magiſtrates and renew'd Peace with Aurelius King of the Britons againſt the Saxons, in Defence of the Chriſtian Religion, and gave them a great Overthrow. He † 501, reign'd 22 Years and was buried at Icolmkill.

45. GORANUS, or GABRAN, or GABHRAN, or GAURAN, or GOUREN, or GOVERAN, or CONRANUS, ſucc. his Br. 501, a wiſe and excellent Prince. He firſt inſtituted the Office of the King's Advocate. He perſuaded LOTH a Pictiſh King to league with UTER PENDRAGON K. of the Britons (and who mrd Pendragon's Da. Table 478) againſt the Anglo-Saxons Anno 502. And when the famous King ARTHUR mounted the Britiſh Throne he aided him againſt the Saxons. GORANUS was at laſt cut off; for one Toncetus the ſupreme Judge of Capital Crimes, a cruel and covetous Man, expecting eaſy Pardon of the King, the enraged People therefore cut him off; but finding they could not obtain the King's Mercy, they next ſlew the King himſelf at the Inſtigation of one Donald of Athol 535, reign'd 34 Years. His Queen and Children fled to Ireland. Others ſay he † after a tedious Sickneſs, and was buried at Icolmkill the Royal burying Place.

46. EUGENIUS III. ſucc. his Uncle 535, but inſtead of revenging his Death, he receiv'd DONALD into favour, which made him ſuſpected of having a Hand in the Conſpiracy. None of his Predeceſſors excell'd him in Juſtice. He reign'd 23 Years and † 558.

47. CONGALLUS II. or CONVALLUS, or CONALL, ſucc. his Brother 558. He introduc'd Heraldry, recall'd the Children of GORANUS. But before they return'd he † 568, reign'd 10 Years.

48. KINATELLUS ſucc. his Br. Congallus 568. He courteouſly entertain'd AIDAN Son of GORANUS, and on his Death-bed reſign'd to him. He † 570, reign'd near 2 Years, buried at Icolmkill wlth his Brs.

50. KENNETH I. ſurnamed KER, was elected King after AIDAN 604. Of him nothing memorable is recorded, † 605, reign'd 4 Months, ſome ſay a Year, buried at Icolmkill.

49. AIDANUS, or AIDAN, or AODAN, or EDAN, or EDAIN, or EDHAN ſucc. his Couſin 570, and receiv'd the Royal Inſignia from St. Columba, a Man at that Time of ſuch Authority, that neither King nor People did any thing without his Conſent. AIDAN's firſt Expedition was againſt the Robbers of Galloway, whom he ſuppreſs'd and ſeverely puniſh'd their Chiefs and eſtabliſh'd Juſtice in the Realm. But divers Nobles falling out at Hunting, many were ſlain. The Offenders to avoid Puniſhment fled to BRUDEUS King of the Picts, who protected them, and would not deliver them up, which occaſion'd a War between the Scots and Picts; but by Means of Columba a Peace ſoon enſued. Mean while the Heptarchy being eſtabliſh'd in England, the Saxons, not contented with their Dominions, Ethelfrid K. of Northumberland, a covetous ambitious Man, excited the Picts to commit Robberies in the Land of the Scots. AIDAN ſmelling out the Deſign renew'd the ancient League with MALGO a K. of the Britons, who ſent his Son Griffinus and his Siſter's Son Brendinus K. of Man with Forces, which being join'd with the Scots, their Confederate Army enter'd Northumberland, and in 3 Days came up with the Enemy; but the Engliſh declin'd to fight, expecting new Succours. Then Ceulin K. of Weſſex came with great Forces, and tho' he was attacked and defeated on his Way by the Scots and Britons, yet being join'd with the reſt of the Saxons, the Scots were totally routed, and Griffinus and Brendinus were ſlain on their Side; and King Ethelfrid loſt one of his Eyes, and Brudeus K. of the Picts was carried wounded out of the Battel. Next Summer ETHELFRID by the Aid of the Picts march'd into Galloway, and AIDAN join'd the Britons and march'd into Northumberland and carried off much Spoil: The Saxons and Picts therefore purſued them and at laſt came to a Battel, where the Scots and Britons obtain'd the Victory. Eleven Years after this Victory they appointed a Day to invade the Saxons; and AIDAN, tho' an old Man, went in Perſon to the Action, but the Britons not coming according to Expectation, the Saxons gave the Scots a great Rout, tho' with no ſmall Loſs to themſelves; for Ethelfrid loſt his Brother Theobald, and ſome Saxon Cohorts were near quite deſtroy'd. AIDAN ſurviv'd this Loſs but a ſhort Time, for he † both of Age and Grief Anno 604, reign'd 34 Years and was buried at Icolmkill.

ARTHUR Prince of Scotland ſlain in Battel againſt the Picts.

51. EUGENIUS IV. or EOCHOID-BUIDHE, or EOCHOD-FLAVUS, or HEOGHED-BUDE, or EOGHED-BOD, or HEGGED-BUD, or ECHAC-BUIDHE, or OCHABIND, was educated by St. Columba, ſucceeded KENNETH I. 605. He kept the Saxons at Work by his frequent Incurſions upon them. He repair'd all the Churches in SCOTLAND and † 622, reign'd 17 Years, buried at Icolmkill.

At the end of a Truce with Northumberland, Egfrid aided by the Picts, invaded and pillag'd Galloway; but the Picts leaving off to fight, he was totally routed by King EUGENIUS, and next Year defeated by the Picts, who recover'd the large Country they had loſt in the former Wars; and by the Aid of the Scots and Britons they ſo reduc'd the Northumbrian Saxons that they never recover'd their former State. 58. AMBERKELETHUS, or AINBCEALLACH, or ARMCHALLACH, or ARINCHELLAC, or ARMKELLECH, or AMRIKELLETH ſucceeded EUGENIUS VI. 702. He at firſt ſeem'd to be a very temperate Prince, but ſoon fell into all manner of Wickedneſs, which excited Garnard a Pictiſh King to invade the Scots with a great Army; and tho' AMBERKELETHUS defeated him, yet he was ſlain with an Arrow by an unknown Hand Anno 704. Some ſay while he was preſſing among the thickeſt of the Enemy he was ſlain. He reign'd but 2 Years.

59. EUGENIUS VII. or HEOGHAN, or EOGAN, or EWAN, or EWEN, that the Army might neither be diſbanded, nor want a Governor, was elected King 704, but not relying on his Forces, hemade a Peace with the Pictiſh King Garnard and mrd his Da. The King after this, ſpent much of his Time in hunting, and order'd that the Actions of the Kings ſhould be preſerv'd in the Records of the Monaſtries: and having recommended Mordacus for his Succeſſor he † in Peace at Abernethy 721, reign'd 17 Years, buried at Icolmkill.

60. MORDACUS, or MUIREADACH, or MURDAUCH, or MURECHAT, or MURDOCHUS, or MURTHEC, or MURDAHU, or MURDACUS ſucceeded his Uncle 721. He was a peaceable Prince and by his Means a firm Peace was kept over all the Iſle, built many Churches and Monaſtries, † 730, reign'd 9 Years and was buried with his Royal Anceſtors at Icolmkill.

The King † (ſome ſay he was ſlain invading Northumberland) 761, reign'd 31 Years and was buried at Icolmkill.

He ſubdued and puniſhed Donald and his Aſſociate Mordacus, fin'd the reſt of the Tyrants and gave Satisfaction to the People who had been robb'd of their Goods. Being at Peace with the Engliſh and Picts, he alſo made a League with the French, both becauſe the German and Engliſh Saxons infeſted Gaul with their Pyracies, and for that CHARLEMAIN emulating to have the French as expert in Learning as Arms, ſent to Scotland for learned Men to teach Philoſophy, &c. at Paris; were as yet many of the old primitive Sett remain'd, of whom was John Scotus or Albinus Scotus, CHARLES's Maſter: beſides, many learned Preachers went from Scotland and converted the People beyond the Rhine and built Monaſtries in many Places, and CHARLEMAIN founded the Scots College at Paris. After this ACHAIUS aided Hungus K. of the Picts with 10000 Men, under his Son ALPIN, againſt Athelſtan a Ruler in Northumberland, which he waſted; but when Athelſtan purſu'd them, HUNGUS pray'd to St. Andrew, who with his Croſs appear'd and promiſ'd the Victory: ſo Athelſtan was routed and ſlain, and the Place call'd Athelſtan's Foord to this Day: ſo ever ſince the Scots have carried St. Andrew's Croſs in their Banner. ACHAIUS † 819, reign'd 32 Years.

67. DONGALLUS, or DUNGHALL, or DUNEGAL, or DOUGHAL ſucc. ACHAIUS 824. HUNGUS † and his Son DURSTOLOGUS was ſlain by the Fraud of his Br. EOGAN, who did not long ſurvive the Murder. Then the Pictiſh Male Race being extinct, ALPIN Grandſon of HUNGUS, being the neareſt Heir, claim'd the Crown. But the Picts rejected him, becauſe he was a Stranger and FEREDITH or Frideric was choſen. See Table 501. Then DONGALLUS preparing to aid ALPIN was drown'd in the River Spey Anno 831, reign'd 7 Years buried at Icolmkill.

68. ALPIN or ALIPIN ſucceeded DONGALLUS 831. He ſlew FEREDITH in Battel at Reſtenoth in Angus with the Flower of the Pictiſh Nobility. Then BRUDUS ſuc. Feredith for one Year, till ſlain for his Cowardice by the Picts, who exalted KENNETH his Brother, who was ignorantly ſlain by a Clown, whom he upbraided for flying; and the Picts returning Home exalted another BRUDUS to be their King, a Man of noble Deſcent and Conduct, who ſoon ſuppreſs'd the Incurſions of the Scots, and ſent Preſents to the Engliſh for their Aids: but they failing him, he raiſ'd all his Poſſe for the laſt Conflict and fought the Scots bravely at Dundee; and while the Battel was dubious 100 Pictiſh Horſemen came from an Ambuſh with their Servants and Baggage, and ſo terrified the Scots that they fled to the next Woods; but King ALPIN was taken with many of his Nobles, who were all cruelly executed, and the King's Head upon a Pole was carried thro' the Army, and fix'd as a Spectacle in their Capital of Abernethy Anno 834, having reign'd 3 Years. The Place where ALPIN was kill'd is call'd Baſs Alpin, or the Death of ALPIN to this Day.

69. KENNETH II. MAC ALPIN, or CIONAODH, or CINACHA, or KINADIUS, or KENAUCHT, or KINEDUS, or KINATH ſucc. his Father 834, and next Year the Picts, hoping by the Help of the Engliſh to extirpate the Scots, raiſ'd as great an Army as they could, but a ſudden vehement Sedition aroſe in the Army, which King BRUDUS being unable to ſtop or hinder the Diſperſion of that Army † of Grief 3 Months after. Then the Picts made his Br. DRUSKENUS their King. But while he was ſettling Affairs a few Scotiſh Youth went by Night and brought the Head of K. ALPIN to K. KENNETH, who rewarded them with Lands. KENNETH then call'd a Parliament to perſuade his Subjects to war againſt the Picts; but his Senior Nobility diſſuaded him from it till they were more recruited after their late Loſſes, and a Peace followed for 3 Years. Then KENNETH craftily got his Nobles Conſent to this War, and accordingly march'd an Army againſt the Picts, ſlew their King and all his Nobility, and defeated them 7 times in one Day. Thus the Strength of the Picts was quite broken, and few of their great Men were left alive; this happen'd An. 839, others ſay 842, the 8th Year of KENNETH's Reign, who thus became King of All Scotland. See the next Table.

Thus according to the Scotiſh Catalogue, the Pictiſh Kings muſt have reign'd 1160 Years, from which deduct 838, (or the Year of the Chriſtian Era when the Pictiſh Kingdom ended, as in the Scotiſh Hiſtory) the Remainder is 322, or the Year before the Chriſtian Era and A. M. 3682, the firſt Year of the Pictiſh Kingdom according to this Catalogue, or 8 Years after FERGUS I. King of Scots began to reign: ſo that the Picts and Scots thus began to reign much about a Time. But in Table 497, the Pictiſh Kingdom ended A. D. 842, or 4 Years after the Scotiſh Reckoning, which makes the Death of KENNETH MAC ALPIN 4 Years later than the Scots Hiſtorians make it, allowing he reign'd 16 Years after he conquer'd the Picts. Therefore the Curious conclude that the Catalogue in Table 497, is the beſt. Beſides that, the Scotiſh Hiſtorians mention three Kings call'd GETHUS and ſome others not in this Catalogue.

The Kings of All Scotland, or of both the Scots and Picts.

67. DONGALLUS King of the Scots. See the laſt Table.

73. GREGORY or GAIRIG, or GIRG, or GIRIC, or GREG, ſurnamed the Great, ſucc. ETHUS 880, or 875. He was a valiant and good King. He recover'd Fife, Lothian and March from the Picts, whom the Danes had left in thoſe Places, purſued the Danes to Berwick and put them all to the Sword. He ſlew Constantin a K. of the Britons and forc'd them to Peace. He made Peace with Elfrid K. of England. He defeated the Iriſh Invaſion in Galloway, purſued the Iriſh and forc'd Dublin to ſurrender. He built the City of Aberdeen and † 892, reign'd 18 or 12 according to his beginning Anno 880. A Catalogue of theſe Kings in a Manuſcript in Colbert's Library, inſtead of this GREGORY mentions one Eochodius the Son of Ku.

Agnes Wife of Lewis C. of Furſtenberg, from whom the Cts and Princes of Furſtenberg are deſcended, Tab. 266.

69. KENNETH II. MAC ALPIN having deſtroy'd the Kingdom of the Picts became the firſt King of All Scotland 838, or rather with others 842, (ſee Table 497, and 500.) Some ſay he reign'd 2 Years and others 4 and others 8, over the Scots alone in their Kgdom of Dalrieta, before the Overthrow of the Picts; but all agree that he reign'd over both the Scots and Picts after that Conqueſt 16 Years. He remov'd the fatal Marble Stone from Argyle to Scone, or Fort Teviot, the old Palace of the Pictiſh Kings. He tranſlated the Seat of the Pictiſh Biſhop from Abernethy to St. Andrews. He † on Tueſday the Ides of February 858, according to ſome who reckon by the Pictiſh Table 497. But the Scots Hiſtorians ſay 854, and that he was buried at Icolmkill.

70. DONALD V. or DOMHNAL, or DUNEVALD, or DOMNAIL, or DOLFNAL, or DOVENALD ſucc. his Br. 858, or 854, an idle and licentious King. The Scots overcame the Engliſh, who aided the Remains of the Picts, but turning ſecure, the Engliſh ſet upon them, took their King and enter'd Scotland as far as Sterling, and by a Peace DONALD was forc'd to yield up all the Land within the Roman Walls: upon which the Picts ſeeing they were neglected, retired many of 'em to Denmark and Norway. After this the King turning laſcivious was impriſon'd by his Nobles, and he ſlew himſelf 862, or 859, reign'd 4 or five Years. Others ſay he † a natural Death buried at Icolmkill.

N. N. wife of Lopez of Biſcay.

SORIA Patriarch of the Lords of Biſcay. See Table 464.

71. CONSTANTIN II. or CONSTAINTIN ſucc. his Uncle 862, or 859. He reform'd the Abuſes of the Kingdom, reduc'd the Clergy to ſtricter Diſcipline and made many ſevere Laws, which the Youth of the Land thought a Grievance. He defeated and hang'd Evenus of the Iſles. The Danes landed in Fife, and challenged Pictland for the K. of Denmark, to whom the expell'd Picts had reſign'd it; but tho' CONSTANTIN at firſt overcame them in Battel, yet afterwards by the Treachery of ſome Picts they defeated, took and beheaded CONSTANTIN 878, or 874, at [illegible] call'd, The Black Cove in Angus. He was buried at Icolmkill and reign'd 16 Years.

Richardis Wife of the Emp. Charles the Bald. See Table 216, and 374.

72. ETHUS, or AODH, or EDUS, or HET, or ETH, or ED-MACKINET ſucc. his Br. 878, or 874. He was for his Swiftneſs call'd Lightfoot. But giving himſelf to all kind of Wickedneſs was taken by his Nobles, and his Wickedneſs being expos'd to the People in a long Harangue, he was forc'd to reſign, and † of Grief 3 Days after. But others more probably ſay that he was ſlain at Inruri by his Rival GREGORY 880, or 875, and was buried at Icolmkill, reign'd 2 Years, ſome ſay one Year.

74. DONALD VI. or DOMHNAL, or DOVENALD, or DONEVAL, or DONEVALD ſucc. GREGORY 892. He ſo maintain'd Peace that he was ever prepar'd for War. He aided the Engliſh againſt the Danes, to whom he gave a great Overthrow. He reduc'd the Thieves of Roſs and Murray, [illegible], reign'd 11 Years and was buried at Icolmkill.

75. CONSTANTIN III. or CONSTAINTIN ſucc. DONALD 903. He twice made a League with the Danes againſt the Engliſh, gave Cumberland to MALCOLM Son of DONALD, was twice beat by the Engliſh, who took Weſtmoreland and Cumberland. Some Years after he went to a Monaſtry, where he liv'd 5 Years and † 943, which ſix Years make ſome Controverſy of ſome following Reigns, but it is adjuſted ſoon, was buried at Icolmkill.

76. MILCOLUMBUS I. or MAELCOLUIM, or MAELCOLAI, or MALCOLM, ſucc. CONSTANTIN 943. He receiv'd Cumberland and Weſtmoreland from K. Edmund I. on Condition that his Succeſſors ſhould do Homage to that Monarch for theſe Lands. He reign'd 15 Years and † 958, being ſlain by the Murray Men and was buried at Icolmkill. Some ſay he reign'd 9 Years, and others 11 Years.

77. INDULFUS, or GONDOLPH, or INDOLF, or INDUFF ſucc. MILCOLUMBUS 958, and reign'd 7 Years. Then the Danes invaded Scotland with 50 Ships, but INDULPHUS went againſt them and put them to flight, but was ſlain himſelf in the Action 967, reign'd 9 Years, ſome ſay 8, and was buried in Icolmkill.

78. DUFFUS, or DUBHODA, or DUF, or NIGER, ſucc. INDULFUS 967. He created CULENUS Son of INDULF Prince of Cumberland, and ſent him againſt the Thieves. The King refuſing to pardon a Thief of Donald's Kindred was murder'd 972, reign'd 5 Years and was buried at Icolmkill.

79. CULENUS, or CUILIN, or CULIN, or CULENRIG ſucc. 972, and executed all that were acceſſory to the Death of his Predeceſſor DUFFUS, but at laſt growing laſcivious he was murder'd by Rudarus Thane of Methven, whoſe Daughter he had raviſh'd 976, reign'd 4 Years, ſome ſay 5, and was buried in Icolmkill.

80. KENNETH III. (ſee the various Readings in KENNETH II.) ſucc. 976. He reform'd the Abuſes of his Court and Diſorders of his Land and renew'd the League with England. The Danes invaded Angus, defeated the King's Forces, but by the Valour of Hay the Scots rallied and put the Danes to flight, for which the King made him Earl of Arrol and Lord High Conſtable, from whom many Gentlemen and Noblemen in Scotland are deſcended. He ſettled the Commotions of Angus and Mernis, caus'd MALCOLM Prince of Cumberland to be poiſon'd, becauſe the King would have his own Son to ſucceed, and therefore enacted that the Crown ſhould be hereditary, and proclaim'd his Son MALCOLM Prince of Cumberland, but as he went to viſit the Shrine of Palladius he was murder'd by Fenella Lady of Fettercairn the Mother of Crathlint 994, reign'd 18 Years, ſome ſay 24 buried at Icolmkill.

82. GRIMUS, or GRIM-MACDUBH, or CHINET, or GIRGH-MAC-KINATH or GREG, by ſome call'd the Son of K. DUFFUS ſucceeded 995, ſome ſay 997. Then MALCOLM went againſt him, but at length Matters were accommodated, ſo that GRIMUS was to reign till he died, and that then the Crown was to be conferr'd on MALCOLM and his Heirs. But GRIMUS turning a Tyrant, the Nobles ſent for MALCOLM, and when Matters came to a Battel GRIMUS was taken and had his Eyes put out and the Law for Succeſſion confirm'd. He † 1003. Some ſay 1008, and was buried at Icolmkill.

N. N. his Son.

BANCHO Thane of Lochabyr Patriarch of the Houſe of Stuart. See Table 505.

83. MILCOLUMBUS II. ſucceeded 1003, or 1008, and had war with the Danes, in which many of the Nobility being ſlain a Peace was concluded. He erected a Biſhop's See at Murthlake or Aberdeen, where he overcame the Danes A. D. 1017. Some Years after, Sveno King of Norway attempted the Conqueſt of Scotland, but MALCOLM follow'd him ſo cloſe that ſcarce any of his Army return'd. He divided the Realm into Baronies and publiſh'd the Book call'd Regia Majeſtas, for the well ordering of the Kingdom. At length growing covetous he was murder'd 1033, and was buried at Icolmkill.

Docha Wife of Finleg Thane or Governor of the County of Angus.

84. DUNCAN I. (by ſome call'd DONALD VII.) or DONACHADH, or DONCHATH, or DUNECAN or DONUCHUNDA ſuc. his Grandfather 1033, an eaſy Prince and clement. His Couſin MACBETH and BANCO Thane of Lochabyr ſoon ſuppreſs'd the Rebellions of the Lochabrians, and of Macdual P. of the Iſlanders, and ſoon after DUNCAN fought the Battel of Culroſs againſt Sveno K. of Norway, till he was forc'd to fly to Perth, where Sveno beſieg'd him by Land, while his Fleet ſail'd up the Tay to blockade him. DUNCAN, till MACKBETH ſhould come with Recruits, ſent BANCO to Sveno to treat of Peace. Mean while he furniſh'd Sveno's Army with all manner of Proviſions, mixt with Sleepy Night Shade, an Herb common in thoſe Places, whereby the Daniſh Army fell faſt a-ſleep, and MACKBETH with BANCO fell upon them opportunely and utterly deſtroy'd them, while a few that were awake carried Sveno faſt aſleep to the Shore, and with Difficulty got one Ship to carry him off. And BANCO march'd againſt a freſh Army of the Danes, who came with a Fleet of Supplies to Sveno with the chief Men of their Nation, whom BANCO defeated and ſlew at Kingborn; upon which, it is ſaid, the Danes made a ſolemn Oath never to invade Scotland again. And now a general Peace enſuing, MACKBETH deſpiſing his Couſin K. DUNCAN's Sloth, entertain'd Hopes of mounting the Throne himſelf, being excited by a Dream in which 3 Women appear'd in more auguſt than human Form; one ſaluting him Thane of Angus, the other Thane of Murray, and the 3d K. of Scotland: and acquainting his Wife with this Viſion, ſhe ever teiz'd him to execute his Purpoſe with Expedition, by murdering the K. at Inverneſs. And gathering a Band of Men he march'd to Scone, where he proclaim'd himſelf K. and DUNCAN's Sons, viz. MALCOLM CANMORE P. of Cumberland fled into England, and DONALD BANE fled to his Father's Relations in the Weſtern Iſles and from thence into Ireland. DUNCAN was murder'd 1040, reign'd 7 Years, and was buried at Icolmkill.

85. MACKBETH, or MACBEATHA, or MACHETAD, or MACBETHAD, or MACHABÆUS, or MACBETH-MAC-FINLEG ſucc. DUNCAN 1040, and at firſt became popular, and more by Art than Force ſuppreſs'd the Robbers. He cut off the Thanes of Caithneſs, Roſs, Sutherland and Nairn, with ſome of the chief Nobility, ſubdued the Weſtern Iſlanders, and the Great Macgill Lord of Galloway, and having ſettled a general Tranquillity, he made many wholeſome Laws, and for the firſt 10 Years ſo wiſely adminiſtred the Government, that he was inferior to none of his Predeceſſors, had he not been an Uſurper: but then he became a mere Tyrant, and hearing the Witches had foretold that Banco's Offspring ſhould be Kings; nay, fearing that BANCO being Grandſon of K. GRIMUS ſhould imitate his Example, he order'd him to be ſlain in returning home from a Feaſt at the Palace, by a ſeeming Tumult, while Banco's Son FLEANCE eſcap'd by the help of the Night and fled into Wales. Upon which the Nobility being afraid of themſelves ſeldom came to Court, and MACKBETH ſtill tyrannizing fortified himſelf with ſtrong Guards in Dunſinan and Lunfanan Caſtles, which he made the Thanes build for him, among whom MACDUFF Thane of Fife was the moſt powerful; but he juſtly fearing the Tyrant, left his Family and went into England, while MACKBETH confiſcated his Goods and ſlew his Wife and Children; and now contemning the Nobility he rul'd only by domeſtic Counſels. Mean while MACDUFF found Prince MALCOLM royally entertain'd in the Court of Edward the Confeſſor, and laying before him the lamentable State of Scotland, perſuaded him to attempt his Reſtoration, and K. EDWARD generouſly gave him an Army of 10000 Men, commanded by Sibardus K. DUNCAN's Father-in-Law, who with the Scots Refugees march'd ſtrait againſt MACKBETH, then ſhut up in Dunſinan Caſtle, the People following with Acclamations of Joy, and the Army wearing green Boughs march'd to Dunſinan as in a Triumph, which terrified and put the Tyrant to flight, while his Soldiers deſerted to MALCOLM. And MACKBETH being overtaken and believing the Stories of the Witches, That no Horſe born of a Mare ſhould ever overtake him, and no Man born of a Woman ſhould ever ſlay him; MACDUFF told him, that now his Fate was at Hand, becauſe both he and his Horſe were never born, but violently cut out of the Womb, and ſo he ſlew MACKBETH 1057.

86. MALCOLM CANMORE King of Scotland. See the next Table.

LUCHLACH, or Lahaulan, or Luthlath, was ſet up by ſome Malecontents and crown'd; but after he had reign'd in Aberdeenſhire near 4 Months, he was ſlain in Strathbogy by King MALCOLM's Men and buried with his Father at

86. MILCOLUMBUS III. or MALCOLM CANMORE, or MALCOLM-CEAN-MORE, or MALCOLM KENREMORE, having defeated MACKBETH, was proclaim'd King at Scone 25 Ap. 1057. He appointed a Parliament at Forfar, and restor'd the Lands to the Children of those who had been slain by MACKBETH. He introduc'd the Titles of Dukes, Marquises, Earls, Barons and Knights, and created MACDUFF E. of Fife, and honour'd him with many Privileges. He created Patrick Dunbar E. of March, for suppressing the Robbers of Cockburn. Mean while P. Edgar Etheling (as on the Left) being drove by Tempest into Scotland, was royally entertain'd by K. MALCOLM, who protected him, and many of his Friends (from whom many Families in Scotland are descended) against WILLIAM the Conqueror, the Invader of his undoubted Right. This occasion'd a long War between Scotland and England, in which Sibardus a petty K. of Northumberland join'd the Scots, against whom K. William sent Roger a Norman with Forces into Northumberland, where Roger was slain by his own Men and his Army routed. Then Richard E. of Glocester was sent with a greater Army, but being wearied out with Skirmishes by Patrick Dunbar, was forc'd to have more Relief; accordingly Odo K. William's Uterin Brother march'd with more Forces, who spoil'd Northumberland; but as he return'd K. MALCOLM and Sibardus attack'd him, recover'd the Spoils and took and slew many of his Army. Neither did Robert, K. William's Son (tho' he also march'd with an Army) do any memorable Action. Upon this K. William II. judging the War more tedious than advantagious, was glad to hearken to a Peace. And now various civil Commotions arose. Those of Galloway and Æbuda were suppress'd by Walter, Grandson of Bancho, and those of Murray, Ross and Caithness were quell'd by Macduff E. of Fife. Then the King founded the Bishopricks of Murray and Caithness. But William Rufus taking Possession of Alnwick Castle MALCOLM went and besieged it, and brought the Besieged to such a Strait that they were fain to treat of a Surrender; but as the King was receiving the Keys from the Top of a Spear, the Governor Mowbray pierced it thro' his Eye and slew him A. D. 1093, and his Family was ever after called Piercy. MALCOLM was buried at Icolmkill.

Margaret Wife of Edgar Etheling Grandson of Edmund Ironside K. of England, as on the Left.

87. DONALD VII. (call'd DONALD BANE, or the White) fled to the Æbudæ for fear of MACKBETH. He promis'd to Magnus K. of Norway all the Islands, if by his Aid he should enjoy the Crown of Scotland. Accordingly with little Difficulty he was declar'd King after his Brother 1093, especially by those who falsely accus'd King MALCOLM of corrupting the Government. His Nephew DUNCAN after 6 Months expell'd him, but upon DUNCAN's Death he again set himself on the Throne. Then the Norwegians came to take Possession of the Islands, but the People rebell'd and set up Edgar, who by the Aid of William Rufus K. of England overcame and imprison'd DONALD, who † a Prisoner 1098, and was buried at Dunkel, from whence his Bones were afterwards translated to Icolmkill. See his Issue in the following Table.

89. EDGAR succ. his Uncle and was the first anointed K. of Scotland 1098, had no Contentions at Home nor Wars Abroad, † without Issue 1107, was buried at Dunfermling, reign'd 9 Years and 6 Months.

90. ALEXANDER I. surnamed the Fierce succ. his Brother 1107, and next Year suppress'd the Robbers of Ross. He built the Church of St. Michael in Scone, and the Abbeys of St. Colms-Inch and Dunfermling, † 1124, and was buried at Dunfermling, reign'd 17 Years. Wife, Sibylla, Daughter of William the Norman, according to Buchanan; but the English Historians say he married Elizabeth natural Daughter of Henry I. King of England. See Table 490.

91. DAVID I. call'd St. David succ. his Brother ALEXANDER, 1124. He was a wise and just Prince. When King Stephen mounted the English Throne he desir'd DAVID to swear Fealty for Cumberland, Northumberland and Huntington (which last he had by his Wife) and upon DAVID's answering, that he and K. Stephen and all the Peers of England having sworn to Q. MAUD the undoubted Heiress, he would never acknowledge Stephen for K. of England. Upon this ensued a War, in which the English and Scots laid waste one another's Borders with Fire and Sword 1137. They came to a Battel where the English were beat, and their General the D. of Glocester taken Prisoner. Stephen nettled at this Loss gladly made Peace, whereby it was agreed, that the Prisoners should be redeem'd without Money, and that K. Stephen should resign all Right to Cumberland as the supreme Lord of it, and that Pr. Henry should have Huntington. But the Armies were scarce disbanded, when Stephen having clandestinely seiz'd some Castles of Northumberland renew'd the War (call'd the War of the Standard) in which the Scots were routed and lost 12000 Men and forc'd to leave Northumberland. But by means of Trustinus Archbishop of York a Truce was made for 3 Months, on Condition that Northumberland should be forthwith restor'd to the Scots. And tho' Stephen had made great Preparations to carry on this War, yet his Nobility opposing him, and fearing intestine Broils, he sent his Wife Maud to treat of Peace with her Uncle DAVID. At last an Agreement was made, by which DAVID was to have Cumberland, and Prince Henry DAVID's Son should be possess'd of Northumberland and Huntingdon. This Peace was made Anno 1139, at which time Maud the Empress returning into England sent her Son Henry (afterwards K. Henry II.) to K. DAVID, who knighted Henry and honour'd him with the Military Belt, when Henry as the Heir apparent of England, solemnly swore never to disturb DAVID, nor any of his Offspring in their English Possessions. He erected the Bishopricks of Ross, Dunblane, Dunkell and Brechin, and † 23 May 1153. reign'd 29 Years, 2 Months and 3 Days, and was buried at Dunfermling.

MARY Wife of Matthew C. of Flanders. Table 490.

88. DUNCAN II. a Natural Son, expell'd DONALD BANE and succeeded 1093, but turning imperious and acting arbitrarily, he was soon hated by the most part. Then the exil'd K. DONALD brib'd Macpendir Earl of Mernis to slay him, which he effected 1095, after he had reign'd 1 Year and 6 Months; some say only 6 Months. He was succeeded by DONALD, as above.

HENRY II. K. of England who was not the Heir of the Saxon Blood, because K. DAVID his Grand-Mother's Brother had Issue, who were the true Heirs of that Line.

MAUD Daughter of Woldeofus Earl of Northumberland and of Judith the Grand-Daughter of WILLIAM the Conqueror. By this Marriage Northumberland and Huntingdon came to the Crown of Scotland.

HENRY P. of Scotland and E. of Huntingdon, which he obtain'd by the first Peace between his Father and K. Stephen, and was invested in these Countries, because his Father refus'd to do Homage for them to the K. of England. HENRY was one of the most accomplish'd Princes of his Time, and so much the Favourite of K. Stephen, that he was set at the Head of his Table, to the no small Umbrage of his Nobles, and at the Siege of Ludlow where P. Henry was in eminent Danger, K. Stephen hazarded his own Life to preserve the Prince. HENRY † before his Father 1152, to the universal Grief of All Scotland.

Adama 2d Daughter of William Earl of Warren and Surrey in England, and of Elizabeth Daughter of Hugh Magnus C. of Vermandois 2d Son of Henry I. K. of France. Table 375. She was grand daughter of Wm. Conq.

92. MALCOLM IV. born 1140, succ. his Grandfather 1153, and for his Chastity and Celibacy surnamed the Maiden. The Rebellions of Gilchrist E. of Angus and Sumerled Thane of Argyle were suppress'd. K. Henry II. of England erected the Bishoprick of Carlisle to deprive the Bp of Glasgow of the Oversight of Cumberland, and artfully decoy'd young Malcolm to Chester, where he got him to do Homage for Cumberland, Northumberland and Huntingdon, which should have been done only by his Brothers WILLIAM and DAVID the Possessors of those Lands, according to the old Contract. Then Henry decoy'd him to London and carried him with him against his Will to France 1156, for which, tho' MALCOLM with Difficulty pacified his Nobles on his Return, yet for a sham Reason he was decoy'd to the Parliament at York and was there depriv'd of his English Lands; and K. Henry maliciously acquainted the Scotish Nobility that MALCOLM had freely resign'd them, for which they besieg'd him in Perth; but the Nobles discovering Henry's Fraud rais'd War till the two Kings met near Carlisle, when Henry restor'd Cumberland and Huntingdon to MALCOLM, but would not part with Northumberland: To this MALCOLM basely yielded, contrary to the Protestations of his Nobles, who deny'd that their King had a Right to alienate any Lands of the Crown without the Consent of the States; Therefore 3 Rebellions happen'd in Galloway, Murray and Renfreu, which were all defeated 1163, and being now 22 Years old, his Parliament requested him to marry, but he would not, and wanting Heirs and enjoying Peace he began the old Trade of building Churches, but † 10 Dec. 1165, aged 25 Years, reigned 12, and was buried at Dunfermling.

93. WILLIAM surnamed the Lion born 1140, suc. his Br. 1165, forc'd K. Henry to restore Northumberland; but Henry repenting of this Grant, made frequent Incursions into the Borders of Scotland, until Wm enter'd England with a great Army; and the English then not being in a Posture of Fighting bought a Truce for a large Sum of Money, during which they recruited their Army, and K. WILLIAM riding in the Night-time was assaulted by the English and taken Prisoner 1173. The English Historians say, the Truce expir'd; however it was, WILLIAM was carried to Normandy, while the English invaded Cumberland, but were repuls'd by Gilchrist and Rolland the Scots Generals. Mean while David the King's Brother ransomed him, and the King leaving 15 Hostages and delivering up to the English the four Castles of Roxburgh, Berwick, Edinburgh and Sterling was releas'd 1 Feb. 1174, and 12 of Oct. following he did Homage to K. Henry at York. After this the King quell'd the Robberies of the Æbuda, and An. 1190, Richard I. K. of England restor'd the Castles and sent back the Articles to K. WILLIAM, allowing him to possess all that MALCOLM CANMORE and his Predecessors had possessed, and with the same Privileges. David the King's Br. accompanied Richard to the Holy Land, and returning landed at Alectium, or Taodunum, now Dundee. In the King's Absence Harald E. of Caithness depriv'd the Bishop of Caithness of his Tongue and Eyes, and on the King's return Harald lost his own Eyes 1199, and that Year WILLIAM swore Fealty to King John for his English Lands; but John was angry that WILLIAM would not aid him against the French, and therefore built a Fortification in the Country of Berwick, which WILLIAM demolish'd, upon which a War would have ensued, had not an Accommodation been speedily made. WILLIAM then after the Inundation of Bertha built Perth in a more convenient Place Anno 1207. After 5 Years he quell'd the Rebellion of Gathred Mackully, and † 1214, reign'd 49 Years and aged 74. See the rest of his Children in the next Table, buried at Arbrothe.

94. ALEXANDER II. born 1199, succ. his Father 1214, and settled Affairs most prudently. He aided Lewis the Dauphin against John K. of England, who therefore wasted Dunbar and Lothian and burnt the Abbey of Coldingham and Berwick. But Alexander follow'd his Rear and wasted all with Fire and Sword even to Richmond. He also took and fortified Carlisle; but upon a Peace Henry restor'd Berwick and Alexander gave up Carlisle: and ever after between the two Kings there was Peace. Anno 1222, they of Caithness burnt their Bishop in his Palace, for exacting his Tithes. At last, having quell'd all intestine Commotions, he † 1249, reign'd 35 Years, aged 50. His first Wife Joan Daughter of John K. of England married 1221, † 1238. Table 491, buried at Dunfermling.

95. ALEXANDER III. born 1240, succ. his Father 1249, but the Cummins rul'd all; yet abusing their Authority, divers of 'em, after the King's first Marriage, were put to the Horn for Oppression: then they rais'd Forces, apprehended the King at Kinross and carried him Prisoner to Sterling. But the Death of Walter Cummin E. of Menteith (who was poison'd by his Wife an English Woman) suppress'd this Commotion. Anno 1263, Acho K. of Norway landed at Air with 160 Ships and 20000 Men, in order to recover the Islands which had been promis'd to his Ancestors; but the Battel of Largs dash'd all his Hopes; for there were 16000 Norwegians slain, and few return'd Home, most of their Ships at the same time being dash'd in pieces by a violent Storm 15 Aug. 1263, and Acho † of Grief, and His Son Magnus was easily induc'd to Peace. His first Wife and all her Children † before him. Then he married Joleta Daughter of Robert IV. C. of Dreux in France 1284, Table 378. Historians of Flanders say, that he also married Joleta Daughter of Guido of Dampierre C. of Flanders, Table 353, and if so, she must have been his 2d Wife, and Joletta of Dreux his 3d Wife; for after his Death she was the Wife of Arthur II. Duke of Bretaign, Table 377. Alexander broke his Neck at Kingborn a hunting 17 March 1285, and was buried at Dunfermling, and dying without Male Issue, there happen'd a great Competition for the Crown. See the next Table.

Malcolm Wallace a valiant Knight. | Sir WILLIAM Wallace Knight of Ellerslie, a Gentleman of a most enterprizing Genius, gigantick Strength and ardent Love of his Country, began with a small Band of Men to defeat great Companies of the English, and having got a considerable Army, routed them in many Battels, particularly at Stirling Bridge 15 Sept. 1297, and soon expell'd them out of Scotland. Next he defeated K. Edw. at Biggar and took his Camp. Next Year Edward with a powerful Army defeated the Scots at Falkirk 2 July 1298, which was owing to Stuart of Bute and John Cummin quarrelling with WALLACE about Pre-eminence, where Stuart of Bute was slain and WALLACE routed, whose trusty Friend the brave Sir John Graham was also slain. After the Battel, ROBERT Bruce the Father of K. But after WALLACE return'd he soon clear'd the Country of them all. It is said, that WALLACE invaded England with 60000 Men, where he continued till Queen MARGARET came in Person to his Tent at St. Alban's, and by her too much Familiarity induc'd him to return to Scotland. At last ROBERT Bruce the Son of the former resolv'd to join WALLACE and fled suddenly from London. But while WALLACE was waiting for Bruce with a few Men, he was betray'd by Sir John Menteith into the Hands of an English Army, who carried him bound to London, where Edward caus'd him barbarously to be butcher'd in Smithfield 1306, tho' a Prisoner of War, and never once King Edward's Subject, after he had rescued Scotland 3 times. *N. Soon after this, K. ROBERT call'd a Parliament at Air, which settled the Crown on him and his Heirs for ever. ROBERT having defeated the English at Byland near York and in Blackmore Forest, he renew'd the League with France, and JOHN Balliol the last K. resign'd up all Right and Title to him: then ROBERT settled the Crown on his Grandson Robert Stuart, failing his Heirs Male. 101. ROBERT III. STUART (call'd JOHN before he was King) born 1346, succ. his Father and was crown'd at Scone 15 Aug. 1390. Then he sent William Douglass E. of Niddisdale with Men to the Holy-Land, who being treacherously slain by the Lord Clifford, his Army was dispers'd. DUNCAN Stuart, Son of Alexander E. of Buchan, rebelling, was defeated and slain by James E. of Crawford; and the Dispute between the Clan-Chattons and Clan-Kays ended in a pitch'd Battel fought at Perth by 300 of each Clan 1396. After the Queen's Death 1401, George E. of March and Henry E. of Northumberland spoiling the South-parts of Scotland, the E. of Douglass made Reprisals in England; but Patrick Hepburn was defeated and slain at Nisbit in the Mers 22 June 1402: wherefore Archibald Douglass plunder'd Newcastle, Durham, &c. but was defeated and taken Prisoner at Hallydown in the Mers 14 Sept. 1403. K. ROBERT suspecting the Designs of his Brother Robert by his former Cruelty to the late Duke of Rothsay, sent his Son Prince JAMES to be educated in France, who being taken Prisoner by the Way, was carried to London, which so griev'd King ROBERT that he † 3 Days after the News 16 March 1406, and was buried at Pasly, reign'd 16 Years, aged 60.

On his Return he was crown'd 22 May 1424. He was a fine Gentleman and an excellent Judge, travelling thro' the Kingdom to redress the Injuries of inferior Judges, and to make the People easy that were subject to proud Superiors, whereby he gain'd universal Affection beyond any Prince before or since. He renew'd the ancient League with France, and surveying the Kingdom, found 200000 fencible Men in case of a Rupture with England; and tho' the English took Roxburgh Castle 1433, yet he defeated their Army under Piercy 1435. But his Uncle WALTER Stuart E. of Athol attempting to reign, conspir'd against him; which the K. hearing, left the Siege of Roxburgh to enquire into the Plot, came with his Queen to Perth and lodg'd in the Dominicans Abbey, where he thought himself safe till he should summon his Nobles: but that very Night, WALTER with his Accomplices broke into the Room, wounded the Queen, slew those that came upon the Outcry and stabb'd the King to death 21 Feb. 1437, after his Father's Death 31 Years, aged 44. 'Tis reported that many of the Clergy were in the Plot, for that they suspected him to be of Wickliff's Principles (as his Queen's Grandfather John of Gaunt was) and had too much good Sense and Learning to be under their Influence, and intended a Reformation in the Church, as he had happily effected it in the State. But the Murderers were pun.sh'd with a Vengeance.

DAVID the eldest Son P. of Scotland created Duke of Rothsay 1399. His Father, to reclaim his exorbitant Pleasures, ordered him to be arrested, and his Uncle the D. of Albany confin'd him close Prisoner in the Castle of Faulkland, where he was starv'd to Death 1401. When the K. was of Age and enter'd upon the Government, he pardon'd and receiv'd young Douglass into Favour 1446, and next Year the Truce between the English and Scots expiring, they mutually invaded one another. At length the English sent an Army under the Command of the E. of Northumberland to invade Scotland. K. JAMES hearing of it, sent George Dunbar E. of Ormond to oppose him. Both Armies engag'd near the River Sark and the English were Overthrown, and their General Redbeard slain 1448. Then a Truce was made for 3 Years. The E. of Douglass upon his return from Rome was receiv'd into Favour; yet the King, jealous of his Power, stabb'd him with his own Hand 1452, in Stirling Castle. Then Ambassadors came from the English Nobility, craving K. JAMES's Aid against their K. HENRY VI. who had offended them. K. JAMES consented to aid the Yorkists, if they would restore the Lands in England formerly possess'd by the Kings of Scotland, to which the Embassadors comply'd. Then the K. rais'd an Army to aid them, but was hinder'd from marching by a counterfeit Legate from the Pope, by whose means he disbanded the Army; but perceiving the Cheat, he rais'd some more Forces, and took Roxburg, but was slain besieging the Castle 3 August 1460. But such was the heroic Valour of his Queen, that she would not suffer the Siege to be rais'd until the Castle was surrender'd and demolish'd.

In July the K. with a Scots Army of 16000 Men march'd into England, Cromwell march'd after him and defeated him in the Battel of Worcester 3. Sept. 1651. The King's Friends were all dispers'd and many of 'em put to death. And after he had hid himself a while in the Royal Oak and wander'd in Disguise, he got over into France 15 Oct. while Scotland was bridled with Garrisons and all America submitted to the Rump, who made an Act to unite Scotland and England 13 Ap. 1652. Cromwell dissolv'd the Rump 20 Ap. 1653, and put the Government into the Hands of 120 Persons, call'd the Convention, with a Council of Officers who met 5 July, while the Dutch were twice miserably beat at Sea. The French K. enter'd into an Alliance with CROMWELL 27 March 1654 and Peace being made with the Dutch 5 Ap. General Monk return'd to his Command in Scotland and defeated Middleton's Forces there 19 July, and in Sept. the King was forc'd to leave France, and resided with his little Court at Cologn near two Years and a half. But tho' the Protector was embarrass'd by the Republicans in his Parliaments, and the Levellers and Cavaliers without Doors, yet he defeated their Designs by having the Love of the Army and Fleet. He miscarried in his Descent on Hispaniola, but took Jamaica from the Spaniards 1655, reliev'd the persecuted Protestants Abroad, settled Peace with France and declar'd War against Spain, and took the Spanish Galleons with 2000000 l. of Silver in Sept. 1656. He got a Parliament to his Mind, who disanull'd the Title of CHARLES STUART, and made it High Treason to conspire the Protector's Death. They offer'd to make him King, but the Officers of the Army threaten'd him if he accepted that Title; and therefore he publickly refus'd it 8 May 1657, while K. CHARLES remov'd to Bruges. He made a new House of Lords 20 Jan. 165$\frac{2}{8}$, which disgusting the Commons, he dissolv'd his 3d and last Parliament. The King removed to Brussels in Feb. and the Protector defeated the Plots of the Fifth Monarchy Men and of the Cavaliers, some of whom were put to Death. He got Dunkirk 17 June 1658, and † 3 Sept. following, aged 60 Years, not without Suspicion of Poison. He reign'd as an absolute Monarch 4 Years, 8 Months and 22 Days, and was buried at Westminster, tho' his real Body was by his private Friends buried in Naseby Field, where he obtain'd his first Glory in War. By his Appointment his Son RICHARD was proclaim'd next Day, but being ill advis'd to dissolve his Parliament 22 May 1659, the Members of the Rump made him poorly to resign his Power 25 May, after he had rul'd near 9 Months. And the Rump a second time with the Council of State govern'd for 5 Months, during which Sir George Booth at the Head of a Presbyterian Army to restore the King, was defeated by General Lambert: next the Officers turn'd out the Rump and appointed a Committee of Safety of 23 Men, but in two Months time the Rump turn'd them out 23 Dec. and rul'd a 3d Time for near two Months; till General Monk with his Army from Scotland came to London, and got the Presbyterian Members that had been secluded 6 Jan. 1648, to take their Places in the House of Commons 21 Feb. 16$\frac{59}{60}$, and rul'd for 24 Days till 16 March they dissolv'd themselves and summon'd a Free Parliament, leaving the Government to a Council of State, during 40 Days. IV. JAMES II. STUART the 3d Son, born 14 Oct. 1633, escap'd into Holland 20 Ap. 1648, return'd as Duke of York and Albany and Earl of Ulster 1660, was Lord High Admiral and commanded the Fleet in the Dutch Wars, but laid down upon the Test Act: was Lord High Commissioner in Scotland, where he liv'd like a K. defeated all his Enemies Designs in England during his Br's Reign, till he mounted the Throne 6 Feb. $168\frac{4}{5}$, when he publickly went to Mass, was crown'd 23 Ap. 1685, defeated the Invasion of Argyle who was beheaded at Edinburgh 30 June, and the Invasion of Monmouth who was beheaded on Tower Hill 15 July, Table 516. upon which strange Havock was made in the West of England by Judge Jeffreys and Colonel Kirk. But when he erected an High Commission Court for Ecclesiastical Affairs 1686, (which suspended the Bp of London) and employ'd Roman Catholicks in Places Military and Civil, suspended the penal Laws by his Royal Prerogative, kept a standing Army, and quarrel'd with the Universities of Cambridge and Oxford; Then all true Protestants united against his Measures: and because the Archbishop of Canterbury and six other Bishops would not read his Order for suspending the penal Laws, they were imprison'd 8 June 1688, and on the 10th he issued a Proclamation for observing the 17th a Thanksgiving for the Birth of the Prince of Wales, but the Prince and Princess of Denmark came not to London till the 15th, when the 7 Bishops were bail'd, and on the 29th they were try'd and acquitted, to the universal Joy of the People, and even of the Army and Navy. But upon the Armament of the Prince of Orange the King restor'd all things to their former Situation, and gave fair Promises, but too late; for the Prince of Orange landed 5 Nov. 1688. See more of King JAMES in the Story of King WILLIAM till he † 6 Sept. 1701, at St. Germains, aged 68. See his natural Children in Table 517.

V. WILLIAM HENRY de Nassau III. of England and II. of Scotland Pr. of Orange, Posthumus, born 4 Nov. 1650, Tab. 300. By private Invitations he made a Descent upon England to facilitate a free Parliament, to defeat the Designs of Rome and to assert the Right of his Wife and Sister and his own Right to the Crown, landed with 12000 Men at Torbay 5 Nov. 1688, while K. JAMES march'd his Army to Salisbury, where they deserted apace to the Pr. The K. returning to Whitehall the 26th, sent the Q. and young Prince to France, and 17 Dec. left Whitehall and went also to France, and next Day ORANGE came to St. James's, met the Lords and Commons with their Congratulations, and at their Desire took upon him the Government and summon'd the Convention of Estates, who met 22 Jan. $168\frac{8}{9}$, and declar'd the Throne vacant 2 Feb. and 13 Feb. they resolv'd that WILLIAM and MARY Prince and Princess of Orange are K. and Q. of England, France and Ireland, and that the Remainder belong'd to ANN Princess of Denmark. The King and Queen were crown'd 11 Ap. 1689, and the same Day proclaim'd at Edinburgh, while K. JAMES landed in Ireland 12 March and acted there as King.

King WILLIAM declar'd War against France 7 May, had Edinburgh Castle surrender'd 13 June, the Battel of Gillicranky was fought 16 July, Prelacy abolish'd in Scotland 22d, Londonderry reliev'd 30th, Schomberg lands in Ireland 12 Aug. and K. WILLIAM lands there 14 June 1690. He swam the Boyn to fight and bravely defeated K. JAMES 1 July, who then return'd to France, while the glorious WILLIAM made his triumphant Entry into Dublin on the 6th, form'd the Confederacy at the Hague 16 Jan. $169\frac{0}{1}$, and the Irish War ended by the Surrender of Limeric 3 Oct. 1691. There is no room here to recount his Wars by Sea and Land, till he gave general Peace to Europe sign'd at Ryswick 11 Sept. 1697, O. S. how he provok'd the People of Scotland by opposing their Settlement at Darien and form'd the Partition Treaty; how he escap'd all the Plots of his Enemies, and after LEWIS XIV. had proclaim'd the Pretender upon the Death of K. JAMES (who † 6 Sept. 1701) how he form'd the Grand Alliance; and tho' the leading Members of the English Parliament had always distress'd him, yet at length he got a Parliament to his Mind, who met 30 Dec. 1701, and well agreed with him in Preparations for War against France; but 21 Feb. 170½, the King falling from his Horse broke his Collar Bone (which was well set) and soon after grew so weak, that by Commission he pass'd the Act for attainting the pretended Son of K. JAMES and the Act for settling the Succession in the Line of Hanover, and in 2 Days after, he serenely † at Kensington 8 March 170½, and was buried at Westminster.

V. MARY STUART the II. MARY both of England and Scotland born 30 Ap. 1662, married 4 November 1677, proclaim'd Queen jointly with her Husband 13 February $168\frac{8}{9}$, † 21 Dec. 1694, without Issue. She had been much belov'd and was much lamented by All.

VI. ANN Husband GEORGE Prince of Denmark and D. of Cumberland, Lord High Admiral and Generalissimo of the Queen's Forces, the youngest Son of Frideric III. King of Denmark born 21 April 1653, married 28 July 1683, † 28 Oct. 1708.

STUART born 6 Feb. 1664, concurr'd in the Revolution with her Sister and succ. K. WILLIAM 8 March 170½, crown'd 23 Ap. 1702, declar'd War against France and Spain the 4th of May. The D. of Ormond made a Descent on St. Mary's and Vigo, and the brave Admiral Bembo's cowardly Captains betray'd him, when he attack'd Du Casse in America. CHARLES III. of Spain (now Emp.) arriv'd at Windsor 19 Dec. 1703, in his Way to Portugal, while Savoy came into the Grand Alliance, and the Whigs were brought into the Ministry under the Favourites the Duke and Dutchess of Marlborough and Ld Godolphin, who saw the Tories unable to carry on the War. The decisive Battel of Blenheim was fought by Marlborough 13 Aug. 1704. The E. of Peterborough was sent to be General in Spain, where he had great Success, and the D. of Marlborough pass'd the French Lines in the Netherlands 1705, while Peterborough bravely reliev'd Barcelona, and K. CHARLES III. Marlborough won the Battel of Ramelies in May 1706, and Prince Eugene reliev'd Turin 7 Sep. But the E. of Gallway and the Portuguese were sorely defeated by the D. of Berwick at Almanza. Lord Godolphin contriv'd and effected the Union of the Kingdoms of England and Scotland, which commenc'd 1 May 1707, now the one Kingdom of Great Britain.

The Queen met the first Parliament of Great Britain 23 Oct. 1707, and reign'd glorious both at Home and Abroad. Marlborough won the Battels of Oudenard and Malplacket, and the French King sued for Peace, and offer'd far better Terms than were ever obtain'd. But after Dr. Sacheverell's Tryal and Progress, the People discover'd their Desire of a Change, and when the Parliament was prorogued, the Queen began to turn out the Whig Ministry, and 8 Aug. 1710, she turn'd out the E. of Godolphin, call'd a new Parliament, most of the Commons being Tories, who met 25 Nov. erected the South-Sea Company, set on Foot a Treaty of Peace, turn'd out Marlborough and gave the Command of the Army to Ormond, and created 12 new Peers at once, in order to have a Majority in the House of Lords 1711. Prince Eugene came and waited on the Q. but could not persuade her to continue the War. Ormond separated from Eugene 16 July 1712, made a Cessation of Arms, Villars won the Battel of Denain, and the French triumphed in the Netherlands, till the Peace was sign'd at Utrecht 30 March 1713, O. S. The Enemies of the Succession of Hanover encreasing, thought themselves sure of settling the Pretender, but were disappointed by the Queen's Death 1 Aug. 1714, buried at Westminster.

The K. of Spain entertain'd the Pretender like a crown'd Head at Madrid 1719. The King embark'd for Germany 11 May, and on the 10th June General Wightman defeated Marſhal, Seaforth and Tullibardin at Glenſhill, and took 300 Spaniards that They had brought with them from Spain. D.* 800, and tho' they kept it many Ages, yet we have not a Catalogue of their Kings, till upon the Death of Edward the Confeſſor King of England 1065, Harald Son of Godwin Earl of Kent mounted his Throne, againſt whom Harald Harfager King of Norway came into the Field and fought the Battel of Stainford Bridge, where the Engliſh put all the Norvegians to flight, out of which Chace Godred ſurnamed Crovan Son of Harald Niger of Iſeland came for Protection unto

TABLE DXX.

The Origin of the IRISH Monarchy.

THE learned Antiquary Thomas Innes M. A. of the Scot's College at Paris, in his Eſſay of the ancient Inhabitants of Scotland, modeſtly begins his Enquiry with wondering that the learned Men of the Iriſh Nation have not (like thoſe of other Nations) yet publiſh'd the valuable Remains of their ancient Hiſtory, whole and entire, with juſt Tranſlations, in order to ſeparate what is fabulous, and only grounded on the Traditions of their Seanachies, Poets or Bards, from what is certain Hiſtory; whilſt O Flaherty, Keating, Toland, Kennedy and other modern Iriſh Hiſtorians have render'd all uncertain, by deducing their Hiſtory from the Deluge, with as much Aſſurance as They deliver the Tranſactions of Ireland from St. Patrick's Time.'

IRELAND, no doubt, ſays Mr. Innes, was inhabited very early, moſt likely, from the neareſt Shoars of Britain, as the firſt Britons came from the neareſt Coaſts of Gaul, for ſo the World was at firſt planted by Degrees after the Deluge; for the ancient Britons and Iriſh were much a like in their Language and Cuſtoms, and They might have had many petty Kings, like the Britons, before the Chriſtian Era: but Camden pleaſantly and juſtly ſays, That if what the Iriſh Writers relate of their Antiquities be true, thoſe of all other Nations, compared with them, are but of yeſterday: for they ſay, that Kain's three Daughters before the Flood, took Poſſeſſion of Ireland, mention'd (according to Keating) in Leabhuir Dromnaſnachta, or Book with the white Cover, written (as Kennedy ſays) by their Pagan Anceſtors: But Keating owns that Story to be fabulous, as alſo the Story of Ceaſrach the Niece of Noah or elſe the Daughter of Beatha mention'd in Pſaltar Caſhel. They are alſo particular and poſitive in their Accounts of the four firſt Colonies that came into Ireland, the firſt after the Flood 270 Years, and the fourth landed A. M. 2507, or ſix Years before the Exodus of Moſes, according to Keating, but according to O Flaherty a little before the Siege of Troy; with the Names of their Chiefs, the preciſe Time and Place of their landing, the Names and Reigns of their ſeveral Kings, their memorable Actions and proper Dates, the preciſe Time that each Lough emerged in Ireland (a Circumſtance not matched in other Hiſtories) their Genealogies from Noah, the Year when each Colony expired, and the preciſe Number of Years that Ireland was a Deſart, between the Expiration of one Colony and the landing of the next.

After this, They give yet more circumſtantial Accounts of the Mileſian Colony and their Predeceſſors from Fenius Farſaidh or Feniuſa Farſa, (Great Grandſon of JAPHET) and his Son Niul and his Offſpring, with their Circuits backward and forward between Scythia and Egypt, up and down through Europe, Aſia and Africa, until They ſettled in Spain, as in Table 522. And how afterwards HEREMON the Son of Mileſius arrived with his Colony in Ireland on Thurſday 1 May and 7th of the Moon, before the Chriſtian Era 1400 Years, or according to Keating 1300, Table 523, which O Flaherty has reduced to 1000 Years. But DONALD O Neil King of Ulſter and the other Princes of Ireland, in their Letter to Pope JOHN XXII. A. D. 1317, inform the Pope, that according to their Bards, the Mileſian Colony ſettled in Ireland 2200 Years before Chriſt, with a Liſt of 136 Iriſh Kings of that Race, which the Moderns have reduced to 127.

But in order to explain this Antiquity, there is a mighty Difference between the Scotiſh and Iriſh Accounts of the Mileſian Race; for the Scots in Britain who derive their Pedigree from Ireland, have no Hiſtory of Iriſh Antiquities but what They copied from thoſe of Ireland, as Kennedy affirms: but having no private Views to tempt them to make any Alterations in the Traditions They received of Ireland before They came into Britain, the Scots may be ſuppoſed to have preſerved them as at firſt delivered, or more pure than the Iriſh Antiquaries, who have the Honour of their high Antiquity ſo much at Heart: Therefore the Scots affirm in the general, that They have preſerved the Genealogies, the Names of Founders with their Chronology, juſt as They receiv'd them at firſt from the Iriſh Bards; (as in Fordun Edit. Tho. Hearne p. 487.) whereas the modern Iriſh have alter'd the Accounts of the more ancient Bards, in order to poliſh their firſt rude Draughts, for the Honour and Antiquity of their Kingdom. Thus, 1. The Scots affirm the Mileſian Deſcent from GOMER; but the Iriſh from MAGOG. 2. The Scots make 104 Deſcents from ADAM or 94 from NOAH till King CONARC MOR about the Time of the Incarnation of Chriſt; but O Flaherty cuts off 30 of them to make the Liſt near ſuitable in Number to the Deſcents of Chriſt's Progenitors. 3. The Scots affirm, that GATHELUS, or Gaidelglaſs, or Gadelas the Son of Niulus, having fled from Greece or from Scythia to Egypt, mrd SCOTA, Pharaoh's Da. in the Days of MOSES, and with her leaving Egypt, becauſe of the Plagues, arriv'd at length in Spain and founded there the Kingdom of the Scots (ſo call'd from SCOTA) and from thence he ſent the firſt Colony to Ireland under his Son Hyber (from whom it was call'd Hybernia) and that from Gathelus in the 13th Degree deſcended MILESIUS, or Micelius, or Miledeſpain King of the Scots in Spain: That this Account was confirm'd to Fordun by the Iriſh Bards and learned Men, among whom he travell'd on purpoſe when compoſing his Chronicle in the 14th Century, not long after the ſaid Letter of King DONALD O Neil. 4. Whereas the more modern Seanachies or Bards of Ireland becoming more learned in after-Ages, and diſcovering the firſt Draughts of their Antiquities to be inconſiſtent with ſacred Hiſtory, thought with Reaſon that They had as good a Right to correct and reform their Antiquities as the Old Bards had at firſt to invent them: and ſo obſerving that Moſes being the 16th from NOAH could not be Contemporary with GATHELUS the 7th from Noah; there being about 600 Years between them, according to O Flaherty; but not willing to part with the Name of SCOTA, They have found a new Lady SCOTA, the Da. of a new Pharaoh; and Mileſius travelling from Spain into Scythia, and thence into Egypt, mrd her there and thence carried her with his Followers into Spain, the Mother of a long Race of Kings, as in Tab. 522, and 523. 5. The Scots affirm from their Traditions that their Mileſius ſent a ſecond Colony from Spain to Ireland with his three Sons, viz. HEREMON, PARTHOLOM (or Bartholm) and HYBERT; that the two laſt remain'd in Ireland, but that HEREMON return'd to Spain and ſucceeded his Father Mileſius, whoſe Royal Race continued in 20 Generations, until King FONDULPH or Eondulph, who ſent a third Colony from Spain to Ireland under his Son SIMEON BREAC, who brought with him the famous fatal Stone (Jacob's Pillow in the Field of Luz) and placed it as the Seat of his Throne at Themor or Theamhra, the Capital of the Kingdom of the Scots in Ireland, founded about 600 Years before the Chriſtian Era, and that from him all the Kings of Ireland are deſcended and afterwards the Kings of Scotland too. Whereas the modern Iriſh reſolving to raiſe the Antiquity of their Monarchy, affirm that HEREMON did not return to Spain, but remained in Ireland and founded the Iriſh Monarchy (as above expreſs'd) that SIMEON BREAC was never in Spain nor out of Ireland, being the 38th King of the Mileſian Race in Ireland deſcended from HEREMON; and that he was hang'd or torn to pieces, as in Table 523. 6. The modern Iriſh depretiate the Scotiſh Traditions; for that John Fordun a private Churchman who wrote in the 14th Century, is not to be compared with CORMAC CULENAN, who was both a King and a Biſhop, the Author of the Pſaltar Caſhel in the 10th Century. But the Scots reply, that John Fordun's Book is publiſh'd, but not the Pſaltar Caſhel, which is kept conceal'd with the other Works of the old Seanachies: And farther, that as the Pſaltar Caſhel quotes the old Book with the White Cover, that of the Immigrations and ſome old Iriſh Poems; ſo John Fordun for his Chronicle quotes alia Chronica with Groſſum Caput, the Legenda Brandani, Legenda Congalli, &c. which are as good Vouchers as the others. 7. The Scots quote Nennius a Writer in the 9th Century (more ancient than Pſaltar Caſhel, or any Iriſh Book yet publiſh'd) ſaying, He had his Accounts from the moſt learned among the Scotiſh Nation, and that the Scots (deſcended from Scota the Daughter of Pharaoh) came from Spain to Ireland 1002 Years after the Egyptians were drown'd in the Red Sea, which according to the Hebrew Chronology is 489 Years before the Chriſtian Era. This then was the Common Opinion long before the Pſaltar Caſhel was written, confirms Fordun's Account, and makes it probable that the Scotiſh Traditions were preſerved as at firſt deliver'd. But ſince the Pſaltar Caſhel was written, the Iriſh Seanachies have alter'd the old Traditions in order to raiſe their Antiquity higher, and have added 40 Kings to the Catalogue from HEREMON to SIMEON BREAC. 8. Therefore it is incumbent on the learned Gentlemen of the old Iriſh Nation to publiſh their beſt Records, that the World may be able to make ſome Judgment of their Antiquity: Nay, 'tis long'd for much, eſpecially that Sir James Ware, a Gentleman of Learning and Fortune in Ireland, ſays, That the ancient Hiſtories of Ireland before King LEOGAIRE, are fabulous, or ſtrangely mixed with fabulous Narrations, and therefore in his Account of the Kings he begins no higher than LEOGAIRE, who began his Reign A. D. 427, and that the Reputation of Sir James, Archbiſhop Uſher, Camden, Stillingfleet, the ancient Nennius, Solinus, Mela, Strabo, Tacitus, and many more, preponderates That of the modern Iriſh, unleſs theſe produce and publiſh ſuch proper Vouchers as can refute the Others: for from thoſe learned Authors one muſt conclude, that there is no Veſtige of Learning or Letters among the Iriſh before King LEOGAIRE and his Contemporary St. PATRICK, and that it was the Misfortune of the Iſland not to be invaded by the Romans, who poliſh'd all their Conqueſts, and even thoſe They fought againſt.

Antiq. Hybern. Cap. 4. pag. 20.

But ſeeing They have generally ſo great an Eſteem of their ancient KINGS, and give out that They can prove 'em by proper Vouchers in due time, I think it my Duty to exhibit them in my Genealogical Diſpoſition, as I have already the uncertain Kings of other Nations.

Bamba and her two Siſters, according to ſome, were the firſt who landed in Ireland, then call'd Bamba after the eldeſt Siſter. Then 3 Men and 50 Women landed here; but they having liv'd 40 Years on the Iſland and all dying of a certain Diſeaſe, Ireland was uninhabited till after the Deluge. Others again ſay, That the firſt that landed in Ireland were Capa, Laighne and Luaſat 3 Fiſhermen, who were driven from the Coaſt of Spain to Ireland 12 Months before the Flood, and had agreed to ſettle there, only they muſt firſt go back for their Wives, but being drown'd in their Paſſage by the Waters of the Flood they never return'd. Others ſay that when Noah was preparing the Ark, BEATHA or Bith ſent to deſire an Apartment for him and his Da. CEASAR; which Noah refuſing, not having Divine Authority for it, he went with her aboard a Ship of her Contrivance, with 50 beautiful Women, of whom 17 belong'd to him. who came along with them from an Eaſtern part of the World. He † at Sliab beatha, ſo call'd from him. His Wife's Name was Barran.

LADHRA the Son of BEATHA upon Noah's refuſing them Admittance into the Ark concerted Meaſures with his Brother-in-Law, but coming to no Reſolution, he followed his Siſter's Advice, and was the firſt that ſet Foot on the Iſland juſt 40 Days before the Flood, and contented himſelf with 16 of the Women who came along with them, but he dying before them all at Ardladbron, where he reſided, they were divided between Bith and Fiantan.

CEASAR or Cealrach, call'd by ſome Noah's Niece, but by Keating call'd the Daughter of BEATHA (who had been nurs'd by Sabbuill) upon the Advice of an Idol, built a Ship in the Form of Noah's Arc, and made all Things ready for her Voyage, her Father and Mother, Brother and Siſter, her Huſband and herſelf, with 50 of the moſt beautiful Women that would accompany them, ſet ſail from an Eaſtern part of the World, but not being ſkill'd in Navigation, they were toſs'd at Sea for 7 Years and a Quarter, till they landed at Dun na mbarc, a Weſtern part of the Iſland, and then the 50 Women were divided among the 3 Men; but when her Father and Brother died, her Huſband got them all; he being unable to ſatisfy all their Deſires he fled to Leinſter, and CEASAR broke her Heart and † 6 Days before the Flood.

BITH. FIONTAN had 17 of the Women beſides his Wife.

IRELAND after the Flood.

The firſt Perſon that landed in Ireland after the Deluge, according to ſome, was ADHNA Son of Beatha ſent by Nion Son of Pelus to diſcover the Soil of the Country. He landed about 140 Years after the Flood, or A. M. 1796. but made no Stay, only pull'd up an Handful of Graſs, and return'd; but this was no peopling of the Iſland. Some Authors (tho' of ſmall Credit with the Iriſh Antiquaries) ſay that the firſt Poſſeſſors of the Iſle were a People commanded by CIOCALL Son of Nil, Son of Garbb, Son of Uadbmoir, and that they liv'd 200 Years by Fiſhing and Fowling on the Coaſt.

Fiocall next landed, firſt at Inbber Dombnonn with 6 Ships, in each of which were 50 Men and 50 Women, but upon the landing of Partbolanus they were all cut off.

But the African Pyrates call'd Fomboriacc, the Deſcendants of SHEM, landing in Ireland, NEMEDIUS thrice overcame them; but being routed in the 4th Battle, he broke his Heart and † ſoon after. From Falias a Stone call'd Lia Fail, call'd alſo the Fatal Stone, on which all the Kings of Scotland were anciently crown'd. 2. Sir DANIEL O Brien quietly poſſeſs'd the Tainſtiſhip of Ibrickan ſomething more than a Year, then his Br. DONOUGH ſeiz'd the higheſt Lordſhip, attempted to remove him, and by the Order and Conſent of Sir James Crofts Lord Deputy of Ireland promiſs'd to give him Land to the Value of the ſaid Lordſhip of Ibrickan. To this Sir DANIEL agreed: But when the Agreement came to be perfected, a Difference aroſe, which cauſ'd the Ruin of that Eſtate and Decay of the Houſe. DANIEL's chief Reſidence was Boun Rathe. Donough dying ſoon after this laſt Variance, Sir DANIEL ſeiz'd his Seignory; and tho' that was contrary to the Prince's Gift by Patent to Donough and his legitimate Heirs Male, yet he ſuffer'd none of his People to give any Moleſtation to any of Q. MARY's Subjects, or ranſack any of their corporate Towns (tho' he was able) but rather ſwore in her Majeſty's Town of Gallway to aſſiſt King HENRY VIII's Children againſt all Conſpirators, ſo that his Diſobedience proceeded only from a private Inclination to enjoy his part of the old Cuſtom of his Predeceſſors, and for private Revenge, and in a private Quarrel with his Neighbours. He was expell'd by the Earl of Suſſex Deputy of Ireland in the latter end of Q. MARY's Reign; but after five Years Exile he return'd to his Country, and after ſome Civil Broils, a Compoſition was at laſt made between the Earl of Thomond Son of MOROUGH and him, by which the Earl gave him certain Caſtles and Lands formerly belonging to this Sir DANIEL and his Friends, and which the Earl held rather by Force and the Favour of the then Lord Deputy than by any lawful Right, notwithſtanding he procur'd the ſame (by the good Will of the ſaid Deputy) as in the Queen's Gift by Letters Patents, before her Highneſs was entitled thereunto either by Attainder, Verdict, or any other Office requir'd by her Highneſs's Laws in ſuch Matters, and Sir DANIEL in the mean time was receiv'd into her Majeſty's Favour, and ſo continued till he died.

TABLE DXXXI.

A Brief Hiſtory of IRELAND from King Henry II. A. D. 1172, to his preſent Majeſty King George II.

AFTER the petty Kings and Princes, the Nobility, Clergy and People of Ireland had voluntarily ſubmitted themſelves to King Henry II. of England, as to their Lord and King (for he did not conquer Ireland) A. D. 1172. They received the Laws of England in a publick Aſſembly at Liſmore; and having allow'd them the Freedom of Parliaments, he was pleas'd in five Years to erect it into a Kingdom, creating his youngeſt Son John King of Ireland, aged ſeventeen, A. D. 1177. See Mollyneux's Caſe of Ireland ſtated, concerning its being bound by Acts of Parliament made in England printed 1720.

King John went thither, and tho' he ſoon returned, he acted as King of Ireland during his Father's and Brother's Reign over England; nay, if his Brother King Richard I. had left Iſſue, John's Iſſue would have been Kings of Ireland, without any Dependance on the Parliament of England: But Richard dying without Iſſue, John, who had been King of Ireland 22 Years, ſucceeded to be King of England alſo A. D. 1199, and ſo the Crowns were united. King John viſited Ireland again A. D. 1216, and having received the Homage of twenty petty Kings, he (not as King of England, but) as King of Ireland appointed Vice Counts and other Officers to rule according to the Laws and Cuſtoms of England, and returned. He † 1216, and in November that Year his Son a Minor, viz.

King Henry III. by his Guardians at Briſtol granted a Magna Charta to Ireland the ſame with that of England, and granted the People the ſame Privileges as the People of England enjoy'd; and A. D. 1228, he impower'd his Lord Juſtice Richard de Burgh to aſſure the Iriſh he would inviolably preſerve all their former Charters; and we read, that when King Henry was in France warring againſt the King of Caſtile, his Queen, then Regent of England A. D. 1254, wrote to the Parliament of Ireland, requeſting Men and Money to ſupport the King.

Thus from theſe Three Kings (not from the Parliaments of England) Ireland received the ſame common Law and civil Conſtitution with That of England, with their own free Conſent, Allowance and Acceptance, as a diſtinct and ſeparate Kingdom, without any Subordination to or Dependance on the Parliaments of England: nay, the Learned of Ireland ſay, that no Statutes or Acts of an Engliſh Parliament were of old obligatory in Ireland, till recognized by an Act of the Iriſh Parliament, that gave them all their Force and Vertue in Ireland; or unleſs the Iriſh Members did ſit and vote in the Parliaments of England, as They did in the Reigns of Edward I. and Edward III. affirming alſo that otherwiſe no Inſtance can be ſhewn of an Engliſh Statute binding Ireland till A. D. 1642, occaſion'd by the Maſſacre and Wars; for in Cromwell's Time the Repreſentatives of Ireland ſat and voted in his Parliaments at Weſtminſter. Yet tho' They have never ſate and voted there ſince the Reſtoration, but have had Parliaments of their own in Ireland, the Parliaments of England and of Great Britain have claim'd a Superiority over Ireland, of which the People of Ireland complain, as of an unjuſt and grievous Innovation.

But as to the Aborigines in Ireland, commonly call'd the Native Iriſh, They never could ſet up a Monarch as formerly, not having had a Military Chief to train them up in martial Diſcipline, and could never ſhake off the Engliſh Yoke: For when the Iriſh King of Connaught A. D. 1230, deſpiſing the Forces that King Henry III. had left in the Engliſh Garriſons, attackt them with a great Army, They prov'd only a great Mob unfit for Battel; for the Lord Juſtice Geoffrey March ſlew 20000 of 'em and took their King Priſoner. See Rapin. Next in the Reign of King Edward II. the Old Iriſh groaning under Engliſh Tyranny (as they call'd it) ſent for Aids to Robert Bruce King of Scotland, and he ſent them ſome Forces with his Brother Edward Bruce A. D. 1315, who joining the Iriſh conquer'd all the Iſland, and was crown'd Monarch of Ireland till A. D. 1317, when Mortimer came from England with a powerful Reinforcement and took the Field againſt King Edward Bruce; upon which King Robert Bruce went in Perſon to Ireland to ſuccour his Brother, but at his Arrival he found his Brother had been ſlain in a Battel wherein he had too raſhly engaged; and ſo Robert return'd to Scotland.

Their next Inſurrection was in the Reign of King Richard II. when the Engliſh in Ireland petition'd England for Aids againſt the Natives A. D. 1393, and a great Sum of Money was rais'd to ſupport that King's Expedition into Ireland 1394, who made ſome Progreſs againſt the Natives, till Winter made him retire to Dublin; but in the Spring Richard choſe rather to return to England and ſuppreſs the Lollards, in order to conciliate the Favour of the Clergy. Then the Iriſh Chiefs took to Arms with one Accord, and Roger Mortimer Earl of March the Engliſh Lord Lieutenant was by them ſlain in Battel A. D. 1398, upon which King Richard arriving with a numerous Army at Waterford 31 May 1399, marched to Dublin and had ſome Advantages over the Iriſh, till ſuddenly he was diverted by a general Revolt in England under Henry of Bolingbrook.

Tho' the French Wars and the Civil Wars of England kept the Kings of York and Lancaſter from minding much the Affairs of Ireland, yet the Iriſh attempted not to ſet up a Monarch of their own, thinking now that the Kings of England were their natural and rightful Sovereigns: For in the Reign of King Henry VII. A. D. 1486, when the Impoſtor Lambert Symnel call'd himſelf the Earl of Warwick and came to Ireland, he was well receiv'd, and at Dublin crown'd by the Name of King Edward VI. So Perkin Warbeck was well received there A. D. 1497. In the Reign of King Henry VIII. they made no Stir, becauſe he was by his Mother the Grandſon of King Edward IV. and he was alſo terrible to Them: Nay in the 32d Year of his Reign A. D. 1541, his Parliament at Dublin enacted Ireland to be a Kingdom, and that the Kings of England for the future ſhould be ſtiled alſo Kings of Ireland, being heretofore ſtiled only Lords of Ireland: And in his Daughter Queen Mary's Reign, Pope Paul IV. made it a Kingdom too.

But the native Iriſh being under the Influence of Rome, abhorr'd Queen Elizabeth, and would not aſſiſt in her Iriſh Parliament (which They call'd therefore a pack'd Convention) nor would ſubmit to her New Oath of Supremacy; nor durſt ſhe execute her penal Laws in Ireland till after the Defeat of the Spaniſh Armado 1588; and when They came to be executed, the old Iriſh Chiefs under the Earl of Tyrone were exaſperated into an open War, that laſted till near her Death, when her Deputy Montjoy perſuaded Tyrone and his Confederates to accept of a general Amneſty, with the free and open Exerciſe of the Romiſh Religion, and the full Poſſeſſion of their Eſtates A. D. 160$\frac{2}{3}$.

This was confirmed next Summer by her Succeſſor King James I. when Tyrone ſubmitted to him in Perſon, and was honourably receiv'd at Court: And the Native Iriſh believing King James lov'd them (having in Queen Elizabeth's Time privately aſſiſted them more than Spain did publickly) never diſturbed his Reign; tho' They were much provok'd: For artful Cecil imploy'd one St. Laurence to entrap the Earls of Tyrone and Tyrconnel, the Lord of Delvin and other Iriſh Chiefs into a Sham Plot, which had no Evidence but his; but thoſe Chiefs being baſely informed that Witneſſes were to be hired againſt them, fooliſhly fled from Dublin, and ſo taking Guilt upon Them, They were declar'd Rebels, aud Six entire Counties in Ulſter were at once forfeited to the Crown, which was what their Enemies wanted. See Ireland's Caſe briefly ſtated, printed 1695.

In the Reign of King Charles I. the Earl of Strafford Lord Lieutenant ſeiz'd many large Eſtates for frivolous Cauſes, not to ſerve his Maſter but to enrich himſelf, as Lieutenants and Deputies were wont to do: Nay, he ſeiz'd a very large Territory in Kilkenny County A. D. 1635, only becauſe King Henry II. was intitled to it 463 Years before. But when King Charles I. had conſented to Strafford's Execution and to make the Engliſh Parliament perpetual, the Native Iriſh were very ſorry for it, and being well inform'd (as They thought) that now They muſt either turn Proteſtant, or depart the Kingdom, or be hang'd at their own Doors, They took to Arms in their own Defence, eſpecially in Ulſter, where the ſix Counties had been forfeited.

Mean while, the King ſent by the Marquis of Antrim his private Inſtructions to the Earl of Ormond the Deputy, to join the King's other Friends in ſeizing Parſons and Borelace the two Puritan Lords Juſtices, and in taking Poſſeſſion of the Government there for the King againſt the Parliament of England; which Order was to be executed on the 16th of November 1641. But Ormond not having communicated this Order to the Chiefs of Ulſter (whoſe ſecret Enemy he was; for he lov'd Forfeitures too well) and They ſoon diſcovering it (Ormond's Friends ſay by Antrim; and Antrim's Friends boldly deny it) They were hugely enraged at the Concealment, thinking Themſelves as good as Ormond, and more capable to promote the King's Intereſt: Therefore to ſhew their flaming Zeal for the ſame Cauſe, They conſpired to be beforehand with Ormond, and even to go beyond his Inſtructions, without acquainting the King therewith, which They had Cauſe to repent of at Leiſure.

For to get the Start of Ormond, They agreed on a General Maſſacre of the Proteſtants to begin on the 23d of October 1641. It was happily prevented at Dublin the Night before, by the Diſcovery of O Conelly, when Lord Mac Guire, Mac Mahon and others were taken for attempting to ſeize the Lords Juſtices and the Caſtle of Dublin. But Sir Phelim O Neil and the other Chiefs of the North, not knowing of the Miſcarriage at Dublin, punctually obſerved the ſaid Day for the General Maſſacre of the Proteſtants, pretending They had the King's Broad Seal for it; tho' They only took that Seal from off a Royal Grant of Lord Caulfield's at Charlemont, and affixed it to their Sham Commiſſion: Nor did ever any of 'em affirm, living or dying, that King Charles I. ſo much as adviſed the Maſſacre, tho' ſome of 'em were offered their Lives for the Diſcovery.

But as They deſtroy'd many thouſand Proteſtants by various cruel Deaths, ſo the Government cut off, without Quarter, as many of the native Iriſh as could be found; ſo that 'tis hard to ſay whoſe Party loſt moſt Lives; only the Roman Catholicks will not allow of 200000 Proteſtants being ſlain, becauſe there were not ſo many in the Iſland. And finding no Hopes of Peace, moſt of the Iriſh Chiefs met at Kilkenny, entred into an Aſſociation, or a ſort of Iriſh Covenant, rais'd a good Army to extirpate the Proteſtants and recover their Independency; but ſtill with all Expreſſions of Love and Loyalty to King Charles I. who therefore, when his Affairs grew worſe and worſe in England, ſent Orders to Antrim to influence the ſaid confederated Chiefs in his Behalf. But when that King was beheaded, the Native Iriſh were next puniſh'd by General Cromwell, who, They ſay, made his Soldiers believe the Iriſh ought to be dealt with as the Canaanites in Joſhua's Time.

After the Reſtoration of King Charles II. none of the forfeited Iriſh were reſtored who had been guilty of Murder and Maſſacre; but under ſuch Reſtrictions and Explanations many thouſand innocent and noble Families were undone: And tho' that King was unmindful of them, neglecting them who had been forfeited for their Loyalty to his Father and him too; yet They never diſturbed his Reign. But in the next Reign, or of his Brother King James II. They became conſiderable; for when he abdicated the Throne of England A. D. 1688, he went to France and from thence to Ireland, where he ſet up his Royal Throne, acted as King of Great Britain and Ireland, and demanded the Allegiance and Obedience of all his Subjects, even in England and Scotland; then the Native Iriſh all roſe up in Arms in his Cauſe, and made a noble Stand for him, till by King William They were defeated, and King James was forced to fail back to France.

They have not diſturbed the Government of England ſince the Peace of Limeric, but have ever ſince liv'd quiet, as now They do under the gentle Adminiſtration of his preſent Majeſty George II. King of Great Britain, France and Ireland.

TABLE DXXXII.

The Chief Governors of IRELAND from the voluntary Submiſſion made to King HENRY II. of England A. D. 1172, to the Depoſition of King RICHARD II. A. D. 1399.

THE Government of Ireland is by Vice-Roys, (tho' they have not that Name.) They were firſt call'd Governors, and Keepers, or Wardens, Generals, Lords Juſtices, and now Lords Lieutenants and Deputies of Ireland.

Their Authority is ample and Royal, having Power to make War, to conclude Peace, to make all Magiſtrates and Officers, except a Few, to pardon all Crimes, except High Treaſon, to dub Knights, &c. Nay, in all Chriſtendom, no Viceroy comes nearer the Majeſty of a King for Juriſdiction, Authority, Retinue, Fortune and Proviſion. He is aſſiſted in Council by the Lord Chancellor of the Realm, the Lord Treaſurer and others, the Earls, Viſcounts, Biſhops, Barons and Judges, which are all of the Privy Council, form'd much in the ſame manner as in England.
